Chapter One: PART I: GNOSTIC REVOLUTIONARY PSYCHOLOGY

Revolutionary Psychology is the integral science of the interior knowledge of oneself. Each conference of this Part develops a specific aspect of the work upon oneself: the dissolution of the multiple I-s, the comprehension of the law of the pendulum that governs the swings of life, the awakening of consciousness through self-observation, the cultivation of objective reason in place of subjective reason.

The fundamental teaching: man finds himself in a hypnotic state, asleep, dominated by his I-s; the Gnostic work consists in awakening from this hypnosis through conscious self-observation, comprehension of the discovered defects, and elimination of the I-s through the Forge of the Cyclops.

To dissolve the I is the integral goal of the work; to crystallize the soul is its integral fruit. Each conference in this Part offers a specific key, a practical didactics, an integral exhortation toward the integral transformation of the disciple.

Apply yourselves to the integral practice; the cosmic Mother awaits the souls that decide to walk the integral path of revolutionary psychology.

Chapter Two: PART II: Gnostic Anthropology

Gnostic Anthropology is the integral science of the integral origins of humanity. It studies the Mexican and Mayan cultures as inheritors of the Atlantean wisdom, reveals the integral mystery of Quetzalcoatl as the Mexican Christ, and explains the integral involutive path of humanity from the abominable Kundartiguator organ.

The conferences on the sacred dances, the Aztec calendar, the temples of Cempoala, and the gods Pacal and Tlaloc, unveil the integral symbology of the pre-Columbian wisdom — the integral patrimony that the modern materialist anthropology has not been able to comprehend.

The integral message: humanity descends from a glorious cosmic origin, has fallen through the development of the egoic organ, and can be redeemed integrally through the integral Gnostic work upon oneself. This is the integral hope of Gnostic Anthropology.
