In the year 1950, the great harlot, earthly humanity, was judged. In those days everything was joy and happiness; the life of business presented itself prosperous; the great events of social character caused rapture in all social classes; the erudite fascinated the world with their axioms; specialists and statesmen, fixing new principles in their eagerness to direct nature, said that the felling of trees would bring as consequence great droughts, that rains would disappear if the felling of forests continued — and we see nature's response years later: the rains are so abundant that the rivers overflow and inundate the valleys due to the abundance of water throughout the continent. We are in Aquarius, and Aquarius brings abundant water; that is all.

PREFACE

In the year 1950, the great harlot, earthly humanity, was judged. In those days everything was joy and happiness; the life of business presented itself prosperous; the great events of social character caused rapture in all social classes; the erudite fascinated the world with their axioms; specialists and statesmen, fixing new principles in their eagerness to direct nature, said that the felling of trees would bring as consequence great droughts, that rains would disappear if the felling of forests continued — and we see nature's response years later: the rains are so abundant that the rivers overflow and inundate the valleys due to the abundance of water throughout the continent. We are in Aquarius, and Aquarius brings abundant water; that is all.

Publicly we have endured the thunderous laugh of Aristophanes when we informed through works the fate of our human family. With the divulgence of the Arcanum A.Z.F., haughty reproach joined the mockery, because to spread those methods was to end the world. Our critics resorted to the biblical sentence: "Be fruitful and multiply," in their eagerness to undermine the teaching. My personal friends assured me that the world would end if we divulged the wisdom of scientific chastity; they stunned our followers, assuring them that such chastity would end the world. Today I have approached many of those personal friends who in haughty tone tore at me for spreading that teaching, to ask them to address the great rotaries of the world, the universal press, so that they no longer speak of the pills with which one can control natality and end the world — and I see that this no longer interests them. Now they say nothing because it is the science of men that judges that the reproduction of the human species must be controlled. We know how to take advantage of human failings, and therefore today we can speak publicly about scientific chastity, which in fact includes the control of conception, which is something very different from the control of natality, which excludes man from all danger.

Some time ago, speaking from "Radio Frontera" of Venezuela on the problem of atomic war, which for now is the problem of the day, one of the reporters present asked me: since the deadly atomic bomb is so destructive, would they be launched on the great cities? And I answered that ingenuous question: "They want to exterminate those who are going to be born with contraceptive pills — and are they not going to give themselves the pleasure of exterminating those already born, whom they consider have become hateful? My friends, those who survive the catastrophe will indeed know what class of people we, the inhabitants of this planet, are."

We are already in the days of the end of which the prophet John speaks in the Apocalypse. The destruction cannot be total because the human species is an organ of nature, and its extinction would be the extinction of the planet. Humanity was already punished with water, and now it will be punished with fire. The opposing sides have similar weapons. With the arrival of man on the planet Moon a great sign will be given, which all the prepared will understand. We are now sowing the seed that will bear fruit after the great catastrophe, when disoriented and stunned man, disillusioned with everything and everyone, sees himself obliged to seek internally what he did not find outside himself. Let the chaste and pure of heart know that the atomic ashes will not enter the living temples marked with the blood of the Lamb. Once again the case of the Chosen People will repeat itself — the chaste and holy people whom Moses led, when only the children of Egypt were attacked by destructive forces that came from heaven. Our seed not only perpetuates us in the species, but makes us indestructible before the powers of evil.

When the Christ came to us, woman was war booty and was sold in the market as fruit of pleasure. Christ took woman out of that destiny imposed by men; with the centuries man lost the wisdom of chastity, and we see the result everywhere — everywhere absurdities are born; many mothers surpass animals, having five, six, seven, and more children at a time, to such an extreme that today man fears his own production and tries to destroy it. The statesmen and economists of the world, as well as governments, fear that the little comfort attained by contemporary science will end, and they make us believe that within a few years the protuberant natality, using the present-day woman, will complicate our system of life. And today science without religion has given life to a pill that controls natality by means of woman, and in this matter man only acts as nurse and counselor; with all this, woman has again become a place of pleasure. Yesterday she was treated as slave and war booty; today with the pills she is given guarantee to traffic with her body without fear, and is given liberty to destroy her own progeny. Man is doing with himself what he has not been capable of doing with plants or animals. Why not imitate the improvements achieved with the seeds of plants and animals?

We do not unite with the evil of the world, and we proclaim to all the winds that there is a science of heaven through which the couple united in matrimony has in their hands the control of conception, without resorting to accursed drugs that debase and tear at our woman. Woman, who was created as the eternal companion of man. The Mother of God! Today she wants to be debased by the science of men. All the religious of the world must unite to defend her; that will be the first battle we must wage against the horsemen of the Apocalypse.

There exist divine laws that ordinary common man is ignorant of; to preach that law is to break with the current social and economic order. Intellectual education is required that may provide us with better sustenance and maintenance, but inner wisdom has now become indispensable — that which cultivates and transforms both personalities, that which cultivates the powers of the inner Master and the powers of the personality. We must make blood, flesh, and bone the doctrine of the Redeemer if we wish to be useful to our fellows. We must revolutionize the sleeping consciousness of men. Three are the factors of the revolution of consciousness: We must know how to die from instant to instant — this is war on the psychological I, on our satanic legions, in order to achieve individuality; we must end every defect or food of Satan. We must know how to be born from instant to instant; for this we use our own seed; that genetic energy we must transmute into light and fire; with it we are gradually changing our vague lunar bodies into strong solar bodies. We must sacrifice ourselves for humanity, for our fellows, for the poor orphan, as those who have not been able to serve her call her. Man who never loses his seed learns to go out and enter at will, in his body converted into a living temple; he can travel through all the sidereal spaces and realize that the children of men could be born by the millions and would never manage to fill our infinite Universe.

Man already knew his pluralized life; with it he has formed his labyrinth. With the wisdom of chastity, we will teach him to light his votive lamp, the labarum of the temple that feeds on its own oil — that is, its own seed. Thus, at the same time as we are coming out of our own labyrinth, we are forming individuality; we are no longer a legion governed by demons. Thus we will be trustworthy men. For this is required the orderly and methodical study of this science, which the Avatar of Aquarius is presenting in these Christmas Messages. We have already known the vocational mysticism, much of religion, and now it falls to us to know the science of this grandiose divine wisdom, which allows us to be judged and to come forth successfully as gods of the future.

May the most profound peace reign in your heart so that you may share in the light.

Chapter I

Chapter One: MOST BELOVED GNOSTIC BROTHERS:

On this CHRISTMAS night of 1967, we are going to begin this Message by recalling that ancient submerged continent called ATLANTIS.

In the old Egypt of the Pharaohs, the Priests of SAIS told SOLON that ATLANTIS had been destroyed 9,000 years before they conversed with him.

In an ancient MAYAN manuscript preserved in the British Museum, the following can be read:

"In the year 6 of KAN, the 11 MULUC, in the month Zac, terrible earthquakes occurred that continued without interruption until the 13 CHUEN. The country of the MUD HILLS, the land of MU, was sacrificed. After two convulsions, it disappeared during the night, being constantly shaken by the subterranean fires that caused the land to sink and reappear several times and in various places. Finally the surface gave way, and ten countries separated and disappeared. 64 million inhabitants were submerged 8,000 years before the writing of this book."

The famous Doctor Paul Schliemann, who had the high honor of having discovered the RUINS of old TROY, found among the TREASURE of PRIAM a strange jar of very peculiar form upon which is engraved a phrase in PHOENICIAN characters, that textually says: "FROM KING CRONOS OF ATLANTIS."

It turns out interesting to know that among the objects unearthed in TIAHUANACO, CENTRAL AMERICA, jars very similar to those of the TREASURE OF PRIAM were found.

When said mysterious jars were intentionally broken for scientific purposes, certain coins were found among them on which a phrase could be read with complete clarity, saying: "ISSUED IN THE TEMPLE OF THE TRANSPARENT WALLS."

Speaking esoterically, we shall say that every TEMPLE OF MYSTERIES, every Gnostic LUMISIAL, is in fact a temple of transparent walls with the starry infinite for ceiling; but the cited temple mentioned in the mysterious jars was the ATLANTEAN NATIONAL TREASURY.

In the archives of the ancient BUDDHIST TEMPLE OF LHASSA, a very ancient Chaldean inscription written 2,000 years before Christ can still be read, and it says: "When the star BAL fell in the place where now there is only sea and sky, the seven cities with their golden gates and TRANSPARENT TEMPLES trembled and shook like the leaves of a tree moved by the storm. And behold a wave of Fire and Smoke rose in the palaces; the cries of agony of the multitude filled the air. They sought refuge in their temples and citadels, and the Wise MU, the Priest of RA-MU, presented himself and said: 'Did I not predict this to you?' And the men and women, covered with precious stones and brilliant garments, cried out, saying: 'MU, SAVE US!' And MU replied: 'You will die with your slaves and your riches, and from your ashes new Nations will arise. If they forget that they must be superior, not for what they acquire, but for what they give, the same fate will befall them.' The Flames and Smoke choked Mu's words, and the land broke into pieces and submerged with its inhabitants into the depths in a few months."

Atlantean civilization has not yet been surpassed by our much-vaunted modern civilization.

The Atlanteans also knew Atomic Energy and used it in peace and in war.

Atlantean science had the tremendous advantage of being united with MAGIC; extraordinary robots were manufactured; a certain type of Superior Elementals controlled said robots.

Those robots, thus endowed with Intelligence, looked like human beings and served their masters faithfully.

Any robot could inform its owner about the dangers that lay in wait for him and in general about multiple things of practical life.

The Atlanteans had machines as extraordinary and marvelous as that one which telepathically could transmit to the mind of any human being precious intellectual information.

Atomic lamps illuminated the palaces and the TEMPLES OF TRANSPARENT WALLS.

The maritime and aerial vessels of the old submerged continent were propelled by Nuclear Energy.

THE ATLANTEANS learned to remove the gravity from bodies at will. With a small apparatus that fit in the palm of the hand, they could make any body levitate, no matter how heavy.

THE GOD NEPTUNE wisely governed Atlantis. The most sacred Temple of this Holy God was something to behold. The silver-plated walls of said temple astonished for their beauty, and the cupolas and roofs were all of solid gold of the best quality.

Ivory, silver, gold, brass, shone within the interior of the Temple of Neptune with all the royal splendors of ancient times.

The gigantic sacred sculpture of the most venerated and most sublime GOD NEPTUNE was all of pure gold. That ineffable mysterious statue mounted on its beautiful chariot drawn by exotic steeds, and the respectable court of one hundred NEREIDS, instilled in the minds of the devout Atlanteans profound veneration.

The Atlantean cities flourished while their inhabitants remained faithful to the Religion of their parents, while they fulfilled the precepts of the GOD NEPTUNE, while they did not violate the Law and the Order; but when they profaned sacred things, when they abused Sex, when they stained themselves with the seven capital sins, they were punished and submerged with all their riches at the bottom of the ocean.

The Priests of SAIS said to SOLON: "All the celestial bodies that move in their orbits suffer perturbations that determine in time a periodic destruction of earthly things by a great Fire."

The ATLANTEAN continent extended and was oriented toward the SOUTH, and the most elevated sites toward the NORTH; its mountains exceeded in size, elevation, and number all those that currently exist.

The history of the UNIVERSAL FLOOD, whose versions are found in the traditions of all the HUMAN RACES, are simple memories of the GREAT ATLANTEAN CATASTROPHE.

All the religious teachings of primitive America, all the sacred cults of Incas, Mayas, and Aztecs, the GODS AND GODDESSES of the ancient GREEKS, PHOENICIANS, SCANDINAVIANS, HINDUS, etc., are of ATLANTEAN origin.

It is urgent to know, it is necessary to understand that the GODS and GODDESSES cited by HOMER in the ILIAD and in the ODYSSEY were HEROES, KINGS and QUEENS in ATLANTIS.

All the ancient peoples venerated and adored those Holy GODS and GODDESSES who lived in Atlantis and who now inhabit the Empyrean.

ATLANTIS geographically united America with the old world. The ancient INDO-AMERICAN civilizations have ATLANTEAN origin.

The EGYPTIAN, INCAIC, MAYAN, etc. religions were the primitive religions of the Atlanteans.

The PHOENICIAN alphabet, father of all the famous European alphabets, has its root in an ancient Atlantean alphabet, which was correctly transmitted to the MAYAS by the ATLANTEANS. All the symbols and hieroglyphs of the EGYPTIANS and the MAYAS come from the same Atlantean source, and thus is explained their resemblance — too great to be the result of chance.

Ancient traditions affirm that the Atlanteans had a metal more precious than gold, and this was the famous ORICHALCUM.

The catastrophe that ended Atlantis was dreadful. There is no doubt that the result of the violation of the Law is always catastrophic.

Chapter Two: THE ARYAN RACE

The epoch of the submersion of Atlantis was truly an era of many geological changes.

Other firm lands emerged from the deep bosom of the immense sea, forming new islands and continents.

Some surviving Atlanteans took refuge in the small continent of GRABONTZI, today AFRICA, which increased in size and extension because other areas of firm land that emerged from among the neighboring waters added themselves to it.

The Gulf of MEXICO was anciently a beautiful valley; THE ANTILLES, THE CANARY ISLANDS, AND SPAIN are pieces of submerged Atlantis.

The ancient sea of KOLHIDIUS situated to the NORTHWEST of the newly formed continent then, known as ASHHARTK (Asia), changed its name, and today is known by the name of the Caspian Sea.

The shores of this Caspian Sea were formed by lands that, on emerging from the ocean, had been united with the Asian continent.

Asia, the Caspian Sea, and all that block of land together is what today is known as CAUCASUS.

Said block, in those times, was called FRIANKTZANARALI, and later KOLHIDISHISSI, but today, as we already said and we repeat, it is the CAUCASUS.

In those epochs a GREAT RIVER that fertilized all the rich land of TIKLIAMIS emptied into the Caspian Sea; that river was then called OKSOSERIA, and it still exists, but it no longer empties into the Caspian Sea, due to a secondary tremor that diverted it to the right.

The rich flow of waters of that river precipitated violently through the most depressed zone of the Asian continent, giving rise to the small sea of Aral; but the very ancient bed of that old river now called AMU DARYA can still be seen as sacred testimony of the course of the centuries.

Atlantis passed through terrible and dreadful CATASTROPHES before disappearing totally.

The first catastrophe occurred 800,000 years ago, more or less; the second catastrophe occurred about 200,000 years ago; the third catastrophe occurred about 11,000 years ago, of which, as of its flood, all the peoples have a more or less confused memory.

After the third great catastrophe that ended Atlantis, the ancient country of TIKLIAMIS with its formidable capital located on the banks of the already cited river that emptied into the Caspian Sea and which later gave rise to the Sea of Aral, was covered with all its towns and villages by the sands, and now is only a desert.

In those epochs unknown to a CÉSAR CANTÚ and his Universal History, there existed in Asia another beautiful country known by the name of MARAPLEICIE; this country traded with TIKLIAMIS and there even existed between them much commercial competition.

Later, this country of MARAPLEICIE came to take the name of GOBILANDIA due to the great city of GOB.

GOBILANDIA and its powerful city were swallowed by the sands of the desert. Among the sands of the desert of GOB are hidden very rich ATLANTEAN treasures and powerful machines unknown to these people of the ARYAN RACE.

From time to time the sands leave exposed all those treasures, but no one dares touch them, because whoever attempts is killed instantly by the GNOMES that guard them.

Only the men of the future Sixth Great Race will be able to know those treasures, and that on condition of upright conduct.

Many pearl merchants of Atlantis saved themselves by taking refuge in PERLANDIA, a country known today as India.

It was ATLANTEANS who built the pyramids of the EGYPTIANS and of the AZTECS, who founded the INCAIC civilization, who established the MYSTERIES OF INDIA, CHINA, EGYPT, YUCATAN, etc.

The ATLANTEAN RACE disappeared, swallowed by the sea. Said race had seven sub-races; the last of them, the seventh, corresponds to the survivors of the GREAT TRAGEDY.

The seed of our Aryan race is NORDIC, but on mixing with the surviving Atlanteans it gave rise to the sub-races of the Aryan trunk.

The first SUB-RACE flourished in CENTRAL ASIA. The second Sub-Race developed in INDIA and all of SOUTH ASIA. The third SUB-RACE created the powerful civilizations of BABYLON, CHALDEA, EGYPT, etc. The fourth SUB-RACE developed in GREECE, ROME, ITALY, etc. The fifth SUB-RACE is the ANGLO-SAXON and TEUTONIC.

The GREAT TREATISE-WRITERS OF MODERN ANTHROPOGENESIS, such as H.P.B., Rudolf Steiner, Max Heindel, and others, committed the very lamentable error of supposing that at these moments we find ourselves in the fifth SUB-RACE of the FIFTH ROOT RACE, as if we Latin-Americans did not exist, as if we too were Anglo-Saxons or Teutons, or something of the sort.

It is absurd to ignore the RACIAL phenomenon of Latin America; in all clarity it turns out logical that from the mixture of the Spanish conquerors with the Indo-American tribes, there resulted in fact and by its own right a new sub-race, the SIXTH BRANCH of the Aryan Trunk.

The work of formation of the sixth sub-race in the Redskin territory was much more difficult, because the English conquerors, instead of mixing with the native indigenous people, destroyed them, assassinated them; only in very insignificant and incipient form was such mixture of bloods realized. Therefore the OCCULT FRATERNITY that governs the destinies of the world saw the need to convert North American territory into a melting pot of Races; in the United States all the Races of the world have mixed to form the sixth sub-race with enormous difficulty.

The SIXTH SUB-RACE in Latin America was formed easily, and this is something that the treatise-writers of Anthropogenesis and of Occultism should not ignore.

THE SEVENTH ARYAN SUB-RACE does not yet exist, but it will exist and will be formed by the survivors of the New Great Cataclysm that very soon will destroy the Aryan race.

In those kingdoms today disappeared of Central Asia, and whose ruins still exist in the Himalayas, around the country of Tibet, in those other countries like GOBILANDIA, MARAPLEICIE, etc., all of them located in the heart of Asia, existed the powerful SPIRITUAL CIVILIZATIONS OF THE FIRST ARYAN SUB-RACE.

In PERLANDIA, the sacred land of the Vedas, old Hindustan, and in all those regions of South Asia, existed formidable Esoteric cultures and tremendous civilizations in which the second Aryan sub-race developed.

BABYLON, before its decadence, Chaldea and its august mysteries, Egypt and its pyramids, were the setting of very rich and powerful civilizations created by the THIRD ARYAN SUB-RACE.

ATHENS, the great city founded by the Goddess Athena, ROME before its degeneration and destruction, were the marvelous setting in which developed the powerful civilizations of the fourth Aryan sub-race.

The first and second world wars with all their barbarism and moral corruption point with accusing finger at the men and women of the FIFTH ARYAN SUB-RACE.

Latin America is the setting of the SIXTH SUB-RACE, since our cousins of the north, "The Gringos," are still too Anglo-Saxon.

The Aryan race, instead of Evolving, has Involved, and its corruption is now worse than that of the Atlanteans; its evil is so great that it has already reached heaven; the Aryan race will be destroyed so that the Prophecy that RA-MU made in submerged ATLANTIS may be fulfilled: "If they forget that they must be superior, not for what they acquire, but for what they give, the same fate will befall them."

Chapter III

Chapter Three: MOST BELOVED GNOSTIC BROTHERS:

This Christmas of 1967, it is urgent that all of us study and analyze very judiciously the tremendous moment in which we live.

It is really impossible to deny that we are in moments of World Crisis; never before in the history of our Aryan Race was there a more terrible moment.

Everywhere woes and laments are heard; everywhere firing-squad walls; wretches who exhaust the last instants of their life in forced labor, recalling with supreme anguish their beloved ones; widows who die of hunger with their children, etc.

All the earth is full of armies, and everywhere wars and rumors of wars.

The present chaos is dreadful, and the tyrants seated on their thrones of blasphemy uselessly try to establish a New Order on the basis of blood and brandy.

Paris, like a Great Harlot, continues wallowing filthy in her bed of pleasures; London has become a new Sodom and even attempts to establish the legal bond of marriage between homosexuals; the United States of North America has fallen into collective madness — it not only destroys other peoples but also destroys itself; China, the Venerable China of Confucius and Lao-Tse, has fallen like a Prostitute into the arms of Marxism-Leninism; it has imported a corrupt doctrine from the Western World, and nevertheless declares itself the supposed enemy of the West.

The Third World War is inevitable; those who planned and carried out the First and Second World Wars are already working very actively to give form and reality to the Third Great War, which will be millions of times more horrible than the two Great Wars that preceded it.

All sense of pity has disappeared; now it is even considered a luxury to have a heart of stone, a heart of flint; in many schools and colleges students are taught that Charity is a weakness and that one should never give alms; thus students become perverse and cruel from the school benches themselves.

After the Second World War the moral epidemic of the so-called "Rebels Without a Cause" fell upon all of humanity; these little boys of the "New Wave," without God and without Law, walk in gangs everywhere, kill, wound, rape, get drunk, etc., and no government manages to control them.

The most grave thing about the so-called "Rebels Without a Cause" is their state of Absolute Moral Irresponsibility; when they are brought before the tribunals, they never know why they killed, why they wounded, and worst of all is that they are not even interested in knowing.

The Sublime Artistic World has reached the maximum of degeneration; the Temple of Art has been converted into a brothel, into a den where the homosexuals, drug addicts, alcoholics, prostitutes, murderers, thieves, etc., seek refuge.

So grave is human corruption that homicide has been made into an art, and to top it all off, currently there exist clubs of murderers and abundant literature on the art of Murder.

All the branches of present-day art evidence lust, alcoholism, drugs, homosexuality, blood... horror...

The classical authors are regarded in these times with the same infinite scorn; to play Beethoven or Mozart at any modern party means a general withdrawal of all the guests.

The Four Blasphemous White Clowns of the degenerate music of England are decorated by the Queen of the Empire, and the imbecilic multitudes kiss even the ground they tread.

Everywhere abound murders, robberies, infanticides, matricides, parricides, uxoricides, holdups, rapes, genocides, prostitution, hatreds, vengeance, witchcraft, merchants of Souls and merchants of bodies, greed, violence, envy, pride, haughtiness, gluttony, softness, slanders, etc.

Truly, the Aryan race is a rotten fruit, a fruit that will fall from the Tree of Life under the weight of its own rottenness.

Occultist students fill with infinite horror when they review the history of ATLANTIS in the AKASHIC records of Nature; but the Atlanteans had religion; in that sense they were less degenerate than the followers of Marxism-Leninism who hate to death every religious principle.

The Initiates feel Psychic dread when they remember that woman of malign and seductive beauty of ancient Atlantis, that queen KATEBET, she of sad destinies, who governed sovereign in the southern states of the submerged continent and in the powerful city of the Gates of Gold.

Truly there does not exist in the history of Borgias and Medicis a similar perversity; that malign beauty captivated with her necromancy, seduced with her enchantments princes and kings, fascinated with her raptures, and many maidens and children were immolated in her name to the shadowy entities of the internal worlds.

Atlantean Priestly Medicine discovered in those times what today we can scientifically call HUMAN OPOTHERAPY — that is, the application to the sick and decrepit of the glandular juices of Pituitrine, Thyroidine, Adrenaline, etc.

Those Priest Physicians not only used the chemistry of said endocrine glands — hormones, juices — but also the hyper-chemistry of such glands, the vital psychic fluids of the chakras or magnetic centers of the human organism, intimately related with such endocrine centers.

The victims of immolation, after being removed from the stones of sacrifice, were taken to certain secret chambers where the Priest Physicians extracted from such corpses the precious endocrine glands, so necessary to preserve the body of the Fatal Queen with all the charm and beauty of a youth that bore the weight of many centuries.

Most dreadful of all was that moment in which the priests, after secretly extracting the glands of the corpse, threw it to the fanatical degraded multitudes, who thirstily devoured it; thus those peoples became cannibals.

Reflecting well on all these things, we are frightened, we are horrified, yet all these barbarities become small, seeming almost ridiculous when we compare them with the atrocities of the first and second World Wars, with the monstrous explosion of the Atomic bomb in the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

All the barbarities of Atlantis turn out insignificant before the gas chambers where millions of women, children, and elders, stripped of their garments, died in the most dreadful desperation.

We are horrified by Atlantean bestiality, but millions of times worse were the bombings on martyred London, concentration camps, executions, hangings, cities destroyed by criminal bombs, illnesses, hunger, and desperation.

Never in the history of the centuries was there a perversity greater than that of this decrepit and degenerate Aryan Race, and to top it off, now it has raised the Tower of Babel with the purpose of conquering infinite space.

If that which is the Divine did not intervene in this matter of the conquest of space, before long the earthly hordes would assault Mars, Venus, Mercury, etc., and then all the crimes of a Hernan Cortes in Mexico or of a Pizarro in Peru would repeat themselves on those inhabited worlds.

If that which has no name, if that which is the Real, the Divine, did not intervene now, it would become accomplice of the offense.

In the world of absurdities, there is nothing more absurd than to suppose, even for a moment, that woman dressed in purple and scarlet of whom the Apocalypse speaks, that Great Human Harlot whose number is 666, conquering other inhabited worlds with her famous rockets and crowned Queen and Lady of infinite space.

The new catastrophe that will end the Aryan Race is totally just and Absolutely indispensable.

Chapter Four: DANGEROUS SYMPTOMS

Eminent men of science of the famous Columbia University have spread throughout the world the news that there exists a monstrous crack at the bottom of the seas, a fatal result of the various telluric convulsions of recent years.

Men of science calculate that said crack has at least 90,000 kilometers in length, with an average width of forty and an average depth of two and a half.

We had news that, before dying, a certain old Tibetan Lama informed a certain gentleman about such crack; there is no doubt that the Lamas are not ignorant of this.

The scientific information says that the cited crack goes from the Atlantic to the Indian Ocean and from the Antarctic to the Arctic. It borders the American continent, as well as the Asian, the whole Pacific Ocean remaining in the center of the dreadful ring of submarine faults.

The latest investigations carried out by scientists have come to demonstrate that the crack starts from Antarctica and continues to very near Cape Horn, then bifurcating into two principal branches: one heading East and another West.

We are informed that the Pacific branch follows a very sinuous trajectory, almost hugging the American continent, in such a way that it passes through Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Guatemala, Oaxaca and Guerrero in Mexico, the Gulf of California, Seattle, United States, Vancouver in Canada, and Alaska.

We are informed that in Alaska said branch breaks to continue its course along the Aleutian Islands, and a branch seemingly crosses all of Alaska, for the earthquakes in Fairbanks, situated in the very center of the peninsula, have been very strong, like that which occurred in the month of March 1964.

The branch has been demonstrated, verified, and proven to satiety — the famous branch of the Aleutian Islands goes to Tokyo, Japan, dangerously touching the Islands of Sapporo, Hokkaido, Oahu, Waiohua, Kawaiilo, and some others.

A wise author says that from Japan certain secondary branches seem to depart that head toward Hawaii; there is no doubt that the principal crack orients itself toward the Philippines and New Zealand, from where it then returns to its starting point situated in Antarctica, thus closing a magic circle tremendously dangerous.

Chapter Five: THE ATLANTIC CRACK

Men of science say that the Atlantic crack seems to have its origin in the Sea of Norway. In its quite enigmatic course it passes opposite Spain, Portugal, and part of Africa, to end very approximately in Portuguese Guinea.

Chapter Six: THE EASTERN BRANCH

There is no doubt that the crack that travels toward the Oriental World is born in mysterious Antarctica and passes opposite the Cape of Good Hope, Madagascar, and the Sea of Arabia to end in some unknown place of the Indian ocean.

In all clarity it turns out clear that the most dangerous crack, and that which inevitably will come to produce a Tremendous Cataclysm, is in the Pacific Ocean.

The news constantly given by the press has come to demonstrate to us that the places most punished by earthquakes are precisely in the Pacific.

These cracks of the maritime soil indicate, signal dangerous symptoms that, beyond all doubt, are warning us about the proximity of a Great Tragedy.

The times of the end have already arrived and we are in them. The sword of Cosmic Justice weighs threateningly over the head of the Great Harlot (Humanity).

It is urgent to know that there exists a whole set of Cracks in the depth of the seas, and that this is the concrete result of a geological action of worldwide type completely defined.

Some of those cracks are certainly so deep that they have even managed to put the external water in contact with the internal fire of the earth.

At these moments of World Crisis, water vapor is being produced within the interior of the Planetary Organism at such pressure that surely the day will come when no mountain, no matter how powerful, will be able to resist it, and it will fly through the air reduced to dust, as Muhammad already prophesied in the Quran.

The earthquakes in series have already begun and will be more and more intense, and the cities will fall like Houses of Cards, reduced to dust, and the earth will swallow all of humanity.

This humanity is lost; it no longer has remedy; we must recognize it, and therefore it must perish.

For the time being, and as a start of the great catastrophe, it is now undeniable that the Chilean coast is sinking and that the same is happening in various places of this afflicted and martyred world.

The experts know very well that in various places of the Atlantic and Pacific, the sea has lost depth because the bottom has been approaching more and more to the surface, as a consequence of the internal pressure that has produced a swelling in the marine bottom.

Scientists know very well that while the mountains sink, the bottom of the sea rises.

Great volumes of water are now beyond all doubt in contact with the liquid fire that runs through the interior of the earth, and the result will not be long in coming; the pressures and vapors must inevitably produce an intensive volcanic activity accompanied by terrible and dreadful earthquakes and great tidal waves.

The pressure of the interior of the earth is now horrible, and the worst of the case is that it is increasing minute by minute.

The culminating instant approaches; the internal pressure will inevitably have to reach its maximum limit; the catastrophe is now about to happen; any external phenomenon can produce the end — perhaps an atomic explosion, the passage of any celestial body that approaches too closely, a phenomenon of solar and lunar attraction duly combined, etc.

The explosion at the bottom of the seas will be dreadful; due to the smoke and ashes, the Sun will appear black like silicon, and the Moon will appear red like blood due to the fire that will rise from the face of the earth.

The terrible sword of Damocles appears threatening above the horrible head of the Great Harlot, whose number is 666.

The sins of the Great Harlot have reached up to heaven, and the flaming sword of Cosmic Justice will wound her to death.

Great Babylon will fall, the Mother of all the fornications and abominations of the earth, because all the nations have drunk the wine of the wrath of her fornication; and the kings of the earth have fornicated with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich by her, by the power of her delicacies.

This perverse civilization of vipers, this great Babylon, will be burned with fire, because it has turned out millions of times more corrupt than Atlantis.

Great Babylon, the abominable modern civilization, has become a dwelling of demons and a den of every unclean spirit, and a refuge of every unclean and hated bird.

The world is trembling with its earthquakes; the dangerous symptoms of the Great Tragedy announce a catastrophe, and several catastrophes worse, a thousand times worse than those that ended Atlantis.

Chapter V

Chapter Seven: ATOMIC SCIENCE

The atom is in itself a universe in miniature; all the mechanical processes that take place in the depths of the atom are repeated in our Solar System.

Atomic investigations have evidenced that in the external regions of the atom there exists a true cloud of Negative Electric Charges of Electrons, which, dissociated from the Atoms, agglomerate in dense streams to form all electric currents.

Much has been investigated of the Atom, and it astonishes and marvels. The vital center of that small spherical world is the nucleus of positive charge; around that mysterious nucleus the electrons gravitate, in the same form as the planets gravitate around the Sun.

There is no doubt that the Atomic Nucleus possesses a considerable electric charge, which it uses to retain under its dominion, but at a respectable distance, the whole cortege of peripheral electrons.

The nucleus is the very heart of the atom, and one already divines that within that nuclear, basic, fundamental Corpuscle, there must exist a vital mechanism that is still to be investigated.

All the reason of being of that universe in miniature called ATOM is found in the NUCLEUS; the whole heritage of the atom and its future resides precisely in the nucleus. Thanks to this central corpuscle, the Atom can explode, or on the contrary, change into other atomic types.

Physicists currently admit two fundamental constituents of the Nuclei: The PROTON and the NEUTRON.

In all clarity it turns out absolutely clear that the PROTON is the Basic Nucleus of HYDROGEN — that is, the most central part of the lightest and most simple of all known elements, HYDROGEN.

The scientist PROUT already admitted in his time that the different elements of nature are formed by condensations of the most simple, HYDROGEN.

There exist twelve FUNDAMENTAL HYDROGENS that correspond to twelve categories of matter contained in the universe, from the Absolute to the World-Hells, symbolized by Dante in his DIVINE COMEDY, and which are located in the Submerged Mineral Kingdom, in the interior of the earth.

It also turns out interesting to study the second constituent of the Nuclei, the aforementioned NEUTRON; it has the same weight as the PROTON — that is, as the NUCLEUS OF HYDROGEN — but, unlike all the particles known to science up to now, it turns out curious that it has no electric charge; it is a neutral corpuscle, and due to that it was given the name NEUTRON.

We Gnostics, after having discovered the three aspects of Electric Energy, after having classified those three modes of Electricity with the terms POSITIVE, NEGATIVE, AND NEUTRAL, have considered the Neutron as charged with NEUTRAL electricity.

This matter of electricity in Neutral and Static state within the Neutron may not appear very clear to modern scientists, but sooner or later they will have to evidence it.

One of the greatest enigmas for current Atomic Science is that of Electrons; if the intimate mechanism of the Atomic Nucleus is not yet known, much less is the intimacy of the Electron known.

There exist Negative Electrons and Positive Electrons, and this is no longer a secret to scientists, but nothing is known about the internal mechanism of Electrons.

The intellectual animal falsely called Man has managed to fractionate the Atom to liberate energy, but fortunately does not know the internal mechanism of the electron within which reside tremendous powers.

It is calculated that two PHOTONS of half a million volts are produced each time a positive electron is absorbed on penetrating platinum, which corresponds to a production of PHOTONIC energy of one million volts per Positive Electron.

The active element in the Sun is Hydrogen, and beyond all doubt this is very interesting because the Atom of Hydrogen, with a single electron rotating around a nucleus, is found at the frontier between matter in electronic state and matter in molecular state.

Hydrogen and all denser matter combine with other matter, atom with atom, to form molecules. A superior state of the SUPERIOR RAREFACTION OF HYDROGEN gives as result free Electrons, matter in Electronic state, Light, Magnetic Waves, etc.

Employing the coveted Uranium, modern scientists have had a frank, indisputable success in separating an Electron from an Atom of non-natural, almost pathological density; it is logical to say that thus they have liberated Atomic energy of an incomparably superior power to all hitherto conceived by the human mind.

Scientists then contrived to make Hydrogen Atoms combine to form Helium Atoms, producing in such process energy of dreadful and practically unlimited power.

Beyond all doubt the Atomic Bomb is millions of times more terrible than Dynamite, but less fearful than the Hydrogen Bomb.

In the Hydrogen Bomb there exists Prostitution of Solar Energy, Black Magic of the worst quality; the result has to be horrible devastation and the reduction to inertness of living material, within a completely new scale.

If a Hydrogen Bomb were to explode in those superior zones of the atmosphere where the deposit of Pure Hydrogen is found, all the earth would then be burned with living fire, and every creature and every form that has life would perish.

Wanting to use Atomic Energy, that is, attempting to discover the whole science of the transmutation of Atoms, the form or manner of changing one Atom into another, the Intellectual Animal wants to enter the World where Matter has all possibilities, but he wants to enter that world through the false door; we refer to the use of scientific laws, without Ethics of any kind, without having Awakened Consciousness, without having reached True Spirituality.

We Gnostics have legitimate procedures to enter that Mysterious World where Matter has infinite possibilities, in those Atomic, Molecular, and Electronic regions where all the processes of universal life are gestated.

Atomic radiation has already altered the upper layer of the terrestrial atmosphere, and if the atomic explosions continue, soon it will not be able to filter and analyze the solar rays to decompose them into Light and heat; then we will see the Sun black like silicon.

As the Upper Layer of the Atmosphere of the earth continues to be altered due to Atomic explosions, earthquakes will intensify, because said Layer is the Support for the life of our planet earth.

The air we breathe, the water we drink, already comes loaded with Atomic radiations, and this, instead of improving, will go from bad to worse, and when the Atomic war breaks out, Dantesque scenes will be seen in the streets; people will lose their reason due to the abuse of atomic energy, and the hospitals will be full of pain, and there will be no remedy.

Atomic explosions are liberating from the World-Hells or Submerged Mineral Element beneath the earth, infernal matters, Abyssal Atoms, which are NEPTUNIUM (93), PLUTONIUM (94), AMERICIUM (95), and CURIUM (96), and the results of this blasphemy are beginning to be seen.

Within every Atom there exists a trio of: MATTER, ENERGY, AND CONSCIOUSNESS. In this class of cited Abyssal Atoms, there exists Diabolical Consciousness, terribly malign Intelligence.

Those Atomic demons are already poisoning weak minds, and the life of the great cities has become dreadfully criminal, monstrous, horrible, terrifying, terribly malign; and in plazas and streets, soon bellows, howls, hisses, neighs, creaks, lowings, croaks, mewings, barks, snorts, snores, and cackles will be heard; we are in the times of the end.

Chapter VI

Chapter Eight: WARNINGS THAT NATURE GIVES

In these moments of WORLD CRISIS, SCIENTISTS have discovered with astonishment that the MAGNETIC POLE of the compass does not coincide with the physical pole of the North of the earth; one thing is the magnetic pole and another the physical pole.

There is no longer any doubt that the axis of the earth is modifying its inclination and that the Poles deviate more and more toward the Equator.

These very interesting Geological changes are of exclusively cosmic origin, but they can be precipitated by the scientific madness of the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL, by its ATOMIC experiments, by the dreadful explosions of the Hydrogen Bomb.

As this order of things is going, it is necessary to accustom ourselves to think of the REVOLUTION of the axes of the earth as an inevitable catastrophe that will convert the POLES into the EQUATOR and the latter into POLES. Where today only enormous mountains of ice exist, tomorrow there will then be enormous and deep equatorial jungles, and vice versa; the present equatorial lands will be mountains of ice in the future.

The Revolution of the axes of the earth is a natural, cosmic phenomenon that can be precipitated by the scientific madness of the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL.

The precipitated REVOLUTION of the AXES OF THE EARTH ended famous ATLANTIS.

It turns out very singular and significant that it now rains in the SAHARA and in many other places where it did not rain before.

It has been verified that the ice of the North Pole is melting, and this brings as consequence the terrible hurricanes and cyclones that currently lash the world; let us recall the cyclone that lashed Sonora, Mexico; the one that lashed Manzanillo on the Pacific; and all those that have come ravaging Japan, the United States, etc.

Earthquakes now follow one another in chained form; as soon as Turkey is shaken, so is Hindustan; today it trembles in North America, tomorrow in Italy, or in Central America or in South America, etc., demonstrating with this that within the Interior of this afflicted earth on which we live, the Planetary Fire has entered into a terrible disquiet.

The old volcanoes, like sleeping LIONS, are awakening from their millenary sleep and begin to Roar; let us recall Vesuvius which destroyed Pompeii, Fuji in Japan, Etna, and many others.

The most curious thing is that not only do the OLD LIONS begin to awaken; new volcanoes have been born, some with ephemeral life, others with intense life; let us mention for now PARICUTIN in our beloved MEXICO and that other one of the cold and martyred land of SIBERIA.

The expeditioners have found with infinite astonishment lakes of warm waters at the SOUTH POLE, and these lakes grow day by day. The growth of these lakes is due, beyond all doubt, to a very intense and growing subterranean activity that will go very far.

Three volcanoes that are throwing out a very rare lava of very special type are now in activity at the SOUTH POLE, in the full ANTARCTIC, and nevertheless some nations have already hastened to plant their flags on that Continent; such is humanity.

All these phenomena of the ANTARCTIC invite us to think; there is no doubt that the recent earthquakes of Chile that also shook the bottom of the Pacific to Japan are intimately associated with the catastrophic processes of the SOUTH POLE; the final result of all this must be dreadful.

It has been verified definitively that certain currents of water in the ATLANTIC have been warming unusually in the Gulf of Guinea, which is on the Equator, in such manner that on these currents of water traveling toward the regions of the North in the known "Gulf Stream," they have been secretly undermining the ice, fractioning the mountains of ice that, in pieces, begin to travel toward the Equator to fill anxiously the void left by the gigantic evaporation.

There is not the slightest doubt that this produces a current contrary to the "Gulf Stream," but very cold, that fundamentally alters the climates of the Coasts through which it passes, ending by giving life to Cyclones, hurricanes, terrible tempests, torrential rains, and all kinds of climatic upsets that cause alarm to humankind.

Profound investigations permit us to logically deduce that those waters unusually heated at the Equator are intimately related to the volcanoes of Antarctica.

In all clarity it turns out clear to understand that the warm currents of the Pacific in the last instance come from Antarctica; said waters arrive at the Gulf of Guinea, originating an increase in the Equatorial temperature.

Common Sense, which as someone said: "Is the least common of the senses," makes us understand that said currents of warm water on arriving at the North Pole have to undermine and crack the enormous mountains of ice, reducing in that part of the already cited "Gulf Stream," the ice that was once compact.

The enigmatic volcanoes of the SOUTH POLE will intensify their IGNEOUS activities, and as a consequence the lakes of warm waters of the ANTARCTIC will grow disproportionately; the marine currents will become each day with more and more power within the solemn ice of the North Pole, until achieving total deicing.

It would be absurd to suppose that the SOUTH POLE with its VOLCANOES in eruption would remain in an unmodifiable state; it is clear that its ice will melt like that of the NORTH POLE, and the result will be of APOCALYPTIC horror.

LOGIC makes us understand that on the melting of THE POLAR ICE the volume of the maritime waters will have to increase, and if the recipient, the vessel, the marine bed is not deep enough, the waters will have to go out, overflow, spill over the earth, swallowing entire countries — that is obvious.

Let us recall what was already said in this Christmas Message 1967-1968: In some places of the Atlantic and the Pacific, the marine bottom has been approaching closer each day to the surface; or what is the same, the depth of some seas has been decreasing.

Without the slightest fear of being wrong or of "putting our foot in it" as is vulgarly said, we can assure with complete solemnity that the cause of the formidable maritime cracking is found in the volcanic activity of the South Pole.

For all already said in this chapter and previous chapters, we can be very sure that the earth will return again to a PRIMARY AGE where all animal life will be impossible.

The Aztecs said: that the CHILDREN OF THE SECOND SUN (THE SECOND HYPERBOREAN RACE) were swept away by strong hurricanes, and that men became monkeys.

The Aztecs said: that the CHILDREN OF THE THIRD SUN were destroyed by sun of rain of fire and that men became birds. These CHILDREN OF THE THIRD SUN were the Lemurians whose continent located in the Pacific was destroyed with earthquakes and volcanoes.

The Aztecs said: that the CHILDREN OF THE FOURTH SUN (THE FOURTH ROOT RACE) were submerged among the waters and that men became fish.

The Aztecs said: that the CHILDREN OF THE FIFTH SUN (WE THE ARYANS), would perish by that which is called MOVEMENT, EARTHQUAKES.

The SACRED SCRIPTURES OF THE AZTECS did not give any symbol for the DEGENERATES of our present FIFTH ROOT RACE as they gave for the four preceding Races, but the Christian Gospel gives the symbol of sheep for the Saved and of Kids or Goats for almost the totality of the human beings of the Aryan Race.

The Aztecs said: that the CHILDREN OF THE SIXTH SUN (THE FUTURE SIXTH ROOT RACE) would have the Resurrection of the Gods.

The Aztecs Prophesied ineffable things for THE SEVENTH ROOT RACE, for the CHILDREN OF THE SEVENTH SUN.

Chapter VII

Chapter Nine: THE GREAT JUDGE

The HINDUSTANI sages cite in all their sacred books PRAKRITI, that PRIMORDIAL SUBSTANCE from which proceed by successive condensations or crystallizations the TWELVE FUNDAMENTAL BASIC HYDROGENS that serve as foundations of the SEVEN COSMOSES.

Variety at bottom is UNITY; TATTVAS, SENSES, MIND, and all that multiplicity of beings and of things, turn out to be diverse modes of crystallization of the PRIMORDIAL SUBSTANCE.

The fire that flames, the air without which no creature can exist, the waters of the stormy sea, and the perfumed earth are AKASHA condensed, MULAPRAKRITI Materialized, PRAKRITI densified.

MOTHER-SPACE is then the PRIMORDIAL SUBSTANCE, the PRIMORDIAL MATTER of the GREAT WORK.

SPACE as MOTHER is the fecund womb from which all comes out and to which all returns.

Let it be definitively clarified in this chapter that MOTHER SPACE is the same PRAKRITI of the Hindustanis, the DIVINE MOTHER.

During the PRALAYA (COSMIC NIGHT) PRAKRITI is ONE, UNIQUE, INDIVISIBLE, INTEGRAL.

During the MAHAMANVANTARA (COSMIC DAY), as a result of the activity of the First, Second, and Third Logos, PRAKRITI unfolds herself, then assuming THREE ASPECTS.

The Three MODES OF PRAKRITI are: First, the UNMANIFESTED PRAKRITI; Second: PRAKRITI IN NATURE; Third: PRAKRITI as QUEEN OF THE HELLS AND DEATH.

The Unmanifested Prakriti has no symbolism among the Aztecs. The MANIFESTED PRAKRITI has the Aztec symbolism of TONANTZIN, the ADORABLE MOTHER. The Greeks symbolized this second aspect of the COSMIC MOTHER by CHASTE DIANA.

THE THIRD ASPECT OF THE DIVINE MOTHER is among the Aztecs the Terrible COATLICUE; it is the EGYPTIAN PROSERPINA, the tremendous HECATE, lady of enchantments and of DEATH among the Greeks.

THE MOTHER-SPACE in herself is the ROMAN APIA, the NORDIC URWALA, the SCANDINAVIAN ERDA, the CHIVALRIC URGANDA, the PRIMITIVE SIBYL of the earth.

Any of the Three Aspects of PRAKRITI can, if she so wishes, clothe herself in a feminine form to communicate something to any ILLUMINATED Mystic.

One summer night I was in that state known in the Eastern World as NIRVI-KALPA or SAMADHI; the meditation was very deep, and what happened to me was something marvelous.

The THIRD ASPECT OF PRAKRITI assumed before me the dreadful, terribly Divine figure of PROSERPINA OR HECATE, as the Greeks call her, and then spoke in a language of APOCALYPTIC flavor:

"This perverse civilization of vipers, this GREAT BABYLON, will be destroyed, and of all its peoples no stone shall remain upon another. The evil of the world is so great that it has already reached heaven. This humanity is now totally lost; it has no remedy."

Then full of GREAT FEAR I said: Oh! MY MOTHER, we are before a dead end. PROSERPINA took up her parable and said to me: Do you wish to make a deal with me? Yes MY MOTHER, I am prepared for that deal, was my response, and it came out of my lips with great firmness. PROSERPINA THE QUEEN OF THE HELLS AND DEATH again took up her Parable and said: "You open the dead end and I kill them." I accept MY MOTHER, MY LADY, I answered immediately.

Then there passed before us certain HIGH WORLD LADIES; these Ladies had achieved the SECOND BIRTH, and from their SOLAR BODIES splendidly emanated Solar Light.

Unfortunately these LADIES had not dissolved the PLURALIZED I nor eliminated their LUNAR BODIES; I greeted them, but they did not respond, and full of pride, they did not even bow reverently before the DIVINE MOTHER.

They still have pride, and it is because they carry within themselves the vestiges of the GREAT HARLOT whose number is 666; this was all that occurred to me to say: "I am going to have to examine all these," said the Divine Mother, referring in evident form to the TWICE-BORN in this epoch in which we live.

Then there passed between us certain gentlemen also dressed with SOLAR BODIES, but unlike the Ladies, these did bow full of profound veneration and respect before the Divine Mother and before my insignificant person who is worth nothing. "These are SONS OF THE SUN," exclaimed the Cosmic Mother.

After all, I entered into a period of profound reflection. If some TWICE-BORN must still be rigorously examined, what fate can await the GREAT HARLOT? What will be the destiny that awaits the LUNAR RACE?

It is obvious that all the CONFSSIONAL RELIGIONS await the Final Judgment for this humanity, for this degenerate and perverse Lunar Race, and according to the Chronology and Geometry of the GREAT PYRAMID OF EGYPT, it occurred between the years 1946 and 1953.

We Gnostics know through ILLUMINATION and DIRECT TRANSCENDENTAL EXPERIENCE that the judgment of the nations occurred in the year 1950. The holy Gods judged the GREAT HARLOT and considered her unworthy; the sentence of the Gods was: To the Abyss! To the Abyss! To the Abyss!

It turns out interesting that this period of the JUDGMENT OF THE NATIONS, according to the measurements of the Great Pyramid of Egypt, ends in the enigmatic SUBTERRANEAN CHAMBER, a stony, dark Chamber that has no exit anywhere.

It is obvious that with this the wise builders of the Great Pyramid of Egypt wanted to tell us that after the final judgment, humanity would enter the World-Hells, found by DANTE within the interior of the earth.

The APOCALYPSE of Saint John speaking about the GREAT JUDGMENT says: "And I saw a great white throne and him that sat on it, before whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was no place found for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before God; and the books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life, and the dead were judged out of those things that were written in the books, according to their works. And death and HADES were cast into the lake of fire. This is the SECOND DEATH. And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

All the symbolism of the Great Pyramid of Egypt begins by treading on the GREAT STEP, in such manner that it becomes clear by initiating the first passage below where the singular date of August 4 and 5 of the year 1914 appears. This terrible symbolism continues until the entry to the Chamber of the King which marks with complete precision the date of September 15 and 16 of 1936.

These two terrible dates of the first and second world war astonish when one encounters them in the Geometry and Chronology of the Great Pyramid; the curious thing is that through these written passages it is not possible to pass on foot due to the construction or form, and it then becomes necessary to use the four extremities to walk like quadruped animals; this reminds us of the soldiers walking on all fours or crawling like an animal on the battlefields.

According to the GREAT PYRAMID, our present epoch must pass through the three periods of DEATH, PREOCCUPATION, CHAOS.

"The abomination of desolation, of which Daniel the Prophet spoke, will be in the Holy place... there will then be great affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the world until now, nor will be. And if those days were not shortened, no flesh would be saved"...

Since the FIRST WORLD WAR this prophecy is being fulfilled in dramatic form. The Geometric measurements of the Great Pyramid mark the first World War, the interval between the first and second War; the year 1939 with the date of September 15 and 16 as the beginning of the second World War, and the time of duration of each of these two great Wars.

Finally, the Great PYRAMID places humanity before the GREAT JUDGE in the HALL OF THE JUDGMENTS OF THE NATIONS. The Chamber of the King ends on the date of August 19 and 20 of 1953. What continues now belongs to the work of PROSERPINA; she will end all of humanity.

Chapter VIII

We Gnostics know through ILLUMINATION and DIRECT TRANSCENDENTAL EXPERIENCE that the judgment of the nations occurred in the year 1950.

Chapter Ten: THE SUBMERGED MINERAL KINGDOM

THE RAY OF CREATION begins in the ABSOLUTE and ends in HELL. This word comes from the Latin Infernus, which means lower place.

Someone whose name I do not mention said that the Lower place was this physical world, this CELLULAR world in which we live, but that author lamentably erred because the Infernus is the Sub-world, the SUBMERGED MINERAL KINGDOM.

Dante discovers Hell within the interior of the earth, the Sub-world within the earth.

The descent toward the profound interior of our planetary organism is a descent to places of greater density, of greater materiality. This is in truth the wise idea expressed by DANTE in his DIVINE COMEDY.

Dante sees the Sub-world, analyzes it, understands it, describes it formidably. Dante speaks of spheres or circles of increasing density that led, according to his own words: "TOWARD THE MIDDLE, AT WHICH POINT ALL HEAVY SUBSTANCES UNITE... THAT POINT TO WHICH FROM EVERY PART IS DRAWN EVERY HEAVY SUBSTANCE."

Dante saw at the lintel of a door of hell written in black characters these terrible words: "THROUGH ME ONE GOES TO THE CITY OF WEEPING; THROUGH ME ONE GOES TO ETERNAL SORROW; THROUGH ME ONE GOES AMONG THE LOST RACE; JUSTICE ANIMATED MY SUBLIME ARCHITECT; THE DIVINE POWER, THE SUPREME WISDOM, AND THE SUPREME LOVE MADE ME. BEFORE ME NOTHING WAS CREATED, EXCEPT THE IMMORTAL, AND I LAST ETERNALLY. OH YOU WHO ENTER, ABANDON ALL HOPE!"

The subterranean layers of the earth represent the Kingdom of the Minerals (THE LITHOSPHERE) The Kingdom of Metals is the BARYSPHERE that envelops a heart of incredible density and dreadful inertia.

We must make clear distinction between the Kingdom of MINERALS and the Kingdom of METALS.

The group of Metals is a separate cosmic group among the Minerals; a little beyond the Kingdom of Metals, behind that marvelous kingdom there exists a certain type of very rare matter that comes to take contact with the Absolute.

Behind the Kingdom of Metals is the Holy Strong One, and this is something we must understand profoundly.

THE RAY OF CREATION begins in the Absolute and ends in Hell; but what is beyond HELL? It is certain and clear that beyond Hell, behind the KINGDOM OF METALS is found the ABSOLUTE.

Music clarifies all this. The RAY of creation, like every complete process of life, is a descending Octave in which DO passes to SI, SI passes to LA, etc.

In the Absolute with its Only Law vibrates the Do of the musical scale. In all the Worlds of the Infinite with its three Laws resounds the SI of the Great Scale. In all the Suns with their Six Laws vibrates the note LA. In the Sun that illuminates us with its Twelve Laws resounds the note SOL. All the planets of Our Solar System vibrate with their twenty-four Laws with that FA that resounds throughout nature. The earth with its forty-eight Laws vibrates with the note MI. The Sub-earth, that is, the Sub-world, vibrates with the note RE. The Ray of creation Ends in the Sub-world; beyond the Kingdom of Metals is the Absolute with its note DO vibrating eternally.

Hell with its 96 LAWS and its note RE is then the end of the RAY of CREATION.

There exist then seven orders of WORLDS in the RAY of CREATION, HELL being THE SEVENTH, the last.

The fewer the number of LAWS, the greater the Happiness and SPIRITUALITY; the greater the number of Laws, the greater the complication of life, mechanicity, materiality, pain.

Hell governed by NINETY-SIX LAWS that multiply according to the LAW OF THREE is dreadfully materialistic, horrible, painful.

The SUBMERGED MINERAL KINGDOM is Dante's Hell with its nine circles or regions, the last being that in which the NUCLEUS of the earth is found — a place where the good Disciple of Virgil finds the seat of DIS, the Demon of BETRAYAL.

Truly the WORLD is triple; there exists the WORLD, the SUB-WORLD, and the SUPRA-WORLD. The epidermis of the earth, the CELLULAR region in which we live is only the intermediate zone; under the terrestrial crust exists the SUB-WORLD, the Roman Avernus, the Greek Tartarus, Hades, Hell, Dante's Hell, the WORLD-HELLS.

Above the cellular regions are the ELYSIAN fields of the SUPRA-WORLD, the MOLECULAR AND ELECTRONIC Kingdoms, the heavens, DEVACHAN, AMENTI, PARADISE, etc.

Such is the beautiful PYTHAGOREAN Symbolism of the TWO INTERSECTING CIRCLES; the upper one or SUPRA-WORLD and the lower one or SUB-WORLD, giving place in their zone of intersection to a third region which is the CELLULAR WORLD in which we live.

The Sun, like a gigantic COSMIC HEART of our Solar System, illuminates not only the CELLULAR REGION in which we live, but also the SUB-WORLD and the SUPRA-WORLD.

THE KING STAR not only emits those luminous waves that we perceive with our physical eyes, but millions of other waves of different vibratory tonality which is in fact EFFECTIVE BLACK LIGHT that human eyes do not manage to perceive.

The fine apparatuses of the laboratory inform us that above the VIOLET color, there exist seven ULTRAVIOLET colors, whose dark SPECTRAL LINES are clearly perceptible by PHOTOSPECTROGRAPHY, and from them upward there exist without any doubt a multitude of CHEMICAL VIBRATIONS and even HYPER-CHEMICAL ones, like those of our IMAGINATION, like those of our MIND, WILL, AND FEELINGS.

On the other hand, scientists know very well that from red downward, the Sun sends caloric waves of the X-RAYS, ELECTROMAGNETIC, etc., which beyond all doubt would in fact be FULL LIGHT if human beings had developed that THIRD EYE of the LACERTILIANS cited by HOMER in the ODYSSEY.

The creatures that inhabit the profound depth of the seas and in the dark caverns of the earth have developed that third EYE, that SIXTH SENSE.

It has been amply verified that ants and other insects can see very well with the INFRARED RAYS, and that on the contrary they find themselves in full DARKNESS with the rays of VIOLET color.

Those OUTER DARKNESSES mentioned by the FOUR GOSPELS of the CHRIST are really BLACK LIGHT, another

MODE of LIGHT; it is not then exaggerated to affirm that the WORLD-HELLS are illuminated by INFRARED rays.

It is not indispensable to be ABSOLUTELY PERVERSE to enter the World-Hells; into the Sub-World also enter those who lived without deserving praise or vituperation from their fellows, those who were never REBELS or FAITHFUL to GOD, the lukewarm ones who are as numerous as the sands of the sea, those wretches who lived only for themselves, those multitudes that were never interested in the INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION of the BEING.

Into the Sub-World enter the multitudes that walk behind the banner of ESAU, the vile ones, those who have exchanged their rights of PRIMOGENITURE for a plate of LENTILS, those who say: First I am going to get money and afterward, if I have time left, I will seek God.

Into the WORLD-HELLS enter the lustful and those who hate sex, the HOMOSEXUALS and the IGNORANT ABSTAINERS who did not arrive at the Second Birth; heaven reproves USURY, INCONTINENCE, MALICE, AND MAD BESTIALITY.

INVOLUTION in the World-Hells, passing through animal and pseudo-vegetable states, ends in the Mineral Kingdom with the fatal epilogue of the SECOND DEATH. Thus, and only thus, can FAILED SOULS liberate themselves, return to the primitive chaos to reinitiate later a new evolutionary ascent toward the human state, passing again through the mineral, vegetable, animal, and human KINGDOMS.

Chapter IX

The Sun, like a gigantic COSMIC HEART of our Solar System, illuminates not only the CELLULAR REGION in which we live, but also the SUB-WORLD and the SUPRA-WORLD.

Chapter Eleven: THE PROTOPLASMIC BODIES

The men of SCIENCE have been able to verify that METALS are also exposed to illness and death. Certain poisons can produce illness and death in METALS.

Doctor Arnaldo Krumm Heller (HUIRACocha), Medical Colonel of the MEXICAN Army, and Professor of Medicine of the University of Berlin, said in his Rosicrucian Novel that every ATOM is a trio of MATTER, ENERGY, and CONSCIOUSNESS.

We GNOSTICS know that the Sub-Atomic particles possess CONSCIOUSNESS. We GNOSTICS affirm emphatically that the electrical and gravitational characteristics of any particle represent its mental qualities.

THE SUBSTANCE OF MIND exists in all the KINGDOMS of nature, including the MINERAL, VEGETABLE, ANIMAL KINGDOMS.

The only difference that truly exists between the beasts and the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakenly called MAN, consists in that this latter converted the mind into INTELLECT.

LIFE and CONSCIOUSNESS also exist under certain forms in the elementary particles of nature.

The particles receive information beyond time and space, and this reminds us of the EXTRA-SENSORY perceptions of certain very PSYCHIC subjects with whom experiments have been made in the Laboratories of Parapsychology.

When an ELECTRON and a POSITRON annihilate to liberate energy, two GAMMA RAYS are produced; these are intimately related to each other, and when one of them undergoes transformation, the other inevitably receives its influence without any ordinary physical nexus existing between the two GAMMA PHOTONS.

Observe the similarity of this phenomenon to those who study PARAPSYCHOLOGY.

The Chinese LEE and YANG demonstrated scientifically, through experiments with atomic particles, that in our region of the Universe space is not symmetrical and that the smallest particles of matter tend in it to rotate upon themselves in a privileged direction. The men of science do not yet know how this effect can be related to the essential symmetry of matter.

The Science of OPTICS is now approaching the FOURTH DIMENSION, and the day is not distant in which the TETRA-DIMENSIONAL space will be made visible by means of very powerful lenses.

PARACELSUS speaks in his books of Medicine about GNOMES, ONDINES, NEREIDS, GENIES, SALAMANDERS, SYLPHS, etc., and as is natural the Imbeciles laugh at all this.

We Gnostics discover in the MINERAL ATOMS those GNOMES of which the medieval physician PARACELSUS spoke; and although scientists laugh at us, we also know how to work with the VEGETABLE ELEMENTALS to cure the sick, just as the good AUREOLO PARACELSUS did in his time.

The CONSCIOUSNESS of the ELEMENTALS is clothed with suprasensible protoplasmic bodies.

When UNIVERSAL LIFE concentrates in the MINERAL KINGDOM, then by SPONTANEOUS GENERATION the PROTOPLASMIC BODIES or LUNAR BODIES sprout forth; this class of BODIES are susceptible of many changes and transformations.

The GNOMES of the MINERAL KINGDOM, when they enter the evolution of the VEGETABLE KINGDOM, suffer serious transformations in their PROTOPLASMIC BODIES. When the VEGETABLE ELEMENTALS enter the ANIMAL EVOLUTION, they pass through new transformations in their PROTOPLASMIC BODIES.

When the wave of evolutionary life passes from the animal to man, new changes and metamorphoses are verified in the PROTOPLASMIC BODIES of the ANIMAL ELEMENTALS that enter human wombs for the first time.

The INTERNAL BODIES that the PSEUDO-ESOTERIC and PSEUDO-OCCULTIST SCHOOLS study are common property of all the beasts of NATURE; they are the Lunar bodies or PROTOPLASMIC BODIES.

Within the LUNAR PROTOPLASMIC BODIES are contained the Laws of EVOLUTION and INVOLUTION.

The PROTOPLASMIC bodies evolve to a certain point perfectly defined by nature; afterward they precipitate along the path of involution until returning to the original point of departure.

The evolution of the protoplasmic bodies is realized on the surface of the earth, in the cellular world.

The involution of the protoplasmic bodies is processed in the SUBMERGED MINERAL KINGDOM.

It is not strange that the protoplasmic bodies initiate their involution in the cellular world, but their complex involutory processes unfold in the sub-world.

The death of the PHYSICAL BODY can never destroy the protoplasmic bodies; these continue in the MOLECULAR WORLD.

Spiritists speak much about the PERISPIRIT, and this in itself is constituted by the protoplasmic bodies.

The ECTOPLASM, the MATERIALIZATION of the Lunar Bodies has been realized in some scientific laboratories with full success, and such protoplasmic bodies have even been photographed.

THE embryonic SOUL that every human being carries within is clothed with the PROTOPLASMIC bodies.

The INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakenly called MAN is a MACHINE necessary for the economy of nature.

The evolution of the protoplasmic bodies is necessary up to that point at which the machine can function correctly.

The human machine receives and automatically transforms certain COSMIC RAYS that it then unconsciously transmits to the interior layers of the earth.

Every animal and every plant carries out unconsciously this same function, and the Intellectual Animal could not be an exception.

Each animal and each plant, according to its species, captures and transforms for the good of the planetary organism in which we live, a definite type of cosmic rays; some capture vibrations of the very earth, TERRESTRIAL RAYS that must be transformed and transmitted again to the earth.

Other vegetable and animal families have the mission of receiving and transforming SOLAR RAYS that the earth then receives avidly.

There also exist multiple vegetable and animal families that receive, transform, and transmit to the interior of the terrestrial organism cosmic rays of the GREAT INFINITE.

The involutory lunar bodies repeat the processes lived of nature, but in inverted form. This signifies reliving in RETROSPECTIVE form all the human, animal, vegetable, and mineral past.

When the LUNAR PROTOPLASMIC BODIES return to the original starting point located in the Mineral Kingdom as the basic point of the scale, then these bodies are reduced to cosmic dust.

The destruction of the protoplasmic bodies is indispensable to liberate the lost SOULS.

These latter return to the PRIMITIVE ORIGINAL CHAOS from where they will have to rise again until reaching the HUMAN STATE again, after having repeated the very long and millenary EVOLUTIONARY ascent that develops through the Mineral, Vegetable, Animal, and Human kingdoms.

The destruction of the LUNAR PROTOPLASMIC BODIES in the WORLD-HELLS is infinitely painful, and DANTE symbolized it marvelously in his Divine Comedy.

It is a constant falling backward, toward the past, in regions ever more dense, where only weeping and gnashing of teeth is heard.

Chapter X

The only difference that truly exists between the beasts and the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakonly called MAN, consists in that this latter converted the mind into INTELLECT.

Chapter Twelve: THE PLURALIZED I

The organism of that TRI-CEREBRATED BIPED mistakenly called MAN is a precious "Machine," with five marvelous PSYCHO-PHYSIOLOGICAL CENTERS.

The order of said centers is the following: INTELLECT, EMOTION, MOVEMENT, INSTINCT, AND SEX.

When one self-observes profoundly, one arrives at the logical conclusion that, although each of the five CENTERS penetrates the whole organism, it nevertheless has its capital basic point somewhere in the organic machine.

The center of gravity of the INTELLECT is found in the BRAIN; the center of gravity of the EMOTIONS resides in the SOLAR PLEXUS; the center of gravity of MOVEMENT is located in the upper part of the SPINAL COLUMN; the center of gravity of INSTINCT must be sought in the lower part of the SPINAL COLUMN; the center of gravity of SEX clearly has its roots in the SEXUAL organs.

Each of the five PSYCHO-PHYSIOLOGICAL centers of the Machine has specific, absolutely defined functions.

A profound study of the five centers permits us to understand that there exists a difference of speeds among them, and this is already proven.

Students of PSEUDO-OCCULTIST and PSEUDO-ESOTERIST type believe that the THOUGHT center is extraordinarily rapid, and they err lamentably, because the MOTOR and INSTINCTIVE centers are 30,000 times faster.

We have been told that the Emotional Center is still much faster than the Motor and Instinctive Centers; great sages affirm that the EMOTIONAL CENTER is really 30,000 times faster than the Movement and Instinct centers.

THE DUALISM of the mind with the incessant battle of the ANTITHESES that divide thought, the pleasant and unpleasant EMOTIONS, the instinctive sensations of pleasure and pain, sexual attraction or repulsion, etc., indicate, signal a certain DUALISM in the SPECIFIC FUNCTIONS of each center; there is no doubt that each of the five CENTERS is positive and negative at the same time.

All five CYLINDERS of the human machine are fundamental in life, but beyond all doubt the SEXUAL Center, the Fifth Center, is really the most important and the fastest; in this latter are found the very roots of our existence.

The Sexual Center is extraordinarily subtle and swift, thanks to its fine energy; the greater part of its manifestations take place on a molecular level, where the impulses are transmitted thousands of times more rapidly than those of the mind.

The idea of LOVE at first sight, when it really occurs, is based on the concrete fact that in certain cases the SEXUAL FUNCTION can know instantly whether or not sexual affinity exists with a certain person of the opposite sex at a given instant.

The search for the SEXUAL COMPLEMENT certainly occurs in every function of the human organism, and the sense of attraction, indifference, repulsion between a man and a woman is the result of a highly complicated calculation of the factor of reciprocity existing in each function and of the average or total of all those factors together. Fortunately, that abstruse and difficult calculation never has to be done by the Intellectual Center, but through the Sexual Center, which can obtain a correct result in a second or even less.

Within the SEXUAL CENTER there exist infinite possibilities that, developed, can convert us into ANGELS or DEMONS.

The Fifth CENTER possesses a certain SOLAR ELECTRONIC fire which, wisely awakened, can transform us radically.

In ancient times, due to a certain mistake of some sacred individuals, humanity developed the negative side of the Sexual Center, the shadowy LUCIFERIAN aspect.

The sexual electronic fire directed downward, toward the Atomic Infernos of man, is the ABOMINABLE KUNDARTIGUADOR ORGAN, the TAIL of SATAN. Humanity fortunately lost that LUCIFERIAN ORGAN after having developed it, but the fatal consequences remained.

It is urgent to know that the disastrous result of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ was deposited in the five cylinders of the MACHINE.

It is indispensable to know that the bad consequences of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ constitute the LUNAR EGO, the pluralized I.

It is lamentable that the five Psycho-Physiological centers of the Intellectual Beast mistakenly called man are absolutely controlled by that legion of EGO-DEVILS that every person carries within.

It causes pain to know that the SOUL, the BUDDHATA, the ESSENCE we carry within, is bottled up within the Lunar Ego.

The incorrect functioning of the five PSYCHO-PHYSIOLOGICAL centers of the human machine is due to the pernicious activities of the PLURALIZED I — that is, to the bad consequences of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

It is urgent to dissolve the pluralized I to liberate the ESSENCE, the BUDDHATA, the embryonic SOUL, the PSYCHIC material.

Those who do not concern themselves in any of their lives with DISSOLVING THE PLURALIZED I, those who in no way ever wish to end with the bad consequences of the ABOMINABLE KUNDARTIGUADOR ORGAN, when their cycle of time has been completed, must enter at the end of the journey the WORLD-HELLS.

The entry of the FAILED into the Submerged Mineral Kingdom is indispensable to disintegrate the pluralized I, within which unfortunately the Essence, the Soul, is bottled up.

The Lunar Ego, that set of distinct, diverse ENTITIES that travel in autonomous form through the suprasensible worlds, hides within the Lunar Bodies.

The painful and terrible INVOLUTION of the PLURALIZED I and its lunar protoplasmic vehicles in the World-Hells is a falling backward, toward the original primitive chaos.

INVOLUTION descends through the ANIMAL, VEGETABLE, AND MINERAL steps. On the last rung of the ladder the fossilized LUNAR EGOS are reduced to cosmic dust; that is the second death.

The absolute destruction of the PLURALIZED I and of its lunar vehicles is indispensable to liberate the Essence.

The LUNAR RACE, this perverse RACE of ADAM, is now entering the INFERNAL INVOLUTION through successive cataclysms.

Wars, cyclones, illnesses, fire, floods, and earthquakes will end the Lunar Race.

Chapter XI

It is lamentable that the five Psycho-Physiological centers of the Intellectual Beast mistakenly called man are absolutely controlled by that legion of EGO-DEVILS that every person carries within.

Chapter Thirteen: CONSCIOUSNESS

In our preceding ESOTERIC chapter we spoke of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ or SATANIC TAIL, and we said with complete clarity that this is a LUCIFERIAN SEXUAL ELECTRONIC FIRE which, descending from the COCCYGEAL bone located at the base of the spinal column, is projected downward, toward the ATOMIC INFERNOS of that poor INTELLECTUAL animal mistakenly called MAN.

We said in our present chapter that, due to a lamentable mistake of certain SACRED INDIVIDUALS, in the past, humanity developed this abominable Kundartiguador Organ which fortunately it lost later.

THE SEXUAL ELECTRONIC FIRE improperly projected toward the Atomic Infernos of the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL now appears like a SERPENT coiled three and a half times within a certain magnetic center located in the Coccyx.

THE SOLAR ELECTRONIC FIRE in its positive aspect, it is clear, leads us to the "Final Liberation," but no human being is free from the NEGATIVE FLAMES or KUNDARTIGUADOR FIRE.

The ESOTERIC investigations have come to demonstrate to us that in the low atomic depths of the INTELLECTUAL beast mistakenly called Man, INFERNAL FIRE exists.

If those splendid and marvelous worlds that populate infinite space are simple granulations of the SOLAR POSITIVE FOHAT, we can also affirm without fear of being mistaken, that those Ego-Demons we carry within come to be mere crystallizations of that NEGATIVE and BLIND FOHATIC force of the Kundartiguador Organ.

The innocent victim of all those granulations of the Negative Sexual Fohat is always the Consciousness, the Essence, the Buddhata, that "Soul Embryo" that every creature carries within.

It is lamentable that our consciousness is bottled up among those multiple Ego-Demons that as a whole constitute the LUNAR EGO, THE MYSELF, THE I-SELF.

There does not exist true individuality within the poor INTELLECTUAL BEAST. Each IDEA, each FEELING, each MOVEMENT, any SENSATION, any DESIRE, etc., are simple PSYCHOLOGICAL manifestations of distinct, different Egos that are never linked among themselves, nor coordinated in any way. Such an I mechanically follows such another, and some even give themselves the luxury of appearing accompanied, but among them there are neither orders nor systems.

These Satanic Egos, horrible crystallizations of the negative SEXUAL fire, are at bottom dreadfully SUBCONSCIOUS and BESTIAL.

Each of these Satanic Egos only represents at a given instant a tiny part of all our PSYCHOLOGICAL functions, but he believes that he is THE LORD, THE ONLY, THE ALL.

The I who today swears ETERNAL LOVE to a woman is tomorrow displaced by another I who has nothing to do with the oath, and as is barely normal, the subject withdraws, leaving the unhappy woman well disillusioned.

The I who today swears fidelity before the Gnostic Altar is later displaced by another I who has nothing to do with such oath, and then the subject withdraws from our Gnostic Movement leaving all the brothers astonished.

The INTELLECTUAL BEAST is an UNCONSCIOUS machine, without any RESPONSIBILITY, without true INDIVIDUALITY.

Consciousness sleeps profoundly in each I of the Legion of satans; the Consciousness dreams within each I.

People are HYPNOTIZED by that BLIND FOHATIC force of the ABOMINABLE KUNDARTIGUADOR ORGAN.

There exist four states of CONSCIOUSNESS: SLEEP, WAKING CONSCIOUSNESS, SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS, and OBJECTIVE CONSCIOUSNESS.

Imagine a four-story house: the INTELLECTUAL BEAST lives on the two lower stories.

In no way does it turn out exaggerated to affirm that the two upper stories of the house of Consciousness are absolutely unknown to the poor INTELLECTUAL BEAST.

The first state of CONSCIOUSNESS is normal, common, and ordinary sleep; during SLEEP the Pluralized I, wrapped in its protoplasmic lunar bodies, abandons the PHYSICAL BODY and wanders through the MOLECULAR WORLD.

The second state, mistakenly qualified as the state of WAKING CONSCIOUSNESS, is really at bottom a simple continuation of sleep, certainly much more dangerous than the first state.

The INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakenly called MAN is a dreamer one hundred percent; Someone said that life is a dream, and he was not mistaken.

The INTELLECTUAL BEAST works dreaming, drives cars dreaming, is born dreaming, and dies dreaming.

The four GOSPELS of JESUS THE CHRIST insist on the need to AWAKEN, but the INTELLECTUAL Beast believes he is awake; when someone accepts that he is asleep, it is an unmistakable sign that he wants to awaken.

The world has seven Dimensions, but the Intellectual Animal perceives only three, because he is asleep.

The Intellectual Animal has a dreadfully THREE-DIMENSIONAL PSYCHOLOGICAL IDIOSYNCRASY, and therefore its deficient spatial sense perceives only LENGTH, LATITUDE, AND HEIGHT.

The development of the SPATIAL sense is only possible with the "Awakening of consciousness."

The clear perception of the SUPERIOR DIMENSIONS of space is only possible with the "Awakening of Consciousness."

The trace that a point leaves on moving in space is a line; the trace that a line leaves in space is the surface; the trace that a surface on moving leaves in space is the SOLID; the trace that a SOLID leaves in space on moving is the HYPERSOLID: The fourth dimension of any body.

THE HYPERSOLID, THE HYPERVOLUME, HYPERSPACE are only perceivable with the awakening of consciousness.

We have been told that in its exclusively temporal aspect the FOURTH DIMENSION is TIME.

We have been informed that the FIFTH DIMENSION is ETERNITY. Beyond all doubt the SIXTH DIMENSION is beyond ETERNITY and TIME.

There exists the ABSOLUTE ZERO in dimensional matter; the ZERO DIMENSION is PURE SPIRIT: this is a SEVENTH DIMENSION.

The INTELLECTUAL BEAST is bottled up in the GEOMETRY of EUCLID because it has never awakened consciousness. The consciousness that sleeps contents itself with the THREE-DIMENSIONAL GEOMETRY of Euclid.

ONE-DIMENSIONAL creatures only possess sensations of pleasure and pain, liking and disliking; example: the snail.

TWO-DIMENSIONAL creatures such as the dog, the cat, the horse, etc., possess sensations and representations.

The THREE-DIMENSIONAL BIPED mistakenly called MAN possesses sensations, representations, and concepts.

The SPATIAL SENSE could never be developed without the awakening of consciousness.

The SPATIAL SENSE includes in ABSOLUTE form the five senses and many others that the physiologists totally ignore.

People SLEEP and are at these times entering the Sub-World, totally convinced that they are going very well.

Chapter XII

It is lamentable that our consciousness is bottled up among those multiple Ego-Demons that as a whole constitute the LUNAR EGO, THE MYSELF, THE I-SELF.

Chapter Fourteen: REINCARNATION - RETURN

Among the Angels of Death there exist degrees of distinct splendor and hierarchy, but all of them depend on the supreme orders of the third aspect of PRAKRITI, MOTHER SPACE, the BLESSED GODDESS MOTHER-DEATH, HECATE, PROSERPINA, COATLICUE, KALI, etc.

These Ministers of Death in their spectral, skeletal figure, with their scythe in the right hand and clothed in their funereal garments, truly have a terribly Divine appearance.

The Angels of Death cut the THREAD of LIFE in their day and in their hour, according to the wise Law of Destiny.

To the sepulchral grave go the physical body and the Personality. This latter disintegrates very slowly and does not always remain within the sepulcher; it tends to wander through the whole cemetery.

Much is said in PSEUDO-OCCULTIST literature about the VITAL BODY or LINGAM SARIRA, the seat of organic life without which the existence of the physical body would be impossible, but that VITAL background is not the Personality.

The Vital Body disintegrates little by little as the corpse disintegrates. The Personality wanders through the cemetery, and its dissolution is slower than that of the Vital Body.

Those who affirm that the Personality reincarnates lie lamentably, because the Personality is a child of its time; it is born in its time and dies in its time; there exists no tomorrow for the Personality of the Dead one.

That which continues beyond death is the EGO clothed with its lunar bodies. That which does not die is the Essence, the Buddhata, the Soul, unfortunately bottled up within the Ego.

The retrospective vision of the life that has just passed has as its only objective to make an inventory of the finished existence, to know what we have and what we lack.

The judgment before the Tribunals of Karma after the inventory is the precise result of the finalized existence.

In ANCIENT TIMES almost all souls unbottled themselves from within the Ego temporarily to spend their vacations in the ineffable Kingdoms of the Molecular and Electronic Worlds, and afterward returned like the GENIE of the bottle to the bottle itself, to BE REINCORPORATED in this valley of tears.

In these times of anguish and perversity there are now almost no vacations in the Superior Worlds; now the DISINCARNATED enter the World-Hells or RETURN immediately to this valley of tears, to end as soon as possible their cycle of successive lives.

In pseudo-occultist literature it is affirmed mistakenly that millions of lives are assigned to every human being until achieving PERFECTION, but that concept is false because to each human being only a determined number of existences is given according to THE LAW OF NUMBER, MEASURE AND WEIGHT.

Really only one hundred and eight lives are assigned to each human being; those are the one hundred and eight beads of the Buddha's necklace.

The BRAHMINS symbolize the cycle of successive lives with the RITUAL of the SACRED COW, giving one hundred and eight liturgical turns around the cow, and they pray with a necklace of one hundred and eight beads the magic words OM MANI PADME HUM.

Souls that end their cycle of existences without having attained the Angelic State enter the World-Hells.

In these times, after the FINAL JUDGMENT OF 1950, almost all souls have already fulfilled their cycle of existences or are about to fulfill them.

Now the disincarnated are entering in waves into the World-Hells because the times are exhausted.

Much is said in pseudo-occultist literature about the Law of Reincarnation, but really this is only for sacred individuals.

REINCARNATION implies a Reincarnating Individuality, and if such INDIVIDUALITY does not exist, then there is no REINCARNATION.

Although the PSEUDO-OCCULTIST texts affirm that the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL has already reached Individuality, this concept is as false as that other one which assures that the human being already possesses the authentic solar vehicles, Astral, Mental, and Causal.

The Ego is a set of distinct, diverse entities that do not even know each other; that is not INDIVIDUALITY, and to say that those ENTITIES REINCARNATE turns out absurd.

Better is it to say that the Pluralized I returns, IS REINCORPORATED, returns to this valley of tears.

The ego continues in our descendants. The agony of a man is identical to the ecstasy of his conception. DEATH AND CONCEPTION are intimately united and form a unique whole. The path of life is formed by the hoofprints of the horse of death. Death and conception are one. Death and judgment are one. Judgment and conception are one. Death, judgment, and conception are one.

The PSYCHOLOGICAL DESIGN of the dying one enters with the zoosperm into the egg at the instant of conception.

The disintegration of the elements of the old body originates a vibration that passes invisibly through time and space. This vibration bears the design of the man who agonized, just as the wave of a television transmitter station carries the invisible image of the artist who acts and which, received in an appropriate apparatus, becomes visible many hundreds and thousands of kilometers from the place where he really is.

The fertilized egg is the organ of reception for the PSYCHOLOGICAL design of the man who agonized.

After death the different entities that constitute the EGO come and go through the molecular region, but not all those entities RETURN to a new human womb; some of those ENTITIES enter the SUB-WORLD, others enter inferior wombs of the RATIONAL ANIMAL KINGDOM, others enter the VEGETABLE KINGDOM, and others finally, clothed with the LUNAR BODIES, continue in our descendants.

PYTHAGORAS scolded on a certain occasion a disciple who wanted to kick a howling dog, saying to him: "Do not strike that dog, because in his plaintive howl I have recognized a friend who died some time ago." This is the wise law of METEMPSYCHOSIS, so hated by the fanatics of the DOGMA OF EVOLUTION.

In fractions one also enters the WORLD-HELLS. Many people who currently live in the physical world already possess parts of themselves in the World-Hells.

DANTE found those condemned to the SECOND DEATH among the symbol that corresponds to them in the abyss, which is the sepulcher, and since those slabs were raised, he asked his master the reason for this; and Virgil the Poet of MANTUA answered him: All will be enclosed when they have returned from JEHOSHAPHAT, the souls with the bodies they have left above.

SAINT JOSAPHAT THE BUDDHA, and the valley of JEHOSHAPHAT is this world of SAMBARA. The final judgment has now been made; the EGOS in their totality are entering the WORLD-HELLS, and thus Dante's symbols close.

The final objective of the WORLD-HELLS is to destroy the EGO and the lunar bodies so that the soul may be liberated through the door of the SECOND DEATH. The sufferings of the failed souls in the world-hells are symbolically written by DANTE in THE DIVINE COMEDY.

The most perverse BLACK MAGES live in the WORLD-HELLS trillions of years before reaching the SECOND DEATH. Ordinary common people can reach the SECOND DEATH in about 800 or 1,000 years more or less.

Every 100 years a KARMIC bill is paid in the WORLD-HELLS. In the World-Hells time is too long and terribly boring; it is time of millenary rocks.

THE SECOND DEATH is necessary so that the FAILED SOULS return to the original primitive CHAOS, from where they must recommence the journey passing through the MINERAL, VEGETABLE, and ANIMAL EVOLUTIONS, until reaching the HUMAN STATE again.

Chapter XIII

That which does not die is the Essence, the Buddhata, the Soul, unfortunately bottled up within the Ego.

Chapter Fifteen: THE LAW OF RECURRENCE

Analyzing in depth and judiciously the Theory of Reincarnation as the various PSEUDO-ESOTERIST and PSEUDO-OCCULTIST thinkers have presented it in these times, we arrive at the conclusion that all those authors are totally confused.

The doctrine of reincarnation comes from the cult of KRISHNA, which is an ancient Vedic religion: unfortunately, this sublime doctrine was much adulterated by so many REFORMERS.

In the cult of Krishna it has been wisely said that only the Gods, Demigods, Heroes, Titans, Divine Kings, Masters, and GUIDES of humanity REINCARNATE, but the various schools of PSEUDO-ESOTERIC and PSEUDO-OCCULTIST type propagated this idea in mistaken form, telling the multitudes that every human being REINCARNATES.

Together with the idea of REINCARNATION there exists in Hindustan the idea of the TRANSMIGRATION of SOULS, the RE-INCORPORATION of HUMAN SOULS into ANIMAL creatures.

It is clear that human PRIDE is terrible, and as is barely natural, in no way was the THEORY of the TRANSMIGRATION of souls accepted, considering said idea as an alteration or distortion of the wise doctrine of REINCARNATION.

JESUS THE CHRIST in the Four Gospels emphasizes the difficulty of entering the KINGDOM; the GREAT MASTER never said that all human beings would enter the KINGDOM; in this the Law of Natural Selection enters. "Many are called and few are chosen."

All the human species, with the exception of a few, enters the World-Hells, where it ends with the Second Death. This event always repeats itself in all the WORLDS of infinite space.

We already said that only through the Second Death are the Lost Souls liberated from the World-Hells.

The Law of Eternal Return always brings the FAILED SOULS that lived in the Sub-World and that passed through the Second Death, to a new COSMIC manifestation.

The LAW of the ETERNAL RETURN gives basis to the DOCTRINE of TRANSMIGRATION; millions of FAILED SOULS of past cycles of MANIFESTATION are now ELEMENTALS of the Mineral or Vegetable Kingdom and ANIMAL CREATURES that aspire to RECONQUER the HUMAN STATE that they once lost.

The wise IDEA OF THE ETERNAL RETURN of all things is invariably united with Pythagorean wisdom and with the Sacred COSMOGONY of Hindustan.

Every DOCTRINE about the LIFE of BRAHMA, MAHAMANVANTARAS and PRALAYAS, the KALPAS, the BREATH OF BRAHMA, etc., are intimately linked with the DOCTRINE OF PYTHAGORAS and the LAW OF RECURRENCE OR ETERNAL RETURN.

A profound analysis of Buddhism leads us to the conclusion that the Buddha taught the LAW OF ETERNAL RETURN OR RECURRENCE in his Doctrine on successive lives.

Simplicius, cited by OUSPENSKY, writes: "The Pythagoreans said that the same things are repeated again and again."

In connection with this, it is interesting to observe the words of EUDEMUS, disciple of Aristotle (in the third book of the Physics). He says: "Some persons accept and some other persons deny that time repeats itself. Repetition is understood in various senses. One class of repetition can occur in the natural order of things, like the repetition of summers, of winters, and other seasons, in which a new one comes after another has disappeared; to this order of things belong the movements of celestial bodies and the phenomena produced by them, such as the solstices and equinoxes, which are produced by the movement of the Sun."

"But if we are to believe the PYTHAGOREANS, there exists another class of repetition. That means that I will speak to you and sit exactly thus and will have in my hand the same stick, and everything will be the same as now, and time, as is to be supposed, will be the same. Because if the movements (of the celestial bodies) and many other things are the same, what occurred before and what will occur after are also the same. This applies also to repetition, which is always the same. Everything is the same."

To the Law of Recurrence magnificently expounded by EUDEMUS in the preceding paragraphs, we only have to add the Spiral, which according to Pythagoras is the curve of life.

Time is round, and everything repeats itself, sometimes in higher SPIRALS, sometimes in lower SPIRALS.

It turns out interesting and painful at the same time, the incessant repetition of the same DRAMAS, of the same SCENES, of the same EVENTS in each of the ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHT lives that by COSMIC LAW are always assigned to human SOULS.

Each LIFE is a repetition of the past plus its KARMIC consequences good or bad, pleasant or unpleasant.

A man dies, and the anguished moments of his agony, his last instants and realizations, his last sensations and his last sorrows, are intimately associated with the joys of love that originate a new birth.

The new life begins exactly under the same conditions as the previous one, and it is clear that it cannot begin under any other condition.

On being REBORN in this VALLEY of TEARS, the past becomes future according to the Law of Recurrence.

The INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakenly called MAN cannot change the circumstances; he is a victim of them; everything happens to him as when it rains, or as when it thunders; he has the illusion that he DOES, but he has no power to DO; everything happens through him.

Only the BEING can DO; only the BEING can originate new circumstances; only the BEING can change this whole order of things, but the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL does not have the BEING INCARNATED.

In this VALLEY of BITTERNESS there exist MEN-MACHINES of ABSOLUTE repetition, MECHANISTIC types one hundred percent, subjects who REPEAT even the most insignificant details of their preceding lives.

In this Valley of JEHOSHAPHAT, in this land of Samsara, certain subjects of varied repetition are constantly REINCORPORATED, who relive their preceding lives in higher SPIRALS or in lower SPIRALS.

There also exists in our very interesting world a certain type of people with a growing tendency toward DEGENERATION who march resolutely along the descending SPIRAL PATH; these are the DRUNKARDS, SUICIDES, HOMOSEXUALS, PROSTITUTES, DRUG ADDICTS, THIEVES, MURDERERS, etc. This class of people repeat in increasingly more descending form in each life their same offenses, until at last they enter the WORLD-HELLS.

In apparent and brilliant contrast with this type of way of descent or failure, but in an equally ABOMINABLE position, are the gentlemen of HIGH WORLD, the GREAT TRIUMPHANT ONES, who adore the GREAT HARLOT; the MILLIONAIRES and MULTIMILLIONAIRES, the perverse SCIENTISTS who invent destructive weapons; the shadowy followers of MATERIALIST DIALECTIC, who take from humanity the ETERNAL VALUES; the FANATICS of sports, the great competitors, BOXERS, vain breakers of RECORDS, COMICS, who play with the MONSTER of the THOUSAND FACES; the famous CINEMA STARS, who justify all their adulteries with innumerable marriages and divorces; the degenerate ARTISTS of the NEW WAVE, Painters, Dancers of ROCK, of TWIST, of MAMBO; the founders of harmful SECTS, the writers of pornographic books, the skeptics of every type, etc., etc.

The type of the TRIUMPHANT one is HYPNOTIZED by success, and that is precisely his greatest danger; they ignore that they are descending along the descending spiral and enter the world-hells inebriated by triumph.

The type of the triumphant one knows with exactitude what he must do each time he RETURNS to this stage of the world and always repeats his same adventures.

The INVOLUTION of all these people in the WORLD-HELLS is due to the LAW OF RECURRENCE. In the ABYSS all those ANIMAL, VEGETABLE, and MINERAL processes that we passed through in EVOLUTIONARY form long ago are repeated in INVOLUTIONARY form.

The FINAL DISINTEGRATION in the SUB-WORLD is necessary and indispensable to liberate the LOST SOULS; these, after their dreadful millenary journey through the Sub-World, RETURN to a new MANIFESTATION that must begin from the lowest scale, which is the Mineral Kingdom.

Chapter XIV

The wise IDEA OF THE ETERNAL RETURN of all things is invariably united with Pythagorean wisdom and with the Sacred COSMOGONY of Hindustan.

Chapter Sixteen: THE HUMAN MACHINE

When we try to imagine in clear and precise form the resplendent and elongated body of the Solar System with all its beautiful coverings and interlaced threads formed by the marvelous tracing of the worlds, then there comes to our mind in receptive state the vivid image of the human organism with the skeletal, lymphatic, arterial, nervous, etc., systems, which beyond all doubt are constituted and assembled in similar manner.

THE SOLAR SYSTEM OF ORS, this system in which we live and move and have our existence, seen from afar seems a MAN walking through the unalterable infinite.

The MICROCOSM man is in turn a Solar System in miniature, a marvelous machine with various networks distributing energy at different degrees of tension.

The structure of the human machine consists of seven or eight systems sustained by a formidable skeletal frame and gathered in a solid whole, thanks to the connective tissue.

Medical science has been able to verify that all these systems of the human organism are duly united and harmonized by the Sun of the organism, the vivifying heart, on which depends the existence of the MICROCOSM MAN.

Each organic system encompasses the entire body, and over each one reigns sovereign one of the glands of internal secretion. Truly these marvelous glands are true MICRO-LABORATORIES placed in specific places in the capacity of regulators and transformers.

Beyond all doubt we can affirm emphatically that these glandular MICRO-LABORATORIES have the high mission of transforming the vital energies produced by the human machine.

It has been said that the human organism obtains its food from the AIR we breathe, from the food we eat, and from the light of the SUN.

The GLANDULAR MICRO-LABORATORIES must transform the vital energies of these foods, and this is a surprising and marvelous labor.

Each gland must transform the vital energy of foods precisely to the degree of tension required by its own system and function.

The human organism possesses seven superior GLANDS and three nervous controls. The Law of Seven and the Law of Three work intensely within the HUMAN MACHINE.

The cerebrospinal nerve produces those very rare conscious functions that sometimes manifest in the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL.

The SYMPATHETIC marvelously stimulates the unconscious and instinctive functions, and the PARASYMPATHETIC or Vagus brakes the INSTINCTIVE functions and acts as a complement to the latter.

We have full reason to affirm without fear of being mistaken that these three nervous controls represent the Law of Three, the THREE primary FORCES within the HUMAN MACHINE, just as the SEVEN endocrine GLANDS and their products represent the Law of Seven with all its musical octaves.

There exists in all clarity a control to release active nervous impulses; another to release passive nervous impulses; and a third to release the mediating impulses of thought, of reason, and of consciousness.

The nerves as agents of the Law of THREE control the GLANDS which, as we already said, represent the Law of SEVEN.

The nerves control the glands, but in turn are also controlled; this is similar to the specific functions of the planets that move around the SUN; these WORLDS control and are controlled.

We already said and we repeat again that the HUMAN MACHINE has FIVE CYLINDERS. The first is the INTELLECTUAL CENTER; the second is the EMOTIONAL CENTER; the third is the CENTER OF MOVEMENT; the fourth is the CENTER OF INSTINCT; the fifth is the CENTER OF SEX.

We have explained many times that the FIVE CYLINDERS of the HUMAN MACHINE are unfortunately controlled by the Pluralized I, by that Legion of Egos that live in those PSYCHO-PHYSIOLOGICAL CENTERS.

The HUMAN MACHINE, like any other machine, moves under the impulses of the subtle forces of nature.

COSMIC RADIATIONS in the first place, and the PLURALIZED I in the second place, are the secret agents that move the HUMAN MACHINES.

COSMIC RADIATION is formed by two great groups of components which, just as they work within the Great Laboratory of Nature, so also work within the Human Machine.

The first group is formed by RAYS of great hardness and elevated power of penetration, coming from sidereal space with energies that oscillate around five billion ELECTRON VOLTS. These RAYS are those that give rise to the impacts with the particles of the HIGH ATMOSPHERE, dividing into dense beams or stars of RAYS.

The hard part of COSMIC RADIATION is formed by PROTONS, NEUTRONS, and MESONS. These latter are already duly classified as positive, negative, and NEUTRAL according to the Law of Three.

The second group or SOFT RADIATION is formed by SECONDARY RAYS that are produced within the TERRESTRIAL ATMOSPHERE. This type of RAYS is the result of the impacts of the Hard Radiation on striking the atoms of the air, giving rise to the beams or stars of RAYS, some of them formed even of 500,000 particles which, in their development, come to cover very extensive areas according to the investigations carried out by men of science.

We have been told that the energy of the corpuscle components of the SOFT RADIATION oscillates between one MILLION and ONE HUNDRED BILLION ELECTRON-VOLTS.

Any adverse PLANETARY CONJUNCTION, any unfortunate QUADRATURE of the worlds, any tension produced by the exaggerated approach of two planets, is enough for millions of human machines to launch themselves into war, justifying themselves, of course, with many reasons, mottos, flags that must be defended, motives for which they must fight, etc., etc., etc.

The most grave foolishness of the INTELLECTUAL ANIMALS is to believe that they DO, when in truth they can DO nothing; they are simple human MARIONETTES moved by forces they are unaware of.

COSMIC RADIATIONS originate within the SUBJECTIVE PSYCHE of the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL infinite changes in his PSYCHOLOGICAL IDIOSYNCRASY; certain Egos arise and others submerge; some Ego-Devils emerge to the surface while others are lost among the forty-nine submerged regions of the SUBCONSCIOUS.

Then come the astonishments, the surprises; the one who had sworn ETERNAL LOVE withdraws; the one who had sworn fidelity to the GNOSIS, betrays it; the one who did not drink alcohol now drinks it; the one who had proposed to carry out a certain business suddenly loses all interest, etc.

HUMAN MACHINES have no sense of moral responsibility; they are simple MARIONETTES that think, feel, and act according to the type of I that controls the capital centers of the machine at a given instant; if that type of I is displaced, the HUMAN MARIONETTE modifies in fact its mental and sentimental processes, with distinct and even opposite actions resulting.

Sometimes certain Ego-Devils that do not belong to the person enter the HUMAN MACHINE, having other owners, and accommodate themselves within any of the five cylinders of the MACHINE; then the honorable citizen becomes a THIEF, and one who before did not dare even to kill a little bird becomes a cruel murderer, etc.

The I that every human being carries within himself is a PLURALITY, and his true name is Legion. The ROUND of these Ego-Devils, their continuous and terrible struggle for supremacy, depends on many external and internal influences and in last SYNTHESIS on COSMIC RADIATIONS.

The Sun with its heat and the good or bad weather immediately give rise to certain Egos arising that take hold of the Machine; some of these Egos tend to be stronger than others.

The rain, contrarieties, vain passing joys originate new and bothersome Egos, but the poor HUMAN MARIONETTE has no notion of these changes because he has Consciousness asleep; he lives always in the last I.

Certain Egos dominate others because they are stronger, but their strength is the strength of the CYLINDERS of the MACHINE; all the Egos are the result of external and internal INFLUENCES; in the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL there does not exist true INDIVIDUALITY; he is a MACHINE.

Chapter XV

Medical science has been able to verify that all these systems of the human organism are duly united and harmonized by the Sun of the organism, the vivifying heart, on which depends the existence of the MICROCOSM MAN.

Chapter Seventeen: EVOLUTION AND INVOLUTION

According to the common, ordinary definition of the dictionary, the word evolution means "an orderly and progressive development," governed by certain exact but unknown laws.

For the swine of EPICURUS (the followers of MATERIALIST DIALECTIC), the idea of EVOLUTION above all excludes the idea of an INTELLIGENT PLAN and of a CREATOR LOGOS.

The FOOLISH fanatics of that FARCE written by Karl Marx, called MATERIALIST DIALECTIC, stupidly believe that Evolution is an independent and mechanical process without God or Law.

For the students of the various PSEUDO-ESOTERIC and PSEUDO-OCCULTIST Schools, the idea of EVOLUTION, above all, includes the idea of an INTELLIGENT PLAN and of a Creator Logos.

The word Evolution contains within itself a DOGMATIC meaning, and that is precisely its characteristic trait.

The scientific foundations of Evolution are: the nebular theories on the origin of the universe, with all their innumerable alterations, modifications, additions, restrictions, etc., that really change nothing in the original erroneous conception of the mechanical process of construction; and second, the capricious Theory of Darwin on the origin of the species with all its later corrections and changes.

On the matter of nebular conceptions there is much to comment, and on the origin of the Universe very ingenious THEORIES have been invented in these times, but all that are pure fantastic speculations without any verification, games of the mind, foolishness.

The EVOLUTION and TRANSFORMATION of species in the strictly DARWINIST sense is grounded on "FACTS" artificially selected; To prove the THEORY, one resorts to COMPARATIVE ANATOMY, MORPHOLOGY, EMBRYOLOGY, PALEONTOLOGY, etc., but each decade denies the "FACTS" of the previous decade and substitutes them for new "FACTS," but the THEORY remains unshakable.

In reality, the appearance of new species as a result of the Law of Evolution is no more than a simple hypothesis because it has never been able to be verified; no one has seen a new species appear.

Modern thought, on creating the Theory of Evolution, forgot the destructive processes of nature. The reason for this lies in the field of intellectual vision too limited of these times; due to this, flashy THEORIES are elaborated, very pretty, but with an insufficient number of "FACTS"; none of the processes is certainly known in INTEGRAL form, and observing only part of the process, men say that this process consists in changes of EVOLUTIONARY type.

The human mind is in these modern times now so degenerate that it has even become incapable of understanding the inverse INVOLUTIONARY process on a great scale. The mind of the erudite is so bottled up in the DOGMA of EVOLUTION that it only knows how to think in function of its own bottling, and to the phenomena of destruction, decadence, and degeneration applies the qualifications of evolution, development, and progress.

The peoples and cultures of the STONE AGE are not the beginning or the end of the world; they are only the decline and degeneration of very rich earlier civilizations, and this is demonstrated by the remains of prehistoric cultures, by the data of comparative Philology that show the surprising psychological richness of the ARCHAIC languages, and by the irrefutable documents of ancient ART and LITERATURE.

Not all the Peoples isolated from the much-vaunted modern civilization are SAVAGES; to reject civilized barbarism is no sign of SAVAGERY, but this does not mean that there do not exist isolated peoples in a frank state of SAVAGERY.

Truly SAVAGE or SEMI-SAVAGE peoples found by modern explorers are, beyond all doubt, degenerate descendants of extraordinarily cultured peoples that existed before the Stone Age.

None of the truly savage peoples encountered by the explorers has shown any sign of EVOLUTION; on the contrary, in all cases without exception, unmistakable signs of Degeneration and Involution have been observed.

All savage or semi-savage peoples have legends and traditions of a golden age or of a heroic stage, but in reality these traditions, these legends, speak of their own past, of their own ancient civilization.

The same fact explains with meridian clarity the indisputable superiority of the paleolithic drawings — that is, of the most ancient ones found in the profound caverns of the earth — in relation to the neolithic drawings — that is, the more recent ones.

The GNOSTIC BROTHER C. Iturralde V. sent me an interesting letter from his country, Bolivia, in which he says: "Something interesting and curious is a legend here that is not only the fantasy creation of some minds, but that seems to have an objective reality, which is that there existed human beings of very small proportions; in some cases of more or less 15 centimeters, and in other cases up to 25 centimeters, who lived in a kind of villages or settlements, with houses constructed by them, utensils such as pots, etc."

"When I was a child I heard that near the city in which I lived there had existed such beings (exactly in Lipes, a high plateau surrounded by mountains — the Andes — and a great solar to the east); now I have known that near here (POTOSI), about 120 kilometers away, there is a settlement of about thirty centimeters in height — the dwellings — within which dishware corresponding to very small beings is found. This settlement is said to be surrounded by some pointed hills, quite rare, that rise to a maximum of two or three meters but that to the hamlet seem mountains; around it only the larger hills of hundreds of meters begin to rise. According to the indigenous people of the place, they continue saying, they do not allow anyone to approach this curiosity."

This is a very INVOLVED Lemurian Race; this is the LILIPUTIAN and JINA race of the mythical Siberians, true NIBELUNGS of their galleries, ant-men, in short, of which indelible traces have remained even in the rock paintings themselves, which scientists of our days have begun to study today.

The so-called primitive European races of the Stone Age, such as that of CRO-MAGNON that lived in the caverns of the earth, were very beautiful, but the descending, involutory CYCLIC impulse weighed terribly on those races of ATLANTEAN origin; finally the PALEOLITHIC man left his place to his successor, disappearing almost completely from the scene.

Within every EVOLUTIONARY process there exists an INVOLUTIONARY process. The Law of Evolution and its twin sister, the Law of Involution, work in coordinated and harmonious form in all that is created.

The Laws of Evolution and Involution constitute the mechanical axis of Nature.

We Gnostics do not deny the Law of Evolution; this Law exists; the bad, the mistaken thing, is to attribute to this Law mistaken or false FACTORS and PRINCIPLES.

The Intimate Self-Realization of Man is not the result of any Mechanics; Evolution is a Mechanical Law as is Involution.

The Intimate Self-Realization of Man is the result of tremendous Self-Conscious Super-Efforts made by oneself and within oneself, here and now.

To deny the law of EVOLUTION would be absurd, but to attribute to said Law factors it does not have, is stupid.

Evolution exists in every creative process, in the seed that germinates and grows, in the child that is born, in the plant that flowers.

Involution exists in every destructive process, in the tree that withers and finally becomes a heap of logs, in the plant that grows old, in the elder who finally exhales the last sigh.

All that exists in creation evolves up to a certain point perfectly defined by nature, and then involves until returning to the original starting point.

No living being can Self-Realize, much less Liberate himself with the Mechanical Law of Evolution.

Chapter XVI

The Intimate Self-Realization of Man is the result of tremendous Self-Conscious Super-Efforts made by oneself and within oneself, here and now.

Chapter Eighteen: THE REVOLUTION OF CONSCIOUSNESS

The BHAGAVAD GITA, the Sacred book of Lord Krishna, textually says the following: "Among thousands of men, perhaps one tries to reach perfection; among those who try, possibly one achieves perfection, and among the perfect, perhaps one knows me perfectly."

JESUS the great KABIR said: "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for I tell you that many will seek to enter, and will not be able to, after the father of the family has risen and shut the door, and being outside you will begin to knock at the door, saying: Lord, Lord, open to us; he answering will say: I do not know whence you are. Then you will begin to say: Before you we have eaten and drunk, and in our plazas you have taught. But he will say to you: Depart from me, all you workers of evil. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, and you yourselves cast out."

JESUS THE GREAT KABIR in the four gospels — which are truly four texts of Alchemy and Kabbalah, written in code — emphasizes the tremendous difficulty that exists to enter the KINGDOM.

The DHAMMAPADA, the sacred book of Eastern Buddhism, says: "Among men few are those who reach the other shore; the rest walk on this shore, running from one side to another."

Every man of science can verify by himself the scientific process of natural selection.

Narrow is the gate and strait is the path that leads to the light, and very few are those who find it.

THE FLORENTINE DANTE, disciple of Virgil the poet of Mantua, begins his Divine Comedy, saying: "Midway upon the journey of our life I found myself in a dark forest, for having strayed from the Straight Path. Ah! How painful it would be for me to say how wild, rough, and dense was this forest, whose memory renews my fear, a fear so sad that death is not so much. But before speaking of the good I found there, I shall reveal the other things I have seen. I cannot say exactly how I entered there; so drowsy was I when I abandoned the true path."

DANTE ALIGHIERI, that powerful Illuminate who wrote the Divine Comedy, also committed the error of having strayed from the Straight Path and fell into that dark forest of worldliness.

Difficult is it to find the straight path, but more difficult is to be firm and never abandon the path.

Whoever wants to ascend must first descend; that is the Law. Initiation is DEATH and BIRTH at the same time.

When Dante wished to climb the summit of the august mountain of initiation, his Guru made him descend to the World-Hells; that is the Law.

In the Sub-World the Florentine poet saw and heard the suffering souls of the ancient condemned, and also the sincere mistaken ones who are content among the luciferian flames of their own passions, awaiting the day and hour to occupy their place among the Blessed.

Without those three symbolic women called Lucia (Divine Grace), Beatrice (the Spiritual Soul), and Clemency (Mercy), Dante would not have been able to discover the terrible mysteries of the abyss.

And Dante found in the Sub-World many sages and many men full of prestige and knowledge, and many CENTAURS, half men, half beasts.

In the World-Hells live CENTAURS as famous as the Centaur CHIRON, the famous educator of Achilles, and the irascible PHOLOS and the cruel ATTILA, the scourge of God, and many others who today are venerated in various countries as national heroes.

The path that leads to the Intimate Self-Realization of the Being begins within the very Atomic Infernos of this poor INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL mistakenly called MAN, continues in the Molecular Purgatory of the Initiate, and concludes in the Electronic Regions of the Empyrean.

Every NEOPHYTE must learn to distinguish between what is a fall and what is a descent. Dante's conscious descent into the World-Hells is not a fall.

Only on the path is it possible to develop, on the basis of tremendous intimate Super-Efforts in ourselves and within ourselves, all the terrible hidden possibilities of man. The development of such possibilities has never been a Law.

Beyond all doubt we can and must affirm emphatically that the Law for the unhappy Intellectual Beast is to exist miserably before being swallowed by the Mineral Kingdom, within the vicious circle of the MECHANICAL LAWS of Nature.

And although the weak and cowardly may be frightened, it is urgent to say that the path that leads the valiant to Intimate Self-Realization is dreadfully REVOLUTIONARY and terribly dangerous.

We need to rise up in arms against NATURE, against the COSMOS, against WORLDLINESS, against OURSELVES, against everything, against everyone, no matter what it costs.

This is the path of the Revolution of Consciousness; this is the DIFFICULT PATH, the way so hated by the perverse of the Lunar Race.

The PATH is PRECISELY the opposite of the common, ordinary life of every day; it is based on other principles and is submitted to other Laws; in this consists its power and its meaning.

Ordinary life, the routine life of every day, even in its most amiable and delightful aspects, leads human beings toward the World-Hells and the Second Death, and cannot lead them anywhere else.

The normal, the natural, is that the race of ADAM serves as food for the entrails of the planetary organism in which we live; the rare, the strange, the difficult, is that someone is saved, that someone enters the Kingdom.

Now you will understand, dear reader, the dreadful tragedy in which we live; fortunately the ALL-MERCIFUL ONE, the Infinitude that sustains all, the MOST SACRED SOLAR ABSOLUTE, periodically sends to this valley of tears the Avatars, the Saviors. These Sacred Individuals, these Messengers, these Saviors, are LIVING INCARNATIONS of the All-Merciful One, but the Lunar Race, this perverse race of Adam, mortally hates such HELPERS.

In the Bhagavad Gita the Blessed Lord said: "Although I have no birth, I am immutable and Lord of creatures; dominating MY PRAKRITI, I am INCARNATED, making use of MY own Maya."

"Oh Bharata! Each time religion declines and irreligion prevails, I am incarnated anew. To protect the good, destroy the evil, and establish Religion, I am incarnated in different epochs."

"He who thus truly knows MY divine incarnation and MY work, when he leaves this body, is no longer reborn; he comes to ME, oh Arjuna."

Avatars were the HOLY KRISHNA, THE HOLY BUDDHA, THE HOLY LAMA, THE HOLY MUHAMMAD, THE ESSENTIAL LOVER ASHIATA SHIEMASH, MOSES, QUETZALCOATL, and many others.

The Doctrine of all the Avatars has its roots in the Three basic Factors of the Revolution of Consciousness: To Be Born, To Die, and to Sacrifice oneself for humanity.

JESUS the great KABIR magisterially synthesized the Doctrine of the Revolution of Consciousness, saying: "It is necessary that every Son of Man suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the princes, by the Priests and the scribes, and that he be delivered to death and rise on the third day... But we add, truly, that some shall not taste of death until they see for themselves the Kingdom of God."

Chapter XVII

Without those three symbolic women called Lucia (Divine Grace), Beatrice (the Spiritual Soul), and Clemency (Mercy), Dante would not have been able to discover the terrible mysteries of the abyss.

Chapter Nineteen: THE MOON

It turns out one hundred percent false to say that the MOON is the offspring of the earth. The Greek Legend about SELENE is very suggestive and goes beyond purely geological explanations.

SELENE, the Lunar Race, this perverse race of Adam, was born of THELA, the Earth, and of HYPERION, the Sun, as giver of life, who was loved by PAN, the world of Nature.

The Greek Legend says that the beautiful and enchanting SELENE was in love with ENDYMION, this Lunar Race put to sleep by ZEUS in an interminable sleep.

The Greek Legend about SELENE refers to the Lunar Race and bears no relation to that capricious theory of the 19th century that affirms that the MOON is a fragment torn from the EARTH still unformed during a cosmic cataclysm.

Based on very ancient ARCHAIC documents and on terrible ESOTERIC investigations carried out in the Akashic records of nature, that great martyr of the past century called H.P. Blavatsky affirms emphatically that the Moon is older than the earth, is the MOTHER of the earth, is a dead world.

During the past Mahamanvantara the MOON was a densely populated world, full of SUN and life; now it is a corpse.

The LUNAR ANIMA-MUNDI was absorbed into the ABSOLUTE ABSTRACT SPACE during the Great Pralaya (COSMIC NIGHT).

The Lunar Anima-Mundi took new form on Planet Earth when the dawn of the new Mahamanvantara (COSMIC DAY) was initiated.

Considering LUNAR and TERRESTRIAL events from this cosmic angle, H.P.B. is not mistaken in affirming that the MOON is the MOTHER of the EARTH, the predecessor of our globe, from which come our FATHERS OR PITRIS.

Now then, in relation to its satellite, the earth has a responsibility that seems unique in the Solar System. Our afflicted world seems to bear ten times more weight than the Sun.

The total mass of all the planets of the Solar System is only one eight-hundredth of the mass of the Sun, but the mass of the MOON is nothing less than one eightieth of that of earth.

Not only by the lunar mass in itself is our world burdened, but also by the distance at which it must sustain it. Only the ANCIENT OF HEAVENS, old SATURN with his resplendent rings, sustains a large MOON at similar distance, and this, comparatively, is a feather.

If we compared the EARTH with a clock, we would say that the MOON is the pendulum, and if we compared it with a ship, we would say that the MOON is the ballast.

Wherever the motive energy is applied to any mechanism, some kind of weight is indispensable to smooth and accentuate the animating force and to prevent the whole from being hurled into space.

The mechanics know very well that the organism of this poor INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL is constructed with a definite number of elements, and that the dense weight of the iodine below is necessary to balance the activating principle of the hydrogen above.

The MOON acts as mechanical control for the earth, regulating and administering the solar energy.

Without the MOON as a powerful balancer of weights, all the liquids of the earth would inevitably tend to be hurled off the terrestrial surface by the magnetic attraction of the Sun as the earth rotates.

The effect of the MOON on the tides is something no one can deny; facts are facts, and before facts we must yield.

The MOON controls all the mechanics of nature; the MOON acts on the incorporeal and inorganic liquids and also on the liquids incorporated into the organic matter; the MOON controls the growth of plants; exerts influence on the sexual fluids; regulates the menstrual flow of woman; governs the conception of all creatures, etc.

The MOON is really like the weight of a pendulum clock; the organic life of the earth is the mechanism of the clock, which is set in motion due to the swing of the weight.

All that happens in this valley of tears is due to the LUNAR influence; all the multiple processes of organic life are lunar.

Lunar are the varied processes of thinking, feeling, and acting of all people; Lunar are all the vices and evils of the multitudes; lunar are all the wars, hatreds, adulteries, fornications, envies, ambitions, avarices, degenerations, and abominations of that GREAT HARLOT whose number is 666.

The MOON as a shadowy nocturnal vampire sucks the sensible film of organic life that covers the planet on which we live.

That poor BIPED animal mistakenly called MAN, that poor INTELLECTUAL beast fatally carries the MOON within himself; he carries it in the Ego and in the Lunar Protoplasmic Bodies.

All the MECHANICS of the earth is governed by the MOON, and the RATIONAL ANIMAL unfortunately is no more than a machine.

Only through the REVOLUTION OF CONSCIOUSNESS can we liberate ourselves ABSOLUTELY from the LUNAR mechanics.

The MOON is the GREAT APOCALYPTIC HARLOT that every Intellectual Beast carries within.

This perverse race of Adam is Lunar one hundred percent. This Lunar Race mortally hates the Solar Race, the SONS of the SUN, the PROPHETS, the MASTERS of WISDOM.

The Lunar multitudes crucified the CHRIST, poisoned the BUDDHA, imprisoned and slandered CAGLIOSTRO, gave poison to the HOLY MILAREPA, burned JOAN OF ARC, betrayed the OMNI-COSMIC and MOST HOLY AVATAR ASHIATA SHIEMASH, destroying his work, etc.

The GREAT WAR between the Solar and Lunar Races in submerged Atlantis was marvelously sung by the Orientals in the Mahabharata. Traditions say that that war lasted many thousands of years.

This is the war or series of almost contiguous wars that lasted centuries since 800,000 years ago — the date on which, according to the Secret Doctrine, the first of the three Atlantean catastrophes occurred — and 200,000 years ago the second, until the last of the Island of Poseidonis, opposite Cadiz, which occurred about 11,000 years ago and of which, as of its Flood, all the peoples have a confused memory.

The Garden of the Hesperides, the most powerful Initiatic center of the Good Law in all of Atlantis, was dreadfully hated by the Lunar Race.

THE EVIL ATLANTEAN MAGIC of the BLACK ISLANDS was dreadful in great manner. The MOON is the black and smoking mirror. Black Magic is Lunar one hundred percent.

The adepts of the LEFT HAND, the BLACK MAGES, normally live in the SUB-LUNAR regions of the Submerged Mineral Kingdom in the WORLD-HELLS.

The SCHOOLS, SECTS, and ORDERS of LUNAR type mortally hate White Tantrism.

The very ancient KABBALISTIC traditions say that ADAM had two wives: LILITH AND NAAMAH. Both WIVES represent LUNAR INFRA-SEXUALITY.

LILITH is the mother of ABORTIONS, PEDERASTY, HOMOSEXUALITY, MASTURBATION, HATRED OF SEX, and every class of vices against nature.

NAAMAH symbolizes ADULTERY, SEXUAL ABUSE, PASSIONAL FORNICATION, LUST.

INFRA-SEXUALITY is the foundation of perverse Lunar Magic. INFRA-SEXUALITY reigns sovereign in the SUB-LUNAR REGIONS of the Submerged Mineral Kingdom.

In the SUB-LUNAR regions Dante found the lustful Semiramis, that empress who permitted in her Laws everything that excited pleasure, and of whom one reads that she succeeded NINUS and was his wife and reigned in the land of an ancient sultan.

In the SUB-LUNAR regions Dante found that woman who killed herself out of passion and broke the FAITH promised to the ashes of Sychaeus, and the beautiful Helen, and the lascivious Cleopatra.

By the scarce light of the new moon Dante found in the WORLD-HELLS the famous BRUNETTO LATINI and many degenerate homosexuals, followers of LILITH.

Chapter XVIII

That poor BIPED animal mistakenly called MAN, that poor INTELLECTUAL beast fatally carries the MOON within himself; he carries it in the Ego and in the Lunar Protoplasmic Bodies.

Chapter Twenty: MOST BELOVED GNOSTIC BROTHERS:

On this CHRISTMAS NIGHT of 1967, I want you to know that all the caves known and to be known form a vast and uninterrupted network that encompasses the entire planet, constituting the ORCUS of the classics, the LIMBO of the Christians, the other world, in short, where we live after death.

THE FLORENTINE DANTE, the faithful disciple of VIRGIL, sees LIMBO in the first circle of the WORLD-HELLS or INFERIOR WORLDS. Certainly, we can affirm emphatically that Limbo is the region of the dead, the Molecular World.

In Limbo the complaints and blasphemies of the condemned are never heard; in Limbo only sighs are heard that come from the sorrow without torment of an immense multitude of men, women, and children who could not enter the Kingdom.

It is urgent that you know, most beloved GNOSTIC brothers, that the Souls of Limbo did not sin, and if they sinned they repented and even acquired in life many merits and virtues, beauty and innocence, but that was not sufficient to achieve entry to the Kingdom; the principal thing was missing; they were lacking the work with the spermatic waters of existence; they did not know the ARCANUM A.Z.F., the SAHAJA MAITHUNA, SEXUAL MAGIC, and if someone spoke to them of that, they rejected it, believing that they could enter the Kingdom without the water of Baptism.

It is fitting to clarify once and for all, my dear brothers, that BAPTISM symbolizes in clear and specific form the sexual work with the ENS SEMINIS within which is found in potential state all the ENS VIRTUTIS of Fire.

The Baptismal Font containing the SPERMATIC WATERS of the first instant is SEX, the Philosopher's Stone of the old medieval ALCHEMISTS upon which we must edify the INTERIOR TEMPLE.

Peter, the Great Master of Sex, said: "Behold, I lay in Zion the principal CORNERSTONE, chosen, precious; and he who believes on it shall not be ashamed."

"To you, then, who believe, he is precious; but to those who do not believe, THE STONE which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; STONE of stumbling and ROCK of offense."

Whoever wants to ascend, must first descend; that is the Law. Remember that SEX is STONE of stumbling and ROCK of offense.

It is urgent to descend to the NINTH SPHERE (Sex), to work with WATER and FIRE, origin of Worlds, Beasts, Men, and Gods; every authentic White Initiation begins there.

The descent to the NINTH SPHERE was from ancient times the maximum test for the supreme dignity of the HIEROPHANT; JESUS, HERMES, BUDDHA, MUHAMMAD, MOSES, THE HOLY LAMA, etc., had to pass through that terrible test.

It is urgent to fabricate the SOLAR BODIES in the BURNING FORGE OF VULCAN, because at the banquet of the Lord it is forbidden to attend with Lunar bodies, with garments of beggars.

To the BURNING FORGE OF VULCAN, to the NINTH SPHERE, descend: MARS, to retemper the sword and conquer the heart of VENUS; HERMES, to clean the STABLES of AUGEAS with the sacred fire; and PERSEUS, to cut off the head of the MEDUSA.

In Limbo Dante found many innocent children, Patriarchs, and Illustrious Men who never descended to the NINTH SPHERE; for such fault they are condemned, their punishment consisting in living with desire without hope.

In LIMBO live persons of much value, whose only crime was not having fabricated their SOLAR BODIES.

In LIMBO Dante found poets as famous as HOMER and the satirical HORACE and OVID, the third and last LUCAN.

And floating in limbo, the FLORENTINE DANTE arrived at the foot of a noble castle surrounded seven times by high walls and defended around by a beautiful stream, and he passed through seven gates until arriving at a meadow of fresh greenery where he found austere personages of great authority, but unfortunately dressed with lunar bodies.

In Limbo Dante found Electra with many of her companions, among whom he recognized Hector and Aeneas. In limbo Dante found Camilla and Penthesilea and the good King Latinus, who was seated beside his daughter Lavinia.

In Limbo Dante saw Brutus, who expelled Tarquin from Rome, and Lucretia, and he also saw Julia, Marcia, and Cornelia, and Saladin, who was alone and apart from the others.

And Dante found in Limbo Socrates and Democritus, who claims that the world had as its origin chance, and Diogenes and Anaxagoras and Thales and Empedocles, Heraclitus and Zeno; all of them very wise but dressed with garments of beggars, with Lunar Bodies.

And Dante found in Limbo Dioscorides the observer of quality, and the moralist Seneca, and the Geometer Euclid, and Ptolemy, and many other wise men of the Lunar Race.

In Limbo live many Just Men, who worked for humanity and who dissolved the I but who committed the error of not fabricating their Solar Bodies.

One is astonished to see Mahatma Gandhi dressed with Lunar Bodies and living in Limbo.

On a certain occasion, after having verified that the SACRED FIRE had never ascended through the Mahatma's SPINAL COLUMN, I had no objection to saying to him: "YOU ARE WITHOUT REALIZATION." The response was: "I HAD NO TIME FOR THAT." "That is no just excuse," were my final words.

Certainly Mahatma Gandhi could have fabricated his Solar Bodies in the Burning Forge of Vulcan (SEX), because he had a magnificent wife, but he committed the error of abstaining; he believed that by renouncing Sex he could SELF-REALIZE; he was a Sincerely Mistaken one.

In a Temple of Limbo I also found Yogananda dressed with Lunar Bodies; honorably he believed himself SELF-REALIZED, and when I made him see his error, when I said to him: You are not Self-Realized, he was filled with great astonishment and wanted to start a discussion with me; the intervention of the Superior Master of the temple was necessary for him to understand his situation.

Never will I regret having warned the Great Yogi, the noble YOGANANDA, who will have to Reincarnate to marry and work in the Ninth Sphere, if he wants to fabricate his Solar Bodies in order to enter the Kingdom.

In Limbo live millions of holy hermits, sublime Yogis, and noble Mystics who felt disgust for SEX and who innocently believed that one could enter the Kingdom with Lunar Bodies.

Limbo is the region of the Innocents, of those Mystics, Saints, Sages, penitents, who did not know the GREAT ARCANUM, the MAITHUNA, or who rejected it because they very honorably believed that only on the basis of Sexual Abstention, Pranayamas, Penances, Yogic Exercises, etc., they could Self-Realize; for some reason Peter said that SEX is STONE of stumbling and ROCK of offense.

In Limbo there exist thousands of Pseudo-Esoteric and PSEUDO-OCCULTIST Schools that impart to their affiliates sublime lessons that harm no one and that benefit all, but that unfortunately never serve for INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION, because they do not teach the Gospel of Peter, the MAITHUNA.

Only MERCURY the Messenger of the Gods, the Archmage, with the CADUCEUS OF MERCURY, Symbol of the spinal column in which the two serpents called IDA AND PINGALA are intertwined, will be able through the MAITHUNA to evoke again to life the unhappy SOULS cast down into Limbo.

From LIMBO came forth the Soul of the first Father and that of Abel his son, and that of Noah, and that of the Legislator

Moses, and that of the Patriarch Abraham, and that of King David, and that of Israel with his Father and with his sons and that of Rachel. All these reincarnated to work in the Ninth Sphere and FABRICATE their SOLAR BODIES and achieve the SECOND BIRTH; now they are angels of indescribable splendor.

One is filled with astonishment when one converses with the Angel Israel; in his Solar Aura, all the sublime verses of the old testament resound harmoniously.

Chapter XIX

Chapter 21: MERCURY

MERCURY, the Messenger of the Gods, is at a distance of 42 times the diameter of its progenitor, the Sun.

If we intelligently traced a Table of minor and major Conjunctions according to which the Planetary influence could be expected with absolute certainty to increase or decrease, we would see with astonishment that Mercury and Venus repeat their maximum effect every 8 years.

The concentric orbits of the Planets are, beyond all doubt, intimately related to Bode's Law. Taking the geometric development 0, 3, 6, 12, 24, 48, 96, 192 and adding 4 to each number, we obtain a series that represents more or less the distances between the planetary orbits and the Sun.

The planets vary in size among themselves, growing marvelously from the smallest, Mercury, which is nearest to the King Star, which is nearest to the center, to the largest, JUPITER THUNDERER, midway between center and circumference; and, then diminishing again to the most exterior known Planet, the terrible Pluto, which is somewhat Larger than Mercury.

The more remote the Planets, the slower their apparent velocities, which decrease from the 50 kilometers per second of Mercury, to the 5 of the mystical and wise Neptune.

In all clarity it is clear that this is a characteristic of the Decrease of the impulses sent from the Sun, when they enter ever more profoundly into the distance.

The swift movement of Planet Mercury influences decisively on the Thyroid gland.

Mercury's orbit is so eccentric and so ephemeral its period that any cycle it could induce would in fact turn out too erratic for a serious study.

MERCURY as an Astrological Planet is much more mysterious than Venus itself, and identical to the Mazdean MITHRA; it is the BUDDHA, the Genius or God established between the Sun and the Moon, the perpetual companion of the SUN of WISDOM. In Greek Mythology, it bore wings to symbolize that it assisted the SUN CHRIST in its sidereal course, and was called in other times THE MESSENGER AND THE WOLF OF THE SUN; SOLARIS LUMINIS PARTICEPS. It was the chief and Evocator of the Souls, the Kabir and the Hierophant.

VIRGIL, the poet of Mantua, the Master of the FLORENTINE DANTE, describes Mercury taking his caduceus or Hammer of two serpents, to evoke again to life the unfortunate souls cast down into the Orcus of the classics, the Christian Limbo: TUM VIRGAM CAPIT, HAC ANIMAS ILLE EVOCAT ORCO to make them enter the Celestial Militia.

Mercury is the GOLDEN PLANET, whom the Hierophants of the ancient Mysteries forbade naming, and it is symbolized in Greek Mythology by the famous Greyhounds or Dogs guarding the celestial herd that drinks at the ineffable fountains of Occult Wisdom; motive also by which he is known as Hermes-Anubis and as the good inspirer or AGATHODAEMON.

As bird of ARGOS, MERCURY watches over the earth, which mistakenly takes him for the SUN itself, both being respectively the SARAMA and SARAMEYA of the HINDUSTANIS.

Traditions tell that emperor JULIAN prayed every night to the OCCULT SUN, through the intercession of Mercury, for as VOSSIUS very wisely says: "All the Theologians assure that Mercury and the Sun are one... that is why he was considered the most eloquent and wise of the Gods, which is not strange, since Mercury is so close to WISDOM and to the WORD (or LOGOS) that he was confused with both."

In submerged Atlantis, within the Divine CRYPT of the Mysterious HERES, the Planet Mercury shone gloriously above the SACRED ALTAR, under the cupolas and roofs of the Temple of Hercules.

Mercury the Astrological HERMES, is the God of Wisdom known in Egypt, Syria, and Phoenicia, as THOTH, TAT, AD, ADAM-KADMON, and ENOCH.

Within that mysterious mansion of the Temple of Hercules, wrapped in gray clouds, only the neophyte was permitted to see the Planet Mercury, floating like the Supreme Spirit upon the genesiac waters of the first instant.

The customary "Initiatic Lake" could never be lacking in this CRYPT of Mercury, where as all representation of mystery, the waters appeared sinisterly black as pitch.

That fatal lake appeared before the sight of the Atlantean Neophytes as framed between four typical hills, just as one often sees in certain noble paintings; this sexual symbol reminds us of that tale from A Thousand and One Nights titled: THE PRINCE OF THE FOUR BLACK ISLANDS.

The Prince of that tale really existed in Atlantis, in the Mysterious Ollis, and was son of an Initiate-King of the Garden of the Hesperides, the Initiatic Center of the Good Law.

That prince could not be crowned KING because when he was submitted to the Initiatic tests, he did not manage to resist successfully the cruel sexual temptations of KATEBET, she of sad destinies.

ADAM and EVE left the paradise for having eaten of the forbidden fruit, but the golden apples or those of Freya, and the liquor of SOMA or Biblical Manna, constitute the fundamental food for the ASTRAL.

Let us remember that the SEXUAL HIEROGRAM of IO corresponds to the host of the ELOHIM, the FATHERS or PITRIS of humanity.

THE ENS SEMINIS is the Mercury of the Secret Philosophy, within which is found all the ENS VIRTUTIS of the sacred fire.

The NORDIC SVASTIKA contains within itself the secret KEY of SEXUAL TRANSMUTATION; therefore said RUNE is the ELECTRIC PINWHEEL of the physicists.

The Svastika is an ALCHEMICAL, cosmogonic, and anthropogonic sign, under seven distinct interpretive keys; it is the symbol of TRANSCENDENT ELECTRICITY, the ALPHA and OMEGA of UNIVERSAL SEXUAL FORCE, from SPIRIT to MATTER, and therefore whoever comes to understand all its mystical meaning is freed from the great Maya or Illusion.

A.Z.F. are the three initials of the GREAT ARCANUM; whoever knows it will be able to transmute the BLACK WATERS of the MERCURY of the SECRET PHILOSOPHY to liberate energy within the Human Lunar Quaternary.

The Kingdom of the Heavens can only be conquered through VIOLENCE and REBELLION.

In ancient times there existed five very famous TEMPLES of MYSTERIES that remind us of the TEMPLE of HERCULES in Atlantis. The first of those temples bore certainly the name of HERCULES; the second was that of GALLIC MARS; the third was that of MINERVA MELIENSE; the fourth, that of DIANA of EPHEBUS; and the fifth, that of ISIS of the NILE.

Every TEMPLE of MYSTERIES has THREE SUCCESSIVE ALTARS; the first is that of the poverty of the apprentice; the second is the supreme ALCHEMIST art of the companion; the third is the Death over which every Resurrected Master has triumphed.

The SAHAJA MAITHUNA (SEXUAL MAGIC) is the science of Peter, and this Holy Apostle of the Mysteries of JESUS has the keys to the Kingdom.

The original name of Peter is PATAR, and the three consonants, P, T, R, are engraved on the basis of chisel and hammer upon the living Stone that serves as door to the Kingdom.

The P reminds us of the PITRIS or FATHERS of HUMANITY; the T comes to remind us of MAN and WOMAN united sexually; the R, Mystical, reminds us of the EGYPTIAN RA, the sacred fire.

The Sexual Stone, the Philosopher's Stone of the medieval alchemists, is the Magic Betyl of all countries, the Aesculapian oyster, the stone with which MAHACHOHAN healed PHILOCTETES; let us remember the howling, oscillating, runic, and speaking stones of the Teraphim, the stones of lightning, the Orphic galactites, etc.

Only the Mercury of the Secret Philosophy, only the Messenger of the Gods, can take the innocent out of LIMBO, through the SAHAJA MAITHUNA (SEXUAL MAGIC).

Chapter XX

The P reminds us of the PITRIS or FATHERS of HUMANITY; the T comes to remind us of MAN and WOMAN united sexually; the R, Mystical, reminds us of the EGYPTIAN RA, the sacred fire.

Chapter 22: THE SEXUAL GLANDS

The GONADS of woman are the OVARIES, the BREASTS, and the WOMB; and those of man, the TESTICLES, the PENIS, and the PROSTATE GLAND.

These are the generative or reproductive, or sexual endocrine GLANDS, in which is found the SALVATION or the CONDEMNATION of man.

A profound study of the SEXUAL GLANDS demonstrates that these GONADS are governed by URANUS, the Planet of Aquarius, and that they are double in their functionalism, for they not only have external secretion but internal as well.

The scientists know very well that the OVARIES, in addition to producing the egg, generate a marvelous endocrine SUBSTANCE, a very rich ELIXIR that vitalizes the woman and makes her feminine.

The TESTICLES have the MERCURY of the secret philosophy, the ENS SEMINIS as external secretion, bearer of the SPERMATOZOON which accumulates in the PROSTATE GLAND.

The internal secretion of the cortex of the TESTICLES is the marvelous force that gives energy to the man and that makes him truly masculine in the fullest sense of the word.

That GREAT INITIATE of the past century, called H.P.B., says in her formidable work titled The Secret Doctrine that in the beginning life reproduced and perpetuated itself through buds or shoots, or through fissures or cracks.

The COLLECTIVE HOST of the ELOHIM, symbolized with the SEXUAL HIEROGRAM of IO, REINCARNATED in the first three races to populate the world, without need of sexual intercourse, because in those ancient times humanity was first ANDROGYNOUS and afterward HERMAPHRODITIC.

The separation into opposite sexes and the reproduction by sexual cooperation transformed the human biped into INTELLECTUAL BEAST.

That TRANSCENDENT ELECTRICITY, that universal Creative Force, is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end of all things; through it we can become Angels or Devils, Gods or Beasts.

In the name of TRUTH we say: that we would never commit the error of recommending SEXUAL ABSTENTION.

The lunar subjects who want to SELF-REALIZE intimately on the basis of SEXUAL ABSTENTION, the only thing they obtain is to charge themselves with terribly malign VENEZIOOSKIRIAN Vibrations.

This fatal class of vibrations produces external fanaticism in high degree and expert cynicism; subjects of this type abound among the great inquisitors like Tomas de Torquemada and many others.

Through many years of observation and experience we have been able to verify that the shadowy VENEZIOOSKIRIAN VIBRATIONS have the power to awaken the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

Obligatory SEXUAL ABSTENTION is only for the members of the Occult Fraternity, for Geniuses like Jesus, Hermes, Buddha, Zoroaster, and in general for all the TWICE-BORN, the SONS of the SUN, the selected, the Solar Race.

Profound SELF-REALIZATION is only possible in normal men and women; let normal man be understood as he who has Normal Masculine Gonads; let normal woman be understood as she who has Normal Feminine Gonads.

No degenerate seed can germinate. For homosexuals, whether of masculine or feminine type, INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION turns out impossible.

The excessive number of pregnancies signals FORNICATION, and its KARMIC result is that illness known as OSTEOMALACIA, or deformation of the soft bones, which is so common in the densely populated districts of Europe and Asia.

Frequent pregnancies end the reserves of calcium, and then, as is natural, the bones suffer.

A common saying says that every pregnancy costs a tooth; many women suffer from their teeth during pregnancy.

Cooperation among the ENDOCRINE glands is marvelous; some of the ENDOCRINE glands act as accelerators of the SEXUAL GLANDS, and others diminish said action.

It is completely verified that the THYMUS gland reduces sexual appetite. Scientists have discovered that the THYROID and the PITUITARY exert certain very intimate functions related to sexual expression.

The PROSTATE GLAND, which is where that SEMINAL FLUID is stored — that Mercury of the Secret Philosophy — is situated at the base of the bladder, surrounding the marvelous neck of the latter.

The ancient physician-mages always gave the PROSTATE GLAND an exceptional importance, for since Archaic times the HIEROPHANTS or KABIRS of the Sacred Initiatic Colleges considered the PROSTATE as one of the most important organs for the exercise of High Magic.

The PROSTATE GLAND exerts a decisive influence upon the VITAL FLUIDS that circulate through the nervous system.

Through observation and experience, many Physicians have verified that when the PROSTATE GLAND is inflamed, the subject becomes irritable, neurasthenic, with marked tendencies toward suicide. Many subjects of this type could be restored and returned to their normal activity if the PROSTATE were treated.

The HYPERTROPHY of the PROSTATE, very common among the elderly, is due to the HYPERSECRETION of the masculine hormone. Fundamentally, this HYPERSECRETION is due to the overexcitation of the TESTICLES by the GONADOTROPIN hormone of the PITUITARY.

Sexual abuse originates Prostatic illnesses; that is now totally verified.

According to the lunar cycle that governs conception, every 28 days, the OVARIES emit an egg that is collected in the Fallopian Tubes and wisely conducted to the WOMB, where it must meet the ZOOSPERM or MASCULINE GERM if a New Life is to begin.

Astonishing is the effort made by the masculine and feminine germs to meet.

In the maternal breasts is formed the rich food for the newborn child; no food could replace mother's milk.

The epochs of feminine sexual activity are defined by the periods of menstruation. During these cycles of passionate impulses, the egg acquires maturity and prepares itself to be expelled for its FERTILIZATION. At the same time, certain surprising, marvelous, functional changes are taking place in the internal and external sexual organs, including the MICRO-LABORATORIES called MAMMARY GLANDS.

The WOMB is the sacred Maternal Cloister, the feminine SEXUAL organ in which the fetus develops, the vestibule of the world.

Uterine inflammation produces irritability, sadness, and neurasthenia.

Biology has discovered that there exists a very intimate alliance between the POSTERIOR PITUITARY and the WOMB. If some drops of POST-PITUITARY EXTRACT are injected into the circulation, they will inevitably cause an intense contraction of the WOMB.

The men of science still cannot manage to understand the miraculous why of the timely intervention of the POST-PITUITARY ENDOCRINE SUBSTANCE that reaches the UTERINE CELLS at the precise instant to produce the rhythmic contractions of childbirth, so necessary to expel the creature.

The SEXUAL FORCE is the Creative Energy of the THIRD Logos, without which NO ONE manages to SELF-REALIZE INTIMATELY. To touch within the medical terrain the most profound questions of the Mysteries of Sex is almost equivalent to releasing, like Ulysses, the skins in which Aeolus had given him the winds enclosed.

Chapter XXI

Profound SELF-REALIZATION is only possible in normal men and women; let normal man be understood as he who has Normal Masculine Gonads; let normal woman be understood as she who has Normal Feminine Gonads.

Chapter 23: THE CADUCEUS OF MERCURY

The VERTEBRAL COLUMN or SPINE is harmoniously formed by the perfect superposition of thirty-three vertebrae that form a precious case for the SPINAL CORD, located with absolute precision in the rear central part of the trunk; in complete clarity five parts or regions can be distinguished in it: Cervical, Dorsal, Lumbar, Sacral, and Coccygeal.

Of the total of vertebrae, PYRAMIDS or CANYONS as they are called in Occult Science, seven are CERVICAL; twelve DORSAL; five LUMBAR; five SACRAL; and four COCCYGEAL.

Doctors of Medicine know very well that the CERVICAL, DORSAL, and LUMBAR vertebrae remain independent of one another, and the SACRAL and COCCYGEAL unite with a surprising EURHYTHMY to form respectively the SACRUM and the COCCYX.

A careful study of the VERTEBRAL COLUMN allows us to understand that all the vertebrae have a series of common characteristics, while other characteristics they present are particular to those of each region.

A vertebra is in itself constituted by a bony mass or body more or less cylindrical, which occupies its anterior part; from that part there extend on the lateral parts of its posterior face two

ANTERO-POSTERIOR columns called PEDICLES, which wisely communicate the body with a series of projections called TRANSVERSE APOPHYSES, ARTICULAR APOPHYSES, SPINOUS APOPHYSES, and VERTEBRAL LAMINAE.

Between these latter and the vertebral body remains a large orifice that, in union with the other vertebrae, forms an approximately cylindrical canal or vertebral canal, fully known by the men of science. Within that tube the SPINAL CORD is lodged in extraordinary and marvelous form.

The VERTEBRAL BODY is more or less cylindrical, with its surface excavated in vertical direction on its lateral and anterior faces, while its posterior face is slightly excavated transversely, constituting the marvelous spinal tube.

The bases of the CYLINDER, or upper and lower faces of the body, are horizontal and somewhat concave, for their periphery, it is clear, is more prominent than the center; They present multiple and marvelous orifices toward this latter part, while the periphery is extraordinarily constituted by compact tissue.

According to the Yogis of Hindustan, there exist in the vertebral column two nerve currents called PINGALA and IDA, and a deep canal called SUSHUMNA, which runs within and along the SPINAL CORD.

At the lower extremity of this canal is what the Yogis of Hindustan call the LOTUS of the KUNDALINI; the Hindustani sages say that said LOTUS is triangular.

Within said Lotus or Magnetic Center of the COCCYX, that SOLAR ELECTRONIC force of SEXUAL type called KUNDALINI is found coiled.

When in truly positive form the Solar Electronic Fire is awakened, it breaks the membranous sac in which it is enclosed and penetrates through the lower orifice of the SPINAL CORD, which in common, ordinary persons is hermetically closed; the seminal vapors open said orifice so that the Solar fire may penetrate through there.

As the SOLAR ELECTRONIC FIRE rises degree by degree, along the canal of Sushumna, the successive layers of the SPIRIT become opened one after another, and the Initiate acquires all the different visions and marvelous powers of the Saints.

When the Solar Electronic fire reaches the brain, one is completely detached from the Physical Body and from the external sensory perceptions.

We know that the form of the SPINAL CORD is quite special. If we take the sign of infinity, the holy eight horizontally placed, we see in it two parts that meet in the center.

Suppose, dear reader, that you accumulate one upon another quantities of HORIZONTAL EIGHTS placed at their roots: that will give you a figuration of the SPINAL CORD.

Ancient Wisdom teaches that there exists a pair of sympathetic nerve cords that coil around the SPINAL CORD, forming the HOLY EIGHT.

Many pseudo-esoterist and pseudo-occultist authors suppose mistakenly that said cords start from the COCCYGEAL region; but Sivananda goes further in his book on KUNDALINI YOGA, and affirms that they have their origin in the very sexual organs.

The Root of that pair of nerve cords must be sought in the TESTICLES of the male and in the OVARIES of the female.

The Left side is the Ida, and the right side is the Pingala. The deep canal that runs within the SPINAL CORD is the Sushumna.

In woman the order of Ida and Pingala is inverted, the Pingala remaining on the left and Ida on the right.

The Secret Doctrine teaches its disciples that Ida is of LUNAR nature and that Pingala is of SOLAR type.

The HINDUSTANI YOGIS affirm that Ida is found intimately related with the left nostril, and that Pingala is related with the right nostril.

This order, as we already said and now repeat, is inverted in woman, but the order of factors does not alter the product.

The Gnostic Movement teaches its Disciples that through the nerve canal of IDA the LUNAR ATOMS of the SEMINAL SYSTEM ascend during the ESOTERIC practices of SEXUAL TRANSMUTATION, and that through PINGALA the SOLAR ATOMS ascend victorious.

Ida and Pingala are the TWO WITNESSES of the APOCALYPSE, the two OLIVE TREES, and the two CANDLESTICKS that stand before the GOD of the earth.

Profound investigations have permitted us to understand that Ida and Pingala terminate in that frontal region situated between the two eyebrows, forming a graceful knot, and then continue into certain subtle ducts which depart from the root of the nose through very fine bony canals where the terminations of some nerves are stimulated, which in turn receive stimuli during certain ESOTERIC practices.

Said canals in last synthesis come to connect Ida and Pingala with the ESOTERIC HEART, or marvelous magnetic center situated in the region of the Thalamus.

The esoteric heart is the CAPITAL CENTER that controls the physical heart. The CHAKRA of the tranquil heart is controlled by the CAPITAL CHAKRA situated in the THALAMUS.

The esoteric sages of LAYA YOGA say that in the cited region of the Thalamus is found that MYSTERIOUS nerve canal called AMRITA NADI, which fulfills the specific mission of connecting the ESOTERIC heart with the famous ANAHATA CHAKRA, the MAGNETIC LOTUS of the physical heart.

Ida and Pingala continued up to the heart through all this mysterious interplay of subtle canals, in fact connect the sexual organs with the CARDIAS.

Through SEXUAL TRANSMUTATION we can and must bring the Sexual Energy to the heart.

Further profound investigations have also permitted us to understand that the AMRITA NADI has, in addition, among other functions, a very singular one, which is to connect the ESOTERIC HEART of the THALAMUS with that LOTUS of the THOUSAND PETALS, situated in the PINEAL GLAND, in the upper part of the brain.

The Spinal Column is that cane similar to a MEASURING ROD of which the Apocalypse speaks, the Staff of Brahma, the Rod of Aaron, the Caduceus of Mercury with its two intertwined serpents.

The Spinal Cord ends in a kind of swelling, the SPINAL BULB, which is not fixed to the brain, but floats in a liquid medium, in such a way that if the head receives a blow, the force of the blow is cushioned by the liquid, and the Bulb receives no damage.

THE SALVATION OF MAN resides exclusively in the MEDULLA and in the SEMEN, and all that does not go that way is lamentably wasting time.

Chapter XXII

Chapter 24: WHITE TANTRISM

Some ESOTERIST travelers of Orientalist type, after having investigated in the ASIAN WORLD, came to the conclusion that TANTRISM is the only school truly practical both in Tibet and in Hindustan.

In the Sacred land of the VEDAS there exist many ASHRAMS where YOGA is studied and practiced, but the most serious are exclusively those where the Tantric teaching abounds.

The studious traveler will be able to find in the Hindustani markets, marvelous Tantric books such as the KAMA KALPA and KAMA SUTRAS, illustrated with splendid photographs related to certain sacred sculptures and bas-reliefs of the temples.

A careful examination of such photographs will permit us to collect very interesting information about the TANTRIC MAITHUNA (SEXUAL YOGA).

HATHA YOGA of Tantric type is extraordinary and leads the ESOTERIST to INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION, but HATHA YOGA without Tantrism is like a garden without water.

The Esoteric Indian School of LAYA YOGA with its famous TANTRIC LAYA-KRIYA SADHANA is in all clarity marvelous and leads its neophytes to INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION.

Yogananda's KRIYA is incomplete; it lacks the TANTRIC LAYA KRIYA SADHANA of Tibet; therefore it does not serve; it can lead no one to INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION.

If Yogananda had accepted matrimony, it is clear that his Guru would have delivered to him the complete KRIYA.

In CHINESE BUDDHISM (CHAN) and in Japanese ZEN there exists profound Tantrism; it is lamentable that many oriental-ists content themselves with the mere external bark of Buddhism.

The MEDULLAR BONE of ESOTERIC BUDDHISM and of TAOISM is TANTRISM, the MAITHUNA (SEXO-YOGA).

The TANTRICS of secret Tibet and of sacred India practice with POSITIVE SEXUAL YOGA, connecting the LINGAM YONI without EJACULATION of the ENS SEMINIS.

The TANTRIC GURUS of Tibet and Hindustan are very demanding; the couple of YOGI and YOGINI must previously become expert in the exercises of LAYA-KRIYA before having the right to the TANTRIC SADHANA (Sexual Position), very special for sexual connection among the Tantrics.

Frankly we cannot and should not deny that the KAMA KALPA teaches many TANTRIC SADHANAS, but we shall only cite now that one in which the male, seated in PADMASANA or in the BUDDHIC, or simply with crossed legs in the oriental style, practices the sexual union with the YOGINI.

The initiate must then sit upon the legs of the Yogi and skillfully cross her legs in such form that the trunk of the Yogi's body remains enveloped by them.

The sexual connection of the LINGAM-YONI during the TANTRIC SADHANA previously demands an exchange of carresses between the man and the woman, until finally the woman absorbs the Phallus.

This Tantric union demands quietness and absolute mental silence to avoid the shadowy intervention of the Pluralized I.

Strong ELECTRO-MAGNETIC currents flow overwhelmingly in those instants of supreme voluptuousness, and the couple enters into ECSTASY or SAMADHI.

A GURU directs this ESOTERIC work; he makes strong magnetic passes on the COCCYX of the MAN and of the WOMAN with the purpose of awakening the Solar Electronic Fire, the igneous Serpent of our magical powers.

This is the system to transmute the Sexual Energy into OJAS (CHRISTIC FORCE); the couple must restrain the sexual impulse and avoid the EJACULATION of the SEMEN.

"THE COITUS INTERRUPTUS," the restrained sexual impulse makes the Sexual Energy of the THIRD LOGOS return inward and upward, through the canals of Ida and Pingala.

The MAITHUNA originates within the MICRO-COSMOS man, in the Coccyx, near the Triveni, an extraordinary contact between the Solar and Lunar Atoms of the Seminal System.

The advent of the fire is the result of the contact between the SOLAR and LUNAR ATOMS of the SEMINAL SYSTEM.

The Gnostic Tantric Sadhana is very simple: man and woman in the normal, common, ordinary position during the sexual act; the important thing is to withdraw before the SPASM to avoid the EJACULATION of the SEMEN.

I.A.O. is the TANTRIC MANTRAM par excellence; I reminds us of IGNIS, FIRE; A is AQUA, WATER; O signifies ORIGEN, SPIRIT. I. A. O. should resound during the practice of the MAITHUNA.

It turns out very interesting that the SEXUAL GONADS are governed ESOTERICALLY by Uranus, the planet of Aquarius, DIVINE KING of primitive ATLANTIS; this reminds us of URANAS, the primordial FIRE and WATER — which is the same thing — establishing the first LUNI-SOLAR cult of the ANDROGYNOUS IO — that is, the appearance of the CHALDEAN ASTROTHEROLOGY — and therefore URANUS the ASURA-MAYA, the first Atlantean, is in fact the first revealer of the SEXUAL MYSTERIES.

One must descend to the NINTH SPHERE (SEX), to work with the primordial FIRE and WATER, origin of WORLDS, BEASTS, MEN, and GODS. Every authentic WHITE INITIATION begins there.

The ADVENT of the FIRE is the most extraordinary COSMIC EVENT; the FIRE TRANSFORMS US RADICALLY.

It is useful to recall the CHAOS of the ancients; the SACRED FIRE of ZOROASTER; or the ATASH-BEHRAM of the Parsis; the FIRE of HERMES; the FIRE of HELMES, of the ancient Germans (Do not confuse HERMES with HELMES).

Let us recall the FLASHING LIGHTNING of CYBELE; the TORCH of APOLLO; the FLAME of the altar of PAN; the inextinguishable FIRE in the TEMPLE of the ACROPOLIS and in that of VESTA; the FIRE FLAME of the HELMET of PLUTO; The BRILLIANT SPARKS on the hats of the DIOSCURI, on the head of the GORGONS, on the HELMET OF PALLAS, and on the CADUCEUS of MERCURY.

It is useful to recall the famous PTAH RA, EGYPTIAN; the GREEK ZEUS CATAIBATES, who descends from heaven to earth according to PAUSANIAS; the TONGUES OF FIRE of PENTECOST; the FLAMING BUSH of MOSES, identical to the BURNING CACTUS of the founding of MEXICO; the PILLAR OF FIRE of the EXODUS; the inextinguishable lamp of ABRAHAM; the ETERNAL FIRE of the bottomless ABYSS or PLEROMA; the FLUID VAPORS of the ORACLE OF DELPHI; the SIDEREAL LIGHT of the ROSICRUCIANS; the AKASHA of the HINDUSTANI ADEPTS; the ASTRAL LIGHT of ELIPHAS LEVI; the AURA and the FLUID of the MAGNETIZERS; the OD of REICHENBACH; the PSYCHOD and the ECTENIC force of THURY, analogous to the fluids of the high hypnotic states, of ROCHAS and OCHOROWIST; the RAYS of BLONDOT and of so many others; the PSYCHIC FORCE of SERGEANT COX; the ATMOSPHERIC MAGNETISM of some naturalists; galvanism, and in sum, ELECTRICITY, are nothing but different names for the manifestations without number of that MYSTERIOUS PROTEUS that has been called the ARCHAEUS of the GREEKS.

The ascent of the SACRED FIRE through the canal of SUSHUMNA, degree by degree, is very slow and difficult; any EJACULATION of SEMEN is sufficient for the fire to descend one or more spinal vertebrae, according to the magnitude of the fault.

Jesus the Great Kabir said: "THE DISCIPLE SHOULD NOT LET HIMSELF FALL, BECAUSE THE DISCIPLE WHO LETS HIMSELF FALL HAS AFTERWARD TO STRUGGLE GREATLY TO RECOVER WHAT WAS LOST."

THE MAITHUNA, SEXUAL YOGA, Gnostic TANTRISM, should only be practiced between husband and wife, in legitimately constituted homes.

White Tantrism prohibits its ADEPTS or affiliates from practicing the MAITHUNA with various women.

White Tantrism prohibits the GNOSTIC SISTERS from practicing the MAITHUNA with other men; only with their own husband is it lawful to them to practice Sexual Magic.

Chapter XXIII

A GURU directs this ESOTERIC work; he makes strong magnetic passes on the COCCYX of the MAN and of the WOMAN with the purpose of awakening the Solar Electronic Fire, the igneous Serpent of our magical powers.

Chapter 25: THE CHAKRAS

In occultist literature, very interesting data and references abound on all those CHAKRAS, CHURCHES, LOTUS FLOWERS, or MAGNETIC CENTERS of the spinal column.

A careful analysis of this matter of the seven Magnetic Centers of the spinal column leads us to the Logical conclusion that three are particularly the most important: MULADHARA, at the base of the spinal column, coccygeal bone; SAHASRARA, the cervical lotus of the thousand petals; and MANIPURA, the umbilical lotus.

It is urgent to eliminate from our perceptions all the SUBJECTIVE elements; it is indispensable to perceive especially and in SELF-CONSCIOUS form all that we see and imagine; it is indispensable to AWAKEN CONSCIOUSNESS.

All that the human multitudes perceive, imagine, or dream has real existence in the ordinary space called MAHAKASHA or Elemental Space.

When a Gnostic initiate observes the dreams of each person who walks the streets with consciousness asleep, when he reads the thoughts of other men or perceives suprasensible objects, he can verify by himself that all that really exists in a kind of superior space called CHITTAKASHA, MENTAL SPACE.

When perception has remained without object and the SOUL shines in its own nature, one has what is called CHIDAKASHA or SPACE OF KNOWLEDGE.

When the solar electronic fire called KUNDALINI has entered into activity through the MAITHUNA or SEXUAL MAGIC, when the igneous serpent of our magical powers has been shaken from its torpor and penetrates the canal of SUSHUMNA, all perceptions are found in the Mental Space.

It is indispensable to know that when the Solar Electronic Fire has reached the end of the canal that opens in the brain, perception without object is in the Space of Knowledge.

Any man can send an electric current along a wire, but nature needs no wire to send its formidable currents.

All the sensations and movements of the body reach the brain or emanate from it along certain nerve fibers or conducting wires.

The bundles of motor fibers and sensory fibers in the SPINAL CORD are the Ida and Pingala of the HINDUSTANI YOGIS, the two WITNESSES of the APOCALYPSE, those marvelous canals through which the AFFERENT and EFFERENT currents splendidly circulate.

The Spirit can send its messages, its news, its information, without any conducting wire.

The Gnostic affirms that he can send any mental current through that deep canal of SUSHUMNA without any nerve fiber playing the role of conducting wire.

Every Gnostic aspires to become master and lord of that marvelous canal of SUSHUMNA; to take possession of said canal signifies in fact to grasp the SCEPTER OF POWER.

To send a mental message, a telepathic message to another person, turns out a relatively easy thing when the vibratory current of thought is sent through the canal of SUSHUMNA.

In the common, ordinary man of the street, in the poor Intellectual Animal, this SUSHUMNA is closed at its lower extremity; no action passes through it. The GNOSTIC proposes exercises with which one can open it and make the nerve currents pass through there.

Seminal vapors have the power to open the SUSHUMNA. Through the MAITHUNA the SUSHUMNA is opened.

To receive the messages of the spirit in direct form through the SUSHUMNA signifies in fact to be free from every material slavery.

To transmute Sexual Energy into OJAS (Christic Force) is only possible through the formidable magical powers of the Muladhara Chakra of the Coccyx.

Only the man and the woman truly chaste can elevate the OJAS and store them in their brains. Chastity has always been considered as the highest Virtue.

We have been told that the more OJAS there are in a man's brain, the more and more intelligent and Spiritual he is. Any fornicator can employ beautiful words and express beautiful thoughts without causing any impression on those who listen to him; the chaste man, even when he does not have a very beautiful language, can enchant an audience with his words; all his movements and gestures, words and gazes will bear the power of OJAS.

Without the marvelous magical powers of the PROSTATIC CHAKRA or SWADHISTHANA, it would be impossible to achieve complete control over the waters of life.

Without the formidable IGNEOUS powers of the UMBILICAL CHAKRA or MANIPURA, no MAGE could dominate the FIRE of the volcanoes of the earth.

Without the extraordinary powers of the ANAHATA or MAGNETIC CENTER of the heart, Gnostics could not unfold themselves at will, nor put the PHYSICAL BODY in JINAS STATE to fly through the air or walk upon the waters or cross a mountain from side to side through the subterranean world without receiving any damage.

Without the mysterious powers of the Verb contained in the VISHUDDHA or LARYNGEAL CHAKRA, the Conceptual Synthetism of the great INITIATES would not exist, and it would in all clarity be impossible to develop the CLAIRAUDIENCE or MAGICAL HEARING of the Sages.

Without the formidable ESOTERIC powers of the AJNA, the famous FRONTAL CHAKRA, no one could develop CLAIRVOYANCE, that marvelous faculty that allows us to read others' thoughts like an open book.

Without the CROWN OF THE SAINTS, the famous LOTUS OF THE THOUSAND PETALS, situated in the PINEAL GLAND, upper part of the brain, no INITIATE could conquer the powers of POLYVIDENCE and INTUITION.

We know through direct experience that the Solar Electronic Fire has the power to open those lotus flowers, those magnetic CHAKRAS of the Spinal Column.

The Hindustani School of LAYA YOGA affirms that the SPINAL CORD is a prolongation of the brain, and to that we cannot offer any objection, because it is so.

Another thing is the somewhat erroneous explanation that said School gives about the CHAKRAS or MAGNETIC CENTERS of the SPINAL COLUMN, considering them absolute exclusivity of the brain.

The cited ORIENTAL School says that the Psychic Centers reside exclusively in the brain and that by physiological sympathy they give the impression of being in certain parts of the body.

Permit us to affirm with H. P. B., that the SEVEN SPINAL CHAKRAS really exist in the places indicated by OCCULT ANATOMY; But that they are controlled by the Seven Capital Chakras of the brain.

We accept that the Magnetic Center of the Physical Heart is controlled by the Esoteric Heart, situated in the region of the CEREBRAL THALAMUS. Any SPINAL CHAKRA has its corresponding CAPITAL CHAKRA in the brain, but it turns out absurd that for such motive the SPINAL CHAKRAS be considered as mere illusory reflections of the Cerebral Psychic Centers.

The seven CAPITAL CHAKRAS vibrate intensely in any brain charged with OJAS (Christic Force).

The SANSKRIT term, OJAS, signifies Transmuted Sexual Energy, Force of Christic type (See chapter 22).

The SEMEN is transmuted through the MAITHUNA into subtle seminal vapors, and these in turn convert into energies that bipolarize to rise through Ida and Pingala to the brain.

The SEMEN must be cerebrified to become OJAS (CHRISTIC FORCE). The BRAIN must be seminized to become charged with OJAS (CHRISTIC FORCE).

The Maithuna, Sexual Yoga, allows us to bring the Solar Electronic Fire to the cerebral region called KAMAKALA; there are found the five centers that as a whole constitute the SAHASRARA, the LOTUS of the THOUSAND PETALS situated in the Pineal Gland, the KING of the CHAKRAS.

The first of those FIVE LOTUSES of the Sahasrara is the LOTUS of the TWELVE PETALS; the second is the TRIKONA, Triangle of Fire; the third is NADA BINDU; the fourth is MANIPITAN; and the fifth HAMSA.

Chapter XXIV

It is urgent to eliminate from our perceptions all the SUBJECTIVE elements; it is indispensable to perceive especially and in SELF-CONSCIOUS form all that we see and imagine; it is indispensable to AWAKEN CONSCIOUSNESS.

Chapter 26: THE MAGISTERIUM OF FIRE

ADORABLE SOULS who in this COSMIC FESTIVAL of CHRISTMAS 1967 sincerely study this MESSAGE; the hour has arrived to UNDERSTAND in depth what the MAGISTERIUM OF FIRE really is.

It is urgent to descend to the NINTH SPHERE, to the SHADOWY WELL, to the very BOTTOM of all the UNIVERSE, to work with FIRE and WATER, origin of worlds, beasts, men, and gods; every authentic WHITE INITIATION begins there.

Let those good women of ancient times come to the aid of this chapter, those who helped AMPHION found THEBES, so that my style may not detract from the nature of the matter.

YOU, who descend to the dark well (SEX); YOU, who are going to work in the MAGISTERIUM OF FIRE; YOU, who wish to grasp in your right hand the SCEPTER OF KINGS, the ROD of AARON, THE STAFF OF BRAHMA; remember at every instant the Dantean warning: "BE CAREFUL HOW YOU WALK; TRY NOT TO STEP ON THE HEADS OF OUR UNFORTUNATE AND TORTURED BROTHERS."

Frozen LAKE like liquid GLASS, flexible, malleable, is the INTIMATE secret aspect of the semen in the sexual glands of the lost.

In the NINTH SPHERE of HELL, THE FLORENTINE DANTE found those weeping and livid shadows submerged in the ice up to that mysterious site where the sexual organs are found.

Sad destiny that of the LUNAR people; they have their face turned downward; their mouth shows signs of cold, and in their earthly eyes tears freeze.

Only the FIRE can melt the FROZEN PONDS, those ponds where the lost live.

The SECRET FIRE of the ALCHEMISTS is the KUNDALINI; the SERPENTINE FIRE or the ringing power working in the body of the ascetic.

Truly this is an electric, igneous, occult, or FOHATIC power; the great pristine, marvelous, surprising force that underlies in every organic and inorganic matter.

Beyond all doubt this is a force of ELECTRO-SPIRITUAL type; a creative power that, when awakened to action, can easily heal or kill, create or destroy. Now you will understand the reason for the Dantean warning to all those who have the audacity to descend to the NINTH SPHERE (SEX).

Referring to this LIVING and terribly DIVINE FIRE, the GNOSTIC ROSICRUCIANS say:

"The potentialities are awakened in Nature by the action of the SECRET FIRE, helped by the ELEMENTAL FIRE."

"The SECRET FIRE is invisible and is contained in all things; it is the most potential and powerful FIRE, with which the external and visible cannot be compared."

"It is the FIRE that Moses used to burn the GOLDEN CALF, and the one that JEREMIAH hid, and that seventy years later was found by the knowers; but that then was transformed into water" (2 Mac, I and II).

"Without the presence of this magical fire, no alchemical process will be perfect, and from there, it is recommended to seek in the secret symbols of the Rosicrucians all that the students of Alchemy wish to find."

The authentic and legitimate ROSICRUCIAN SCHOOL does not exist in the Physical World; in the name of TRUTH I must affirm that I have the high honor of being a member of the ROSICRUCIAN temple of KUMMENES in the Internal Worlds.

The Four ALCHEMICAL rules are:

- "DOMINATE the ANIMAL NATURE": Remember that the weak, cowardly intellectual beasts, without THELEMA (Will), fail in the GREAT WORK.
- "FIRST KNOW, THEN ACT": Remember that REAL KNOWLEDGE is only acquired through Deep Meditation.
- "DO NOT USE COMMON PROCEDURES; USE ONLY ONE VESSEL, ONE FIRE, ONE INSTRUMENT": Remember that this signifies that you are only permitted to practice the MAITHUNA, THE SEXUAL YOGA, between husband and wife in legitimately constituted homes.

Those who use the MAITHUNA to commit adultery will enter the Submerged Involution of the World-Hells.

- "KEEP THE FIRE CONSTANTLY BURNING": I want you to remember, good Disciple, that whoever EJACULATES the seminal liquor loses the SACRED FIRE.

"Unhappy the SAMSON of the KABBALAH who lets himself be put to sleep by DELILAH, the HERCULES of science who exchanges the scepter of power for the BONE of OMPHALE will very soon feel the vengeance of DEIANIRA, and only the pyre of MOUNT OETA will remain to him to escape the devouring torments of the tunic of NESSUS."

The symbolic shield of ARACENA, Spain, composed perhaps by DON BENITO himself or by his TEMPLAR predecessors, is a magisterial compendium of Heraldry that contains within itself the whole MAGISTERIUM of FIRE.

That MAGISTERIAL COMPENDIUM truly consists of three quarters, separated by something like a TEMPLAR TAU formed by a horizontal throne of clouds, to which one ascends through the vertical staff of said TAU, formed in turn by a symbolic SWORD and a CLUB, united by five crossbeams or steps of as many crowns of Princes, worldly crowns, passional crowns, vain crowns, which the ASPIRANT must trample to scale that celestial THRONE upon which only is seen, between clouds, a hermetically closed door, PORTA-COELI without doubt, toward which a mysterious hand armed with a key or KEY guards the GREAT SECRET of INITIATION in the MYSTERIES OF THE KINGDOM, closed by that mystical door.

The left quarter displays a marvelous battlemented tower similar to that of the Cardinalitial Shield of the Bishop Moya, a Tower from which springs forth resplendent a splendid torrent of LIVING WATER (The Ens Seminis).

In the right quarter, delightful Elysian Fields are always seen, with the very GODDESS EVE, VESTA, HESTIA, or the EARTH, crowned with flowers and fruits beneath a Paradisiac tree.

Around the Marvelous Shield, that Latin phrase that says: "HAC VIA ITUR AD ASTRA" shines gloriously. This is the way that leads to the heavens.

The whole shield is the symbol of the SEXUAL TAU, whose horizontal crossbeam is formed by clouds of MYSTERY, hiding the narrow path that leads to TRUTH, and whose vertical crossbeam is a painful ladder resting on the flaming SWORD and on the SCEPTER or CLUB of DOMINION over our passions.

Five Princely crowns that to ascend the ladder must be trampled as steps, remind us that, in the ascent through all the ESOTERIC DEGREES of the five INITIATIONS of FIRE, we must trample all greatness, all human ambition, until reaching, up the ladder, the CLOSED DOOR, PORTA COELI, whose magical key only the MASTER can give us.

To the left and right of said VERTICAL STAFF of the SEXUAL TAU, remain respectively the CASTLE of the JOYOUS GUARDED — speaking in chivalric style — from which springs the torrent of LIVING WATER (Ens Seminis) that fertilizes the world, EGO SUM RESURRECTIO ET VITA, and the Elysian Fields where CERES, the MOTHER EARTH, appears crowned with flowers and fruits.

The symbolic shield of Aracena is absolutely sexual one hundred percent. In the CONNECTION of the PHALLUS and the WOMB lies the KEY of all power.

The Solar Electronic Fire has seven degrees of power; they are seven serpents, two groups of three, with the sublime coronation of the seventh tongue of fire that unites us with the ONE, with the Law, with the FATHER.

To raise through the MAITHUNA, SEXUAL YOGA, the five fundamental snakes is the foundation, because the two superior serpents are always raised.

When we observe carefully any SOLAR MAN, we can then verify that each of the seven serpents is found raised in the medullar canal of his respective vehicle.

The first serpent corresponds to the PHYSICAL BODY. The second serpent corresponds to the VITAL BODY or Lingam Sarira of the Hindustanis. The third serpent rises victorious through the canal of SUSHUMNA, of the authentic and legitimate SOLAR ASTRAL BODY. The fourth serpent rises victorious in the true SOLAR MENTAL BODY. The fifth serpent rises through the medullar canal of the true SOLAR BODY of CONSCIOUS WILL. The sixth and seventh serpents correspond to the BUDDHI and ATMAN respectively.

Chapter XXV

Beyond all doubt this is a force of ELECTRO-SPIRITUAL type; a creative power that, when awakened to action, can easily heal or kill, create or destroy.

Chapter 27: PRANAYAMA

A judicious study of the "VOICE OF THE SILENCE," that masterful esoteric work of Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, leads us to the logical conclusion that there exist SEVEN TREMENDOUS INITIATIC PORTALS.

It is clear, in all clarity, that the FUNDAMENTAL thing is to reach the FIFTH DOOR, because for the WARRIOR the two superior ones are always open.

In several Masonic Degrees reference is made to that Symbolic Esoteric Ladder that unites the EARTH to HEAVEN, the same that the incarnated ANGEL ISRAEL saw in dreams, and whose profane name was Jacob.

Many mistakenly believe that the COCCYGEAL CHAKRA with its four marvelous petals is the first step or first rung of the holy ladder.

Many suppose that the PROSTATIC CHAKRA, Splendid Lotus of Six Petals, is the second step of the mystical ladder.

There are those who hold that the UMBILICAL CHAKRA, Luminous Gem of Ten Petals in the center of the lumbar region, is the third step.

Many pseudo-esoterists and pseudo-occultists want to see in the CARDIAS with its famous twelve petals the fourth step.

In all this there exist opinions and opinions, and some believe that LARYNGEAL CHAKRA with its sixteen precious petals is the fifth step.

Some are convinced in erroneous form that the SIXTH CENTER situated in the head between the two eyebrows, and with its two extraordinary and resplendent petals, is supposedly the sixth step of the mystical ladder.

Finally, there is no lack of pseudo-esoterists and pseudo-occultists who still believe that the LOTUS of the THOUSAND PETALS, the SEAT of SHIVA in the Pineal Gland, upper part of the brain, is supposedly the seventh step of JACOB'S LADDER.

It can be said in synthesis that the SAHASRARA, the MILUPE or PRECIOUS LOTUS of THOUSAND PETALS, is at the vertex of the head; it can be assured that it is the seat of the Holy Spirit and that it only really awaits its luminous and extraordinary union with SHAKTI, the igneous Sexual Force that, like SERPENT of FIRE, sleeps coiled three and a half times in the lowest of the seven CENTERS, obtaining from this splendid union the LIBERATION that is the Object of Yoga.

Another thing is to analyze, experience, and understand the very terrible analytical studies of the Laboratorium-Oratorium of the THIRD LOGOS.

We already said, and we repeat again: The SACRED FIRE has seven degrees of power: They are Seven Serpents, two groups of three, with the sublime coronation of the Seventh Tongue of Fire that unites us with the ONE, with the LAW, with the FATHER.

It is urgent to know that the SEVEN SERPENTS are the SEVEN STEPS of JACOB'S LADDER, the SEVEN PORTALS of the VOICE of the SILENCE.

The first two serpents — that of the physical body and that of the vital body respectively — only reach the magnetic field of the root of the nose, after having activated the LOTUS of the THOUSAND PETALS; the five superior serpents always reach through the AMRITA NADI to the Cardias.

No one can pass through the Seven Initiatic Portals in instantaneous and simultaneous form; no Initiate can leap to the Seventh Step in immediate form; in all this there exist DEGREES and DEGREES.

Whoever wants to raise the THIRD SERPENT must first have raised the SECOND, and no one can raise the Second Snake without having raised the FIRST.

It is absurd to try to raise the FOURTH SACRED VIPER without first having raised the THIRD, and it turns out foolish to try to raise the FIFTH Snake without first having raised the FOURTH.

Thousands of PSEUDO-OCCULTIST AND PSEUDO ESOTERIST students commit the shameful error of believing that the REVOLUTIONARY development of the KUNDALINI can be achieved working with the BELLOWS SYSTEM.

In Limbo live many yogis who, despite having practiced with Pranayama intensely throughout their lives, did not achieve, did not obtain even the awakening of the Kundalini.

With the respiratory exercises we can achieve that many IGNEOUS FLAMES rise through the SPINAL CORD, but we will never achieve with said practices the ascent of each of the noble serpents of FIRE.

To use the FLAMES of the Sacred Fire enclosed in the Coccygeal Chakra to awaken CONSCIOUSNESS is, of course, very recommendable, but that never signifies Awakening the Kundalini.

In all clarity it turns out clear that the nostrils are united to the Sexual Gonads through Ida and Pingala, and therefore it turns out relatively easy to use through Respiratory Exercises, certain Sacred Flames to "AWAKEN CONSCIOUSNESS."

The best INITIATES of LAYA YOGA, of ZEN, and of CHAN, understanding the urgent need to AWAKEN CONSCIOUSNESS, intelligently combine meditation with Pranayama.

When a tiny fraction of vital energy travels along a nerve fiber and provokes reactions in certain centers, the perception is a dream or an imagination; but when under the effect of Pranayama combined with MEDITATION, any tiny fraction of the SACRED FIRE manages to rise through the medullar canal, the reaction of such centers is FORMIDABLE, immensely superior to the reaction of the dream or the imagination.

Any tiny FRACTION of the reserve of the KUNDALINI turns out formidable to awaken CONSCIOUSNESS, and therefore it turns out in all clarity marvelous to combine meditation with respiratory exercises.

Meditation and Pranayama serve to AWAKEN CONSCIOUSNESS, but they would never serve to awaken the Kundalini.

The Mystic, through prayer and meditation, achieves the ascent of some Sacred Flames through the medullar canal, but that does not signify the AWAKENING of the KUNDALINI.

Any minimal fraction of the Kundalini can produce Illumination during Prayer and Meditation, but that does not signify the AWAKENING of the KUNDALINI.

There exist formidable MANTRAMS for the AWAKENING of the KUNDALINI, but these give results on the condition of being sung in the Ninth Sphere during the MAITHUNA (Sexual Magic).

There comes to my memory at these moments that formidable mantram that the Angel AROCH, ANGEL OF COMMAND, taught me.

KANDIL, BANDIL, RRRRRRRRR... KAN is sung in a high voice; DIL is sung in a low voice; BAN in a high voice, DIL in a low voice. The letter RRRRR like a very fine motor or like a windmill with sound like a child's voice, very sharp.

This is one of the most powerful MANTRAMS of Sexual Magic, and every Gnostic Alchemist must use it during the MAITHUNA.

With Pranayama the canals of Ida and Pingala can and must be purified; With Pranayama Sexual Energies can be Sublimated; but it does not serve for the Awakening of the Kundalini, because the Kundalini only enters into activity with the sexual contact of the Positive-Negative, Masculine-Feminine Poles, during the SEXUAL ACT.

In this world there is everything, and to top all the evils, there exist certain fools who believe that since within every human being the two poles exist, according to them, the Kundalini can be Awakened without need of the MAITHUNA. Those Imbeciles should give women the formula to conceive children without need of sexual contact; those fools should present men with the key to engender children without need of woman.

Chapter XXVI

To use the FLAMES of the Sacred Fire enclosed in the Coccygeal Chakra to awaken CONSCIOUSNESS is, of course, very recommendable, but that never signifies Awakening the Kundalini.

Chapter 28: BLACK TANTRISM

Amid the perpetual snows of millenary TIBET, charged with so many traditions, there exist several Black Tantric Schools.

Unfortunate is he who affiliates himself with said shadowy schools; better it would have been for him not to have been born or to hang a millstone around his neck and throw himself into the depths of the sea.

The basic, fundamental objective of the BLACK TANTRIC SCHOOLS is the development of the ABOMINABLE KUNDARTIGUADOR ORGAN (TAIL OF SATAN).

WHITE SEXUAL YOGA teaches that with the contact of the SOLAR and LUNAR Atoms of the Seminal System in the TRIVENI, near the Coccyx, the IGNEOUS SERPENT of our MAGICAL POWERS awakens to initiate its march inward and upward, through the Medullar Canal.

The black Yogis of the Clan of Dagduppa make that contact of the Solar and Lunar Atoms never within the organism, always outside the organism.

The Black Yogis (Asura Samphata) commit the crime of ejaculating the SEMEN (SHUKRA) during the MAITHUNA, to mix it with the feminine Raja and thus obtain the contact of the Solar and Lunar Atoms within the very YONI of the woman.

There is no doubt that the most difficult thing for BONZOS and DUGPAS of Red Hats is the reabsorption of the Seminal Liquor after having been ejaculated.

In this process of reabsorption there exists a technique and a force of psychic type terribly malign.

The VAJROLI MUDRA combined with the Mental Force allows the Bonzos and Dugpas of red hood to absorb through the urethra the Spilled Seminal Liquor.

During the common, ordinary sexual act, the INTELLECTUAL ANIMAL spills millions of Solar Atoms of very high voltage, which are immediately replaced with billions of Satanic Atoms of the SECRET ENEMY, gathered from among the Atomic Infernos of man, through the process of contraction of the sexual organs after the coitus.

When the semen is not spilled, the Solar Atoms return inward and upward through Ida and Pingala, multiplying extraordinarily in quantity and quality.

The semen that the Black Tantrics reabsorb through the urethra, extracting it from the VAGINA, has in fact become a dreadful accumulator of Satanic Atoms.

When this special type of Satanic Atoms tries to rise to the GOLGOTHA of the FATHER (THE BRAIN), they are violently thrown against the coccyx by the three Akashic Breaths that work in IDA, PINGALA, and SUSHUMNA.

This type of malign seminal atoms hurls itself through Ida and Pingala, struggling violently to reach the brain, but all their efforts turn out useless because the three Akashic breaths throw them against that region of the coccyx where lies the Malign Atom that has the power to put the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ into activity.

In every normal common and ordinary person, the IGNEOUS SERPENT of our Magical Powers remains enclosed within the Coccygeal Center, coiled marvelously three and a half times.

When the serpent rises through the MEDULLAR CANAL, we become ANGELS, but when the SERPENT descends, when it precipitates itself from the COCCYX toward the Atomic Infernos of MAN, we become terribly MALIGN Lunar Demons.

The SERPENT rising is the Kundalini; the SERPENT descending is the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

The Serpent rising through the Medullar Canal is the Brazen Serpent that healed the ISRAELITES in the desert; the Serpent descending is the Tempting Serpent of EDEN, the terrible Python Serpent of SEVEN HEADS that crawled through the mud of the earth and that an irritated Apollo wounded with his darts.

The Abominable Kundartiguador Organ confers upon BLACK TANTRICS PSYCHIC POWERS (SIDDHIS), terribly MALIGN.

The Abominable Kundartiguador Organ could never open the Seven Churches of the Apocalypse, the seven Vital Centers of the Spinal Column, because it would never manage to rise through the Medullar canal; but it does put into activity the ANTITHESIS of the Seven Churches, the SEVEN MALIGN CENTERS or SEVEN shadowy CHAKRAS of the lower belly.

The Muhammadans affirm that Hell has SEVEN DOORS and that these exist in the LOWER BELLY; the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ has the power to open those Seven Doors.

To develop the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ and put into activity the SEVEN INFERNAL CHAKRAS of the lower belly is in fact equivalent to becoming the FILTHY BEAST of SEVEN HEADS and TEN HORNS, upon which sits the GREAT HARLOT whose number is 666.

Those who commit the crime of developing the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ divorce themselves from the Spiritual Triad "ATMAN-BUDDHI-MANAS," forever and sink into the WORLD-HELLS.

KUNDALINI is a composite word: KUNDA comes to remind us of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ; LINI is certainly an Atlantean word that means END.

The PENTECOSTAL fire rising through the MEDULLAR canal signifies END for the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

The Fire of the Holy Spirit ascending through the Medullar Canal opens the Church of Ephesus (COCCYGEAL CHAKRA); opens the Church of Smyrna (PROSTATIC CHAKRA); opens the Church of Pergamum (UMBILICAL CHAKRA); Opens the Church of Thyatira (CHAKRA of the HEART); opens the Church of Sardis (LARYNGEAL CHAKRA); opens the Church of Philadelphia (FRONTAL CHAKRA); Opens the Church of Laodicea (LOTUS OF THE THOUSAND PETALS, crown of the SAINTS, in the Pineal Gland) and puts an end to the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

The CURSED SNAKE, the LUCIFERIAN FIRE, the TAIL OF SATAN, in fact opens the SEVEN ANTITHETICAL, INFERNAL CHURCHES of the lower belly.

The ASCENDING FIRE confers upon the INNERMOST, upon the Spirit, powers over PRITHVI, the earth element, in the Church of Ephesus; powers over WATER, APAS, in the Church of Smyrna; powers over FIRE, TEJAS, in the Church of Pergamum; powers over AIR, VAYU, in the Church of Thyatira; powers over the ETHER or AKASHA, in the Church of Sardis; powers over LIGHT with the EYE of SHIVA in the Church of Philadelphia; and union with the INNERMOST in the Church of Laodicea.

The Abominable Kundartiguador Organ, the Descending Fire, even when it confers upon the BLACK YOGI certain SIDDHIS, Magic Powers, intimately related with the SEVEN INFERNAL CHAKRAS of the lower belly, converts him into an inhabitant of the SUBTERRANEAN WORLD, into a slave of the ELEMENTS.

The ADEPTS of the LEFT HAND have founded in the WESTERN WORLD many SCHOOLS of BLACK TANTRISM; said shadowy organizations display sublime titles.

We know the case of a certain Great Initiate, who before DISINCARNATING founded a SCHOOL of WHITE TANTRISM; unfortunately he committed the error of leaving his son, an inexperienced youth, as GENERAL DIRECTOR. This naive boy without true ESOTERIC experience very soon let himself be deceived by certain BLACK TANTRICS and ended up publicly teaching BLACK TANTRISM.

The result of all that was dreadful; some members of said brotherhood, also inexperienced, accepted the BLACK TANTRIC teaching and ended up converted into terribly malign DEMONS.

SEX is the STONE of stumbling, or the ROCK that causes one to fall. SEX is the principal cornerstone, chosen, precious.

We must never forget the words of PETER, the MASTER of the MAITHUNA; he warns us against the FALSE PROPHETS and FALSE MASTERS who covertly introduce, and with sublime and ineffable tints, many destructive heresies, much BLACK TANTRISM and pernicious practices.

Follow, most beloved Gnostic Brothers, the STRAIGHT PATH, the Path of Perfect Chastity, of absolute Holiness and of GREAT SACRIFICE for all our fellow beings.

Chapter XXVII

Chapter 29: GRAY TANTRISM

If we carefully observe the symbolic Caduceus of Mercury, we discover with mystical astonishment that the two serpents intertwined on the HOLY ROD form the HOLY EIGHT.

Ida and Pingala intertwined on the SPINAL COLUMN are really the PERFECT EIGHT; happy is he who understands the profound Mysteries of the Holy Eight.

The EIGHT placed in HORIZONTAL form is the sign of Infinity. The EIGHT has the image of a CLEPSYDRA; with the EIGHT is indicated the succession of TIME in distinct CYCLES, each one of which is, beyond all doubt, a consequence of the other.

In the holy EIGHT exists the spiral of life. The EVOLUTIONARY and INVOLUTIONARY processes are always realized in SPIRAL form.

The FIRE of PHLEGETHON and the Water of the ACHERON intersect in the NINTH SPHERE, forming the SIGN of INFINITY.

This DOUBLE CURRENT with which one must WORK in the GREAT WORK to achieve INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION is wisely represented in the mysterious EIGHT of Basil Valentine, which is a variation of the Caduceus and symbolizes, as is natural, the Mercury of the Secret Philosophy, to which are joined in extraordinary form the marvelous properties of SULFUR and the productive fecundity of SALT, thus realizing the mystical conjunction of two Luminaries in three Worlds.

The WORLD and the SUPRAWORLD are marvelously linked with the HOLY EIGHT. The SUB-WORLD and the WORLD are linked with the HOLY EIGHT.

The SUPERIOR circle of the HOLY EIGHT is a living representation of the HUMAN BRAIN; the INFERIOR circle hides itself among the MYSTERY to symbolize the VASE of HERMES within which is contained the Mercury of the Secret Philosophy, the ENS SEMINIS.

We have been wisely told that at that precise point where the FIRE of PHLEGETHON and the WATER of the ACHERON intersect to form the SIGN of INFINITY, the TEMPLE-HEART is found.

The struggle is TERRIBLE, BRAIN against SEX, SEX against BRAIN, and most terrible is that of HEART against HEART, you know it.

Within the interior of the Planetary Globe, in the Ninth Circle, every ESOTERIST finds the Symbol of infinity, in which are represented the BRAIN, HEART, and SEX of the Genius of the Earth.

Upon this ARCHETYPAL base of the HOLY EIGHT, the BODIES of all the creatures that live on the earth are organized, from the most insignificant MICROBE to MAN.

With the Holy EIGHT, with the Sacred Symbol of Infinity, the EIGHT KABIRS are intimately related, those Powerful Ineffable and terribly Divine Semitic Gods, later adored by Greeks and Romans, and whose principal Sanctuary was always found in Samothrace.

The Eight KABIRS are the SONS of HEPHAESTUS or VULCAN and of an adorable DAUGHTER of PROTEUS; they were born of the Sacred Fire that manifests itself in the terrible depths of the Earth by its forging action on that PROTEUS, on that UNIVERSAL SUBSTANCE, disposed, as is natural, to take any form.

These Eight KABIRS are, then, the fundamental Intelligences of this Nature, the Extraordinary Regents of the Great Mysteries of LIFE and DEATH.

According to a very ancient ESOTERIC tradition, one of these Kabirs was assassinated by his own brothers, but he resurrected later with the help of Hermes; This reminds us of the symbolic Death and Resurrection of HIRAM and of OSIRIS and of JESUS, which must be understood in depth by Masons.

The Holy EIGHT is, then, the base and living foundation of the GREAT WORK. If someone violated the scientific RULES and PRINCIPLES contained in the SYMBOL of INFINITY, he would totally fail in the GREAT WORK.

Whoever wants to work with success in the MAGISTERIUM OF FIRE must never spill the VASE OF HERMES (NOT EJACULATE THE SEMEN), because he fails in the GREAT WORK.

The DOUBLE CURRENT of Fire and Water must intersect exactly in the NINTH SPHERE to form the SYMBOL of INFINITY.

If the Alchemist loses the Water, that is: If he commits the error of EJACULATING the SEMEN, the intersection of the two currents becomes IMPOSSIBLE.

In the cruel struggle of BRAIN against SEX and SEX against BRAIN, the BRAIN often fails.

The INTIMATE battles of the heart tend to lead the Alchemists to the final defeat.

A GREEK fable brings us the account of SISYPHUS, that COLOSSUS who, carrying on his back a Great Stone, tried again and again to reach the summit of the MOUNTAIN; whenever he was about to reach the longed-for goal, his attempt failed, the STONE falling to the depths of the precipice.

Whoever at times spills the VASE OF HERMES, who at times does NOT spill it and then spills it again, violates the laws of the EIGHT KABIRS and becomes a GRAY TANTRIC.

For everything there exist EVASIONS and false JUSTIFICATIONS in this world of SAMSARA; GRAY TANTRISM also has its partisans and its Doctrine.

Any ESOTERIST traveler who proposes to make profound investigations in the SECRET SCHOOLS of the ASIAN CONTINENT can verify by himself the raw and painful reality of GRAY TANTRISM.

TANTRISM exists throughout Asia and abounds in the various Schools of the Theravada, (HINAYANA); MAHAYANA; CHAN, ZEN, TANTRIC BUDDHISM, etc.

The INTELLECTUAL ANIMALS always find EVASIONS and false JUSTIFICATIONS for all their weaknesses. It should not surprise us then that in Schools so SELF-EXALTING and DIGNIFYING as Zen, Tantric Buddhism, and others, there is found in these times much ballast of GRAY TANTRISM.

It is lamentable that some disoriented INSTRUCTORS of those Eastern SCHOOLS offer valuable techniques and practices of Sexual Yoga without understanding the fundamental aspect of TANTRISM, the urgent need that one never in life commit the crime of SPILLING the SEMEN.

That matter of prolonging the Coitus with the sole objective of enjoying animal pleasure, without giving any importance to the question of SEMINAL EJACULATION, is, beyond all doubt, GRAY TANTRISM, which can easily degenerate into BLACK.

Fortunately, much WHITE TANTRISM exists in TAOISM and in HINDU and TIBETAN TANTRISM and in PURE ZEN and in the ORIGINAL CHAN.

In old EUROPE there existed some SECTS of PERSIAN origin, such as that of the very famous Manichaeans, who practiced White Tantrism or COITUS INTERRUPTUS and called it KAREZZA, a word of Persian origin.

The MEDIEVAL KNIGHTS in the DONOI also practiced White Sexual Magic. The Alchemists who work according to all the Principles and Laws of the Holy Eight, SELF-REALIZE in depth; they become Hierophants.

Every authentic ESOTERIST knows very well that the Symbol of Infinity is equal to the Pentalpha, the famous Five-Pointed Star.

Every ESOTERIST knows very well that the EIGHT KABIRS are intimately related with the Eight Winds. Boreas, the WIND of the NORTH, was considered as the ravisher of youths; Notus or Auster, the WIND of the SOUTH, brought tempests and clouds; Zephyr, the WIND of the WEST of the WORLD, was venerated as the God of Spring; Eurus or Vulturnus, sometimes dry, sometimes humid, was always venerated in Winter.

The ancient Sages never forgot CAECIAS the GREEK, the famous wind of the NORTHEAST; nor did the old Hierophants forget APELIOTES, the wind of the SOUTHEAST, nor LIPS, the Wind of the SOUTHWEST, nor SCHIRON, the WIND of the NORTHWEST.

The work with the Philosopher's Stone, the EIGHT Stages of YOGA, are exclusively for those who respect the principles and Laws of the Holy Eight, never for the followers of BLACK or GRAY TANTRISM.

Chapter XXVIII

Chapter 30: SEXUAL ABSTENTION

The ESOTERIC investigations carried out in the Astral Body have permitted me to verify that those persons who renounce Sex, without having first worked in the Magisterium of Fire, without having achieved the Second Birth, charge themselves with terribly MALIGN VENEZIOOSKIRIAN Vibrations.

It is urgent to know, it is necessary to UNDERSTAND that this special type of pernicious VIBRATIONS, after totally saturating the Lunar Bodies, has the power to awaken the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

Any ABSTEMIOUS person already poisoned by the perverse VENEZIOOSKIRIAN VIBRATIONS is characterized by that Fatal Dualism of Expert Cynicism and Extreme Fanaticism in high degree.

In the WORLD-HELLS live many MISTAKEN ASCETICS, many ABSTEMIOUS ONES who renounced Sex without first having fabricated their Solar Bodies in the NINTH SPHERE, without having achieved the Second Birth.

The path that leads to the ABYSS is paved with good intentions. AVERNUS is full of SINCERELY MISTAKEN ONES.

In this painful world in which we live, there exist many PSEUDO-ESOTERISTS and PSEUDO-OCCULTISTS asleep, who dream they have awakened, without understanding that the sleep of CONSCIOUSNESS still has them in its claws and that within their interior exist vengeful shadows that lie in wait for them.

Those poor people presume to be ILLUMINATED and renounce Sex without first having worked in the Ninth Sphere, without having achieved the Second Birth, that BIRTH of which Jesus spoke to Nicodemus.

The result of such ABSURD ABSTENTION is always Fatality; said persons have CONSCIOUSNESS asleep; if they had it awakened they could verify by direct experience the tremendous activity of the MALIGN VENEZIOOSKIRIAN VIBRATIONS within their Lunar Bodies, and at last they would see with indescribable terror the dreadful development of the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ in their submerged animal nature.

The mistaken sincere ones do not want to understand that whoever wants to ascend must first descend.

MYSTICAL PRIDE is a characteristic of the INTERIOR PHARISEE; those who presume to be Initiates, Saints, and Sages, without having first fabricated the Solar Bodies, without ever having worked in the Ninth Sphere, without having previously reached the Second Birth, conclude RENOUNCING Sex and developing the Abominable Kundartiguador Organ.

To pull those sincerely mistaken ones out of their error is very difficult; they feel themselves Super-Transcended, they presume to be Gods, without having even put their foot on the first step of the Holy ladder.

A certain type of INFRA-SEXUAL ones of LILITH curse the THIRD LOGOS, mortally hate Sex, and have no objection to applying to it the most infamous qualifications.

It irks the INFRA-SEXUAL ONES that we Gnostics give Sex special preference.

Every INFRA-SEXUAL one presumes to be Wise, and as is barely natural, looks with a certain air of contempt at persons of NORMAL SEX, qualifying them as inferior people, as mistaken people, etc.

The GREAT ARCANUM, which the INFRA-SEXUAL ONES so much hate, is very hidden among the Columns J and B of Masonry.

The study of the Sacred Novenary always concludes with the Cubic Stone of point, which, in its nine marvelous faces, gathers within itself all the splendid PERFECTION of the CUBE and the balanced elevation of the pyramid of quadrangular base.

Intelligently opening the sacred Philosopher's Stone and extending its marvelous and splendid faces, we obtain with mystical astonishment again the sacred symbol of the HOLY CROSS, as the perfect expression of the MAGISTERIUM OF FIRE, by the union of two crosses, the first formed by the five squares that constitute the inferior faces of the STONE, and the second by the four TRIANGLES of its vertex.

Every true INITIATE knows very well that the first CROSS of QUADRILATERAL type symbolizes nature with its Four Elements that develop as crystallizations of the AKASHA, MULAPRAKRITI or UNIVERSAL ENS SEMINIS.

We have been wisely told that the second CROSS formed by the four ternaries or splendid esoteric triangles that emanate from a center or originating point is the ESOTERIC CROSS, living expression of the TRIUNE LOGOS crucified in Matter.

In this LIVING STONE of the temple placed between the COLUMNS of ADAM KADMON, PLUS ULTRA, is found the KEY of INTIMATE SELF-REALIZATION.

The Philosopher's Stone is SEX. This is the Cubic Stone of Yesod. It turns out stupid to want to become a Column of the Temple of the LIVING GOD without having first chiseled the Rough Stone.

In other words, no one can reach MASTERY, the ADEPTSHIP, without having worked in the NINTH SPHERE.

The Cubic Stone of Point has nine faces, nine vertices, and sixteen edges.

The Cubic Stone of point is telling us that every elevation requires a previous humiliation; one must first descend to the WORLD-HELLS, to the Ninth Circle, beneath the surface of the earth, to have the right to ascend to HEAVEN.

It turns out impossible to enter the KINGDOM when the Laws of the Cubic Stone of Yesod are violated.

Those who renounce Sex without first having achieved the SECOND BIRTH violate the LAWS of the HOLY STONE.

Those INNOCENT ones who live on the other side of the evil river — those SUBLIME MYSTICS, those VENERABLE SAGES, those NOBLE PATRIARCHS who dwell in LIMBO for the offense of having renounced Sex without first having fabricated the SOLAR BODIES — were able to elude the VENEZIOOSKIRIAN VIBRATIONS behind the protective shield of Holiness.

It is stupid to renounce Sex without first having achieved the Second Birth; it is absurd to violate the Laws of the Holy Stone.

The INNOCENT ones of LIMBO need to BE REINCORPORATED to work in the NINTH SPHERE and achieve the SECOND BIRTH; only thus will they be able to enter the KINGDOM.

Chapter XXIX

Chapter 31: SOLAR LAWS AND LUNAR LAWS

The scientific concerns in these times of WORLD CRISIS are FORMIDABLE.

Already Morrison and Coconi, eminent North American PHYSICISTS, think that perhaps in some part of the Milky Way there exist SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES of EXTRATERRESTRIAL MEN immensely SUPERIOR to us.

The cited PHYSICISTS believe that it is very possible that said EXTRATERRESTRIALS wish to communicate with us, and they have even discovered that said COSMIC CORPORATIONS EMIT waves in our direction at a frequency of 1,420 Mc/Sec.

The THEORY of the PLURALITY of INHABITED WORLDS is beginning to be UNDERSTOOD by the MEN of SCIENCE.

One argument, among others, in favor of this THEORY, is that certain STARS have, like the SUN, weak angular velocities.

Every man of SCIENCE has been able to verify through observation and experience that the smallness of the angular momentum of any SUN accuses, indicates, or signals the existence of a Planetary System.

The SCIENTISTS are beginning to understand that among all those MILLIONS of WORLDS of our GALAXY that may be found in a similar situation to that of the earth, in relation to their STAR, it is absurd to rule out the possibility that some have civilizations immensely more developed than ours.

The SAGES say that this possibility can and must be examined very carefully.

Certain news reports say that the famous scientist Drake has the intention of seriously studying the very interesting zone of CETI and ERIDANUS.

These two stars are at 11.4 light-years and are the closest after that of Centaurus.

From the formidable list of nearest STARS intelligently elaborated by Morrison and Cocconi, it is clear that CETI and ERIDANUS, as well as the famous INDI, are really the most interesting after the elimination of the DOUBLE STARS.

It has been verified that due to the very marked perturbations of their orbits, the Planets of the DOUBLE STARS do not possess UNIFORM CLIMATES during very long Geological periods.

We say that many GALACTIC SOCIETIES exist that know of the CRITICAL moment in which we live and that want and desire to help us.

SIRIUS, the Sun of the Suns of the MILKY WAY, is a DOUBLE STAR. The Twin Brother of Sirius is a Black World of terrible and dreadful density.

The VIBRATORY influence of the DOUBLE STAR SIRIUS is very strange. That radiation is SUPRA-SOLAR and INFRA-LUNAR.

By simple Logical deduction we can say that the DOUBLE RADIATION of SIRIUS influences decisively on all the SUPRA-HEAVENS and on all the INFRA-INFERNOS of the MILKY WAY.

Although it is certain that SIRIUS is the Great Sun of the MILKY WAY, it is no less certain that its shadowy Twin Brother has a much more astonishing density, although equal to what could become the most obscure interior of the deadest MOON.

The Double Star SIRIUS is composed of an immense Radiant Sun TWENTY-SIX times more brilliant than ours, with a circular trajectory of a period of fifty years, around a WHITE DWARF the size of JUPITER and five thousand times denser than LEAD.

We have been told that the MILKY WAY gravitates around the Double Star SIRIUS. This DOUBLE STAR seems in some way to fill the excessive gap between the Cosmoses of the Solar System and the MILKY WAY.

The Double Star SIRIUS indicates an intense SOLAR and LUNAR activity within our GALAXY.

The Double Star SIRIUS influences decisively on us here and now.

To free oneself from the LUNAR influence is something dreadfully difficult but indispensable to achieve LIBERATION.

The LUNAR influence is DOUBLE in the WORLD in which we live because the earth has two MOONS.

Before the TELESCOPES, the Second Moon appears black and the size of a LENTIL.

The OCCULTISTS have given the Black Moon the name of LILITH; this second LUNAR SATELLITE is a kind of Submerged Eighth Sphere; a terribly MALIGN world.

The SINISTER VIBRATIONS that come from the BLACK MOON originate on EARTH MONSTROSITIES, ABOMINATIONS, dreadful CRIMES full of repugnant SADISM, inconceivable LUST, HOMOSEXUALITY on a GREAT SCALE, MASTURBATION, PEDERASTY, PROVOKED ABORTIONS, etc.

Among the most ABOMINABLE products of LILITH, it is opportune to cite the case of Count DRACULA in Russia.

This Cinema personage really existed, and H.P.B. comments on it in one of her works.

The Great Mistress says that said Count was, in the times of the Tsars, the Mayor of a certain Russian town; he mortally hated his wife, for VAMPIRES are HOMOSEXUALS; they mortally abhor the Opposite Sex.

After his death, Count Dracula would appear at the house of the abhorred widow to whip her violently. Certain CATHOLIC PRIESTS uselessly tried to obstruct his passage: Count Dracula ran them over with his carriage on the bridge, very near the cemetery and at midnight.

When the BLACK and DREADFUL SEPULCHER of Count Dracula was opened, his living corpse was found very well preserved and submerged in human blood, for vampires feed on blood.

The Great Mistress H. P. BLAVATSKY says that the feet of the sinister corpse were full of mud, which demonstrates to satiety that at midnight he escaped from the SEPULCHER.

The case of Count Dracula ended when the PRIESTS drove a stake into his heart.

In PALESTINE there exists an order of VAMPIRES that hide behind the following title: "ORDER OF THE IMMORTAL GUARDIANS OF THE HOLY SEPULCHER."

The VAMPIRES are the result of HOMOSEXUALITY combined with TANTRISM among persons of the same SEX (MONSTROSITY, DREADFUL ABOMINATION).

The DOUBLE LUNAR INFLUENCE in the WORLD in which we live is terribly mechanistic. It is URGENT to feed ourselves with the GOLDEN APPLES or those of FREYA and with the LIQUOR of SOMA or BIBLICAL MANNA in order to FABRICATE the SOLAR BODIES and free ourselves from the Lunar Laws.

We have been told that our PHYSICAL SUN, as demonstrated by the BRAHMAN CHRONOLOGIES, rotates around a Sun infinitely greater or more luminous; so luminous that precisely for that reason it turns out invisible to earthly eyes, but which is mentioned in ancient THEOGONIES, and which is of indispensable mathematical rigor.

And there does not exist only that Equatorial or Astral Sun, unknown center of which our Physical Sun is a mere PLANET, but in addition there exist in HIGHER PLANES or HYPER DIMENSIONS of cerulean space, two other SUNS still more excellent, and which the TAMIL Calendars, like the TIRUCHANGA, PANCHANGA, call respectively Polar Sun (or Galactic Center of all our nebula and its hundred thousand Suns) and Central Sun (Center of Centers, which in turn links and unifies as many nebulae of millions and millions of SUNS as exist by the thousands in the sky).

Before the eyes of the MYSTIC, the ASTRAL or EQUATORIAL SUN shines dazzlingly, set in the celestial group that we call PLEIADES or LITTLE GOATS of the Constellation of Taurus.

SIRIUS with all its magnificence, center of gravitation of the MILKY WAY, must gravitate around the Polar Sun.

The COSMIC ORDER would be impossible without the Central Sun. VARIETY is UNITY. The Central Sun UNIFIES, GOVERNS, establishes UNITY within the INFINITE VARIETY.

Chapter XXX

Chapter 32: THE ASTRAL BODY

Much has been written in occult literature on the interesting subject of astral projection.

It is fitting to cite here the undesirable hypnotic phenomena of a certain Laurent, on July 10, 1894, in which the famous Colonel Rochas managed, with the lamentable imprudence of an experimenter who scorns the classic ARS MAGNA VITA BREVIS, EXPERIMENTUM PERICULOSUM, to induce hypnotic states, separated from one another by intervening lethargies that may be summarized as follows, as those who have devoted themselves to such matters well know.

To the three typical hypnotic states known as lethargy, catalepsy, and somnambulism, Colonel Rochas added more and deeper states, up to the number thirteen, each separated by successive lethargies in which the patient seems to fall asleep more and more deeply, only to awaken successively into "new states," each more distant from the waking state.

In the fifth state, a blue phantom appears on the left side of the hypnotized subject, and in the sixth, another red phantom emerges on the left as well. The two phantoms then merge into one upon reaching the seventh state, and interpenetrate in irregular white-violet bands in the eighth state.

In the ninth hypnotic state, the astral double, now integrated, begins to acquire a relative freedom of movement, though without breaking the silver cord that connects it to the physical body; the rupture of that cord would mean death.

In the eleventh hypnotic state, according to Colonel Rochas himself, the astral double tends to emancipate itself and release all its physical moorings, while certain repulsive forms or I-devils move viscously within and outside that double, producing terrible convulsive movements in the patient.

At this point in the chapter it is well to clarify that Colonel Rochas gave such I-demons of the patient the label of "repulsive larvae."

Beset by such animal creatures, ever greater in number, the unfortunate hypnotized patient feels his vital strength draining away and anguishedly begs to be awakened and freed from such a nightmare; this is the twelfth state.

The thirteenth state is definitive: the hypnotized patient utterly breaks his physical moorings and travels freely through the higher dimensions of space.

It is clear to anyone that all these hypnotic experiments are criminal at heart. The hypnotist in such cases is like the merciless vivisectionist who with his little bit of intelligence presumes to be wise and tortures helpless animals to discover the enigmas of nature. Only in this case the guinea pig is the unfortunate hypnotized patient.

The Universal Christian Gnostic Movement teaches practical and effective systems for leaving the physical body at will and traveling consciously in the double, without the need of harmful and damaging hypnotic trances.

The wise Law of Analogies of Contraries invites us to understand that, just as there are thirteen subjective negative states during a hypnotic projection, there are also thirteen objective positive states during a healthy and natural projection.

Above all, it is urgent to understand that whoever wishes to learn to travel consciously in the double must first awaken consciousness (see Chapter Eleven).

Once consciousness is awakened, projection is no longer a problem. The Sacred Scriptures insist on the necessity of awakening, yet people continue with their consciousness asleep.

The hour has come to understand that the double recorded on certain photographic plates and analyzed by Colonel Rochas is not really the astral body.

The double has always been, is, and will always be of a molecular, lunar, protoplasmic nature.

The astral body is a body of solar electronic nature; it has nothing vague, vaporous, or subjective about it. It is a body of flesh and bone — flesh from paradise, flesh that does not come from Adam.

Ordinary human beings, with very rare exceptions, are always born with the famous lunar double, never with a solar astral body.

The poor intellectual animal possesses the molecular body, the body of desires, the lunar double, but does not have a solar astral body; he must fabricate it.

Intellectual animals live inside and also outside the physical body during normal sleep or after death, clothed in the molecular double. Pseudo-esotericists and pseudo-occultists call this molecular body the astral body, but that is not the astral body.

The so-called "out-of-body journeys" are always carried out with the lunar double, which, after releasing its physical moorings, can travel freely throughout the Milky Way without any danger.

Any monk may develop the Superior Emotional Center and eliminate from his inner nature his lower desires and animal passions, if he truly proposes to do so; but that does not mean fabricating the astral body.

Fabricating the astral body has been, is, and will always be an absolutely sexual problem.

There is an occult maxim that says: "As above, so below." We could also say: "As below, so above."

If, in order to engender the physical body, the sexual union of phallus and uterus is always required, it is absolutely logical to say that, in order to engender the solar astral body, the sexual act is indispensable.

Within that complicated and difficult labyrinth of pseudo-esotericism and pseudo-occultism, there is never a lack of some degenerate infrasexual who goes about claiming that, since we contain within ourselves the two masculine-feminine poles, the astral body can be fabricated without the sexual act.

These imbeciles fail to understand that the time of the Lemurian hermaphrodites has passed, and that only an authentic hermaphrodite can carry out a creation without the need of sexual cooperation, without the sexual act between man and woman.

The Lemurian hermaphrodite had the phallus and uterus fully developed, all the organs of male and female, and could therefore create and reproduce without the need of the sexual act. But none of those pseudo-esotericists and pseudo-occultists who hate sexual magic has ever demonstrated to us that they possess the fully developed sexual organs of male and female.

What abounds like weeds in this perverse and corrupted civilization are false hermaphrodites, the homosexuals of Lilith, the sodomites.

Sexual hydrogen develops within the human organism according to the musical scale Do-Re-Mi-Fa-Sol-La-Si.

Sexual hydrogen Si-12 abounds in the semen, crystallizes in new human bodies, and, wisely transmuted, takes form in the astral body.

By restraining the sexual impulse to avoid the ejaculation of semen, sexual hydrogen Si-12 receives a special shock that passes it to a second higher octave, which is processed according to the seven notes of the scale: Do-Re-Mi-Fa-Sol-La-Si.

No occultist should be unaware that the transformation of substances within the organism is processed according to the Law of Octaves.

The union of male and female Si-12, together with all that accompanies these two units, allows us to pass sexual hydrogen to a second higher octave whose result is the crystallization of that hydrogen in the marvelous form of the astral body. That body of perfection is born from the same material, the same substance, the same matter from which the physical body is born; this is precisely the transmutation of lead into gold, the transformation of the physical body into astral body.

Every organism requires its food, and the astral body is no exception; the food of this body of gold is Hydrogen 24.

The Universal Christian Gnostic Movement teaches practical and effective systems for leaving the physical body at will and traveling consciously in the double, without the need of harmful and damaging hypnotic trances.

Chapter 33: THE MENTAL BODY

Immanuel Kant, the great German philosopher, demonstrated in his great work titled The Critique of Pure Reason the possibility of a transcendental logic.

Many centuries before Bacon and Aristotle, the formulas of a higher, transcendental logic were already given to humanity in the sacred scriptures of Hindustan, formulas that in themselves have the power to open the formidable doors of mystery.

Esoteric philosophy never believed in the infallibility and totalitarian omnipotence of Aristotelian logic.

It is necessary to understand, it is urgent to know, that higher logic existed before the deductive and inductive methods were formulated.

Transcendental logic is the logic of intuition, the logic of the infinite, the logic of ecstasy.

Every esoteric investigator may find that higher logic in the works of Plotinus, in that precious treatise on intelligible beauty.

Peter Ouspensky says: "I have called this system of higher logic Tertium Organum, because for us it is the Third Canon — the third instrument — of thought after those of Aristotle and Bacon. The first was the Organon, the second the Novum Organum; but the third existed before the first."

It is clear to understand that man, with this key of the mind in his power, can and must open the marvelous door to the world of cosmic causes, without any fear.

Through many years of observation and experience we have been able to verify that authentic ecstasy unfolds within math-emational and logical laws.

Let us recall first of all what is very aptly called the unity of mystical experience: during the state of sacred rapture, all mystics feel concretely something in common, with a similar sense and with unmistakable bonds of identical character.

Let us consider, secondly, the most interesting case of mystical language; through a careful comparative study of religions we have been able to verify that the mystics of various ages speak the same esoteric language and use the same words. This demonstrates to the utmost the tremendous reality of mystical experience.

Let us mention, in the third place, the astonishing concordance of data that in a very intimate way relates mystical experiences to the intrinsic conditions of the world.

From such conditions one may correctly deduce the sensation of unity of the All; a new and very peculiar sensation of what we call time; the sensation of infinity; pleasure or horror; integral knowledge of the All in the part; and finally the unforgettable experience of infinite life and infinite consciousness.

Reactionary people of a regressive and retrograde type have their minds bottled up in formal logic. They have never studied higher logic, and therefore behave like true asses when they try to interpret an esoteric book.

The scoundrels rejected mystical experience when they could not bottle it up in their formal logic.

The most serious thing of all is that the know-it-alls of reactionary logic not only are ignorant, but moreover are ignorant of their own ignorance.

To label the data of mystical experience as illogical is truly the height of ignorance.

Pure esotericism is grounded on mystical experience, and the latter is subject to the mathematics of transfinite numbers and to the unmistakable laws of higher logic.

In our previous chapter we studied the astral body, by means of which the full manifestation of the Superior Emotional Center in us is achieved.

In the present chapter it is necessary to understand what the mental body is, what mind is, what higher logic is.

Only through the legitimately solar mental body can the full development of the Superior Mental Center be achieved.

Ordinary people have only a lunar mental body; that protoplasmic body is of an animal nature.

The inferior Manas, or concrete mind, of which Theosophy speaks, is only the lunar mental.

It is no marvel that the intellectual animal has a mental-animal vehicle; irrational beasts also have one. The only difference is that they never gave the mind an intellectual form.

It is indispensable to fabricate the mental body if we truly want to think with the mind of Christ, with higher logic, with the intelligence of a Gnostic Arhat.

By restraining the sexual impulse to avoid the ejaculation of the semen, sexual hydrogen Si-12 receives a second special shock that in fact passes it to a third higher octave, which is processed according to the seven notes of the musical scale Do-Re-Mi-Fa-Sol-La-Si.

The crystallization of sexual hydrogen Si-12 in the splendid form of the solar mental body is carried out according to the wise Law of Musical Octaves.

It would be impossible to fabricate the solar mental body without the seven notes of the third scale.

The yogi who has never practiced Maithuna may become a true athlete of mental concentration, but he will never be able to fabricate the solar mental body with pranayamas or mental exercises, because this is and always will be a one-hundred-percent sexual problem.

The authentic and legitimate solar mental body is a body of paradise, a body of happiness full of incalculable perfections.

Those who suppose that the solar mental body is a vague, vaporous, fluidic body, and so on, are lamentably mistaken. The solar mental body is also an organism of flesh and bone, flesh from paradise, flesh that does not come from Adam.

The solar mental body is born from the sexual act without ejaculation of the Ens Seminis and requires its food for nourishment and growth. The solar mental body feeds on Hydrogen 12.

The solar mental body has three hundred thousand glands or magnetic centers, and all of them must vibrate with the same tone, without the slightest arrhythmia.

Those initiates who possess a solar mental body always think with higher logic, with transcendental logic.

Taking the axioms of Aristotle as a model, we could intelligently express the principal axiom of higher logic in the following way: "A is both A and not A." "Everything is both A and not A."

The logical formula A is both A and not A corresponds to a certain transfinite mathematical formula that says: "A magnitude can be greater or less than itself."

The scoundrels bottled up in formal logic, on reading these lines, will scornfully label these formulas as illogical and absurd.

People of lunar mind are incapable of understanding the higher logic of solar man.

Now you will understand, dear reader, why the scoundrels turn into true asses when they try to interpret the ancient theogonies.

The lunar mind is a true ass, on which we must mount if we truly wish to enter victoriously into the celestial Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

It is indispensable to fabricate the mental body if we truly want to think with the mind of Christ, with higher logic, with the intelligence of a Gnostic Arhat.

Chapter 34: THE CAUSAL BODY

With this chapter we have reached the causal world, the marvelous world of conscious will, the electronic region.

Down below in the molecular world, on the other side of the evil river, there is a sorrowful place — not for its tortures, but for its darkness — where in place of laments like cries, only sad sighs are heard.

There, in that Limbo of the molecular world, lives Virgil, the poet of Mantua, master of Dante of Florence; there reside all those innocents of pseudo-esotericism and pseudo-occultism who were not washed of original sin, who believed they could fully self-realize without working with the Maithuna in the Ninth Sphere, who made the mistake of not clothing themselves in the three holy virtues (the three solar bodies: astral, mental, and causal).

In our two preceding chapters we studied the solar bodies, astral and mental; now we are going to study the body of conscious will, the causal body.

Our Gnostic students need much faith, and to clothe themselves well in the three holy virtues, if they truly do not wish to remain in Limbo.

The Oriental fakir struggles in a frightful manner to develop within himself the force of the will.

The fakir's whole path consists of multiple physical practices that are incredibly difficult.

Any fakir is quite capable of holding himself still in any difficult posture for hours, months, and years, or of sitting on an anthill beneath a tree, or under the merciless rays of the tropical sun.

Any fakir is quite capable of sitting with arms open in the form of a cross upon a bare stone beneath the sun, or among thorns and thistles for entire months or years.

By means of all these physical tortures the fakir develops the power of the will in a truly terrible way, but he does not manage to fabricate the body of conscious will, or causal body, because that is a one-hundred-percent sexual problem.

If the body of conscious will, or causal body, could be fabricated through the physical tortures of the fakir, then in accordance with the Law of Correspondences and Analogies and in obedience to the hermetic maxim "As above, so below," we would have to say that the physical body of flesh and bone could also be fabricated through such practices, and that consequently the sexual act of father and mother would be superfluous.

To affirm such an absurdity would in fact be the lamentable consequence of a mistaken idea.

Only in the lit forge of Vulcan can the body of conscious will, or causal body, be fabricated.

Through the Maithuna in the Ninth Sphere, we can and must give sexual hydrogen Si-12 a third very special shock to pass it to a fourth higher octave: Do-Re-Mi-Fa-Sol-La-Si.

The crystallization of sexual hydrogen Si-12 in the extraordinary form of the causal body, or body of conscious will, takes place according to the seven notes of the scale.

The solar astral body is born in the Third Initiation of Fire; the solar mental body is born in the Fourth Initiation of Fire. The causal body, or body of conscious will, is born in the Fifth Initiation of Fire.

To possess a causal body, a body of conscious will, is equivalent to becoming a Mahatma, an Adept of the White Lodge.

The First Initiation of Fire occurs when the serpent of the physical body makes contact, in the magnetic field at the root of the nose, with the atom of the Father.

The Second Initiation of Fire comes when the serpent of the vital body makes contact with the atom of the Father in the magnetic field at the root of the nose.

The Third Initiation of Fire occurs when the serpent of the astral body reaches the third chamber of the heart, after passing through the Amrita Nadi.

The Fourth Initiation of Fire comes when the serpent of the mental body reaches the fourth secret chamber of the heart, after passing from the brain to the cardia by means of the Amrita Nadi.

The Fifth Initiation is a marvelous cosmic event that takes place when the fifth serpent — the serpent of the causal body — reaches the fifth esoteric chamber of the cardia after having reached the brain.

The Fifth Cosmic Festival is splendid; the newborn causal child is taken to the temple in the Chariot of the Ages. The altar is draped for this glorious event with the Sacred Veil of Veronica, on which shines the divine face crowned with thorns.

The Veil of Veronica represents the Christ-Will, the body of conscious will.

The Christ-Will knows only how to do the will of the Father, in heaven and on earth. "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not my will, but Thine, be done."

Among the archaic ruins of the Bronze Age many heads have been found with crowns of thorns sculpted in the living rock.

The figure of the Ecce Homo bears a crown not only to remind us of the historical fact of the martyrdom of our adorable Jesus the Christ, but also to indicate to us the necessity of fabricating the solar body of the Christ-Will.

It is urgent to know, it is necessary to understand, that the causal body is an ineffable organism that also requires food for its nourishment and growth; the food of the causal body, or body of conscious will, is Hydrogen 6.

Much have we said about the four bodies (physical, astral, mental, and causal); some people have written asking why we eliminate the Lingam Sarira, the vital body. I have always replied to such people that the vital body is only the upper section of the physical body, and that therefore in esotericism it is considered as one with the cellular body.

Inexperienced clairvoyants confuse the lunar bodies with the solar bodies, and even fall into the error of believing that the poor intellectual beast wrongly called man already has a perfect septenary constitution.

It is lamentable that inexperienced clairvoyants confuse the Buddhata deposited among the lunar protoplasmic bodies with the authentic and legitimate causal body, or solar body of conscious will.

The Buddhata, the essence, is only a fraction of the human soul within us; it is absurd to confuse it with the causal body.

On a certain occasion my Real Being, the Innermost, sat at the banquet table with two other persons. The first was my Buddhi, my Valkyrie; the other was myself, the human soul clothed in the causal body.

The Lord took up the word and said: "I have two souls; the first (Buddhi) is the spiritual soul and is feminine; the second is the human soul and is masculine. The human soul is the one that works; while the human soul works, the spiritual soul plays. That is my doctrine."

This lesson was taught to me by my Real Being Samael in the causal world, the world of conscious will.

Our Gnostic students need much faith, and to clothe themselves well in the three holy virtues, if they truly do not wish to remain in Limbo.

Chapter 35: THE SECOND BIRTH

In our last chapter we said that the Being, the Innermost, the divine Spirit of every living creature, has two souls: Buddhi and Superior Manas.

The Being in himself is Atman, the Ineffable; if we were to commit the error of giving him the labels of Higher Self, Alter Ego, Subliminal Self, Divine Ego, and so on, we would commit a blasphemy, because That which is the Divine, the Real, can never fall into the heresy of separativeness.

Superior or inferior are two sections of one and the same thing; higher self and lower self are two sections of the same pluralized ego (Satan).

The Being is the Being, and the reason for the Being to be is the Being himself. The Being transcends personality, ego, and individuality.

Atman, the Being, unfolds himself into Buddhi and Manas. Buddhi is our Valkyrie, our divine spouse, the Beatrice of Dante, the spiritual soul. Manas, the higher Manas wrongly called the Causal Ego in Theosophy, is the human soul, the eternal spouse of the Valkyrie.

Buddhi and Manas are truly the two twin souls, the two fishes of the zodiacal sign of Pisces among the deep waters of the eternal Mother-Space.

The masculine-feminine opposites reconcile in the Monad to form the immortal Triad Atman-Buddhi-Manas.

The immortal Triad of every lunar creature is not incarnated; it lives freely in the Milky Way, but is connected to the physical body by the famous Antakarana, the thread of life, the silver cord.

The poor intellectual animal wrongly called man possesses, within his lunar protoplasmic bodies and bottled up in the pluralized I, only a fraction of the human soul, the essence, the Buddhata.

Just as Atman unfolds himself into Buddhi and Superior Manas, so too the latter unfolds itself into the Buddhata, into the essence.

The poor intellectual animal certainly could not incarnate within himself his immortal Triad, because since he has only protoplasmic lunar inner bodies, it is clear that he would not withstand the tremendous electro-spiritual voltage of Atman-Buddhi-Manas and would die.

Whoever wishes to incarnate within himself his total Soul, his Divine Immortal Triad, must first descend to the Ninth Sphere (sex) to create his solar electronic bodies.

In Atman lives Isabel. At this moment the particle IS comes to mind, the eternal feminine principle and the Isiac mysteries. Abel is the noble husband of the eternal beloved, the human soul.

To incarnate the immortal divine Triad in fact means to come forth from the Ninth Sphere, the Second Birth.

The child who is born comes out of the womb; whoever is born in the higher worlds comes out of the Ninth Sphere (sex).

Whoever attains the Second Birth enters the temple of the twice-born. Whoever reaches the Second Birth must renounce sex for all eternity. The sexual act is absolutely forbidden to the twice-born. Whoever violates this law will lose his solar bodies and will fall into the valley of bitterness.

Whoever attains that Second Birth of which Jesus spoke to Nicodemus, enters in fact and by his own right the Magis Regnum, Regnum Dei.

No one could enter the Kingdom dressed in the garments of a beggar, in lunar rags. I know of a case of an Adept Lady who fabricated her gala garments, her solar bodies, in ten years of intense work in the Ninth Sphere. That Lady is now an inhabitant of the Kingdom and lives among the Elohim.

It is difficult to set the precise time for the Second Birth; this depends on the quality of the work. Some may attain the Second Birth in fifteen or twenty years of intense work in the Ninth Sphere; others may take much longer.

Remember, Gnostic brethren, that our motto is Thelema (Will). Intimate Self-Realization is only for the men and women of Thelema.

Before the twice-born, two paths open: that of the right and that of the left.

The path of the right is for those who work on the dissolution of the I; the sinister path is for those who commit the error of not working on the dissolution of the I.

The twice-born who does not reduce his lunar ego to cosmic dust becomes an abortion of the Mother, a Marut, and of these there are thousands of kinds. Certain Oriental sects and some Muslim tribes commit the lamentable error of rendering worship to all these families of Maruts.

Every Marut, every Hasnamuss (pronounce the H as J), has in fact two personalities: the white and the black, the solar and the lunar. The Innermost, the Being clothed in the solar electronic bodies, is the white solar personality of the Hasnamuss; the pluralized I clothed in the lunar protoplasmic bodies is the black lunar personality of the Hasnamuss. These Maruts therefore have a double center of gravity.

To understand each of our psychological defects in each and every one of the forty-nine regions of the subconscious is vital, but is not enough for the elimination of all those submerged entities that personify our errors.

The mind can change nothing radically; the mind may take the luxury of hiding its own errors, of justifying them, of condemning them, of passing them from one department of the mind to another, etc., but it is not capable of dissolving them, of eliminating them.

An extra help is needed, a special aid, someone to extract, to expel those I's, those submerged entities that personify our psychological errors, and to cast them into the infernal worlds.

Fortunately each of us has a particular Cosmic Mother, a Divine Mother. That magnetic point of the Mother-Space, that Mother-point from which the Being, Atman, sprang forth, is in fact the very root of the Monad, the particular Mother of the Monad.

That mathematical point, that Mater point, is in itself immeasurable, and exists in a more real form than everything that is measurable. Measurability is, beyond any doubt, far too crude an indication of existence, because measurability itself is too conditioned a concept.

In a Buddhist pagoda in China the monks taught me a very special form of prayer, an asana or sacred posture for asking the inner Buddha, and in fact the particular Cosmic Mother of the inner Buddha.

Instructions

- First: kneel.

- Second: sit on your heels in the Muslim style.
- Third: open your arms in the form of a cross.
- Fourth: praying to the Divine Mother, bow with your arms open forward and backward, while remaining seated firmly on your heels.

After having understood a given psychological defect at each and every one of the subconscious levels of the mind, we must cry out and ask for help from our particular Divine Mother, begging her to eliminate from the lunar bodies the I, the entity that personifies that defect.

Without the help of the Divine Mother it is impossible to eliminate those I-demons that live in the lunar bodies.

The prior understanding of any psychological defect is indispensable before the Divine Mother proceeds to eliminate the submerged entity that personifies it.

When the pluralized I has been absolutely eliminated, we come forth from the atomic infernos and enter the molecular purgatorial region.

In purgatory we must fry or scorch the seeds of the I, for if these are not burned, they will sprout again; let us remember that the pluralized I can also resurrect like the phoenix from its own ashes.

The elimination of the lunar protoplasmic bodies is only possible when the pluralized I has died and when the evil tendencies or seeds have been reduced, by means of fire, to cosmic dust.

"Render unto God what is God's, and unto Caesar what is Caesar's." The lunar bodies belong to nature; she lent them to us, and we must return them to her.

Buddhi is our Valkyrie, our divine spouse, the Beatrice of Dante, the spiritual soul.

Chapter 36: PETER, JUDAS, AND JOHN

It is written that there is only one path — narrow, strait, and frightfully difficult — but for the sake of greater understanding we are going to divide it into two sections, into two aspects, into two paths.

Peter, the master of Maithuna, Patar, died crucified with his head downward and his feet upward.

John, I-E-O-U-AN, the Word itself, leans his head upon the heart of the Great Kabir Jesus, as if to say: Love is nourished by love.

The crucifixion of the Hierophant Peter indicates to us the work with the rough stone. It was necessary that Patar die crucified with his head downward and his feet upward, to indicate to us the descent into the Ninth Sphere, into the ninth circle of the Dantean inferno.

There is an intimate relation between the Ninth Sphere and the cubic stone. Let us recall that the study of the novenary always ends with the cubic stone set on its point. Let us remember, Gnostic brethren, that the sacred stone has nine faces and unites within itself the perfection of the cube and the balanced elevation of the pyramid of square base.

It is urgent to know that the formal cteis crosses the vertical phallus to form the cross. The cross itself is one hundred percent phallic. It is indispensable to know that when one opens the cubic stone at its point and unfolds its faces, one inevitably obtains the symbol of the cross as the perfect expression of the Magisterium of Fire.

Hebrew Kabbalah places the Sefirah Yesod in sex. The cubic stone of Yesod is sex itself.

It is urgent, it is indispensable, to transport the chosen vessel, the vessel of Hermes, to heaven; but first we must work with the hard stone, give it the perfect cubic form, walk the path of Peter.

The sacred scriptures say that Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, and what about this one?" referring to John. The Great Kabir answered him: "If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me."

John, the Word, waits crouched at the bottom of the Ark for the moment of being realized.

No one can work on the path of John without having previously walked the path of Peter.

The fundamental key of the path of Peter is the Maithuna. On the path of John, the sexual act is absolutely forbidden.

Between the path of Peter and the path of John there is an abyss. It is indispensable to set a bridge over the precipice to unite the two paths. It is urgent to hang, to hang Judas on the bridge.

Judas is the pluralized I, the Myself, that betrays the inner Christ from moment to moment. Dante in his Divine Comedy places Judas inside the mouth of Lucifer, agitating only his legs outside.

Judas, the lunar legion of I-devils which every intellectual animal carries within himself, is composed of the granulations of the Luciferic fire, or negative Fohat.

Lucifer exists in the atomic infernos of the intellectual animal, and is that passionate, instinctive, sexual, bestial fire that every person carries within.

Judas is the crystallization of Lucifer, the Word of Lucifer made forms; that is why Dante places Judas inside the sinister Luciferic mouth. Without Lucifer the existence of Judas would be impossible. Just as the fish dies outside the water, so too Judas dies outside the Luciferic fire.

Original sin is absolutely Luciferic, sexual, passionate. The root of every psychological defect is one hundred percent Luciferic. In Lucifer is the origin of every evil. Judas is the Word of Lucifer.

If you wish to hang Judas on the bridge to unite the path of Peter with the path of John, first kill Lucifer.

Remember, dear reader, that Lucifer lives in the center of the earth, in the Ninth Sphere (sex), at the bottom of the universe.

Lucifer is a ladder to ascend; Lucifer is a ladder to descend. Dante places the following phrase in the mouth of Virgil: "Hold firm, for by such stairs as these we must depart from so much evil."

To gradually extinguish within ourselves the Luciferic fire is equivalent to climbing degree by degree the Luciferic ladder.

Virgil, the poet crowned with laurels, with the sublime Dante clinging to his neck like a child, took hold of the shaggy ribs of Lucifer, and from hair to hair descended between the bristly side and the frozen crusts; and when he reached the place where the thigh swells out just above the thickness of the hips, with weariness and anguish he turned his head back toward where Lucifer's haunches were and took hold of the hair like a man who climbs, so that the noble Florentine thought he was returning to the inferno.

One descends to the Ninth Sphere by the Luciferic ladder. One ascends, one comes out of the Ninth Sphere, by the Luciferic ladder.

Lucifer is the miserable worm that pierces through the world; the passion fire; the tempting serpent of Eden; the repulsive viper that offered Eve the bitter morsel; our worst adversary.

Lucifer is the antithesis of Christ; the malign reptile that craftily glides among the green grass and the perfumed flowers of spirituality.

It would be impossible to reduce Judas to cosmic dust if we did not previously extinguish the Luciferic fire.

Within our own atomic infernos we have to do a double work: transmute lead into gold and hang Judas.

When Dante completed this double alchemical and magical work, his Guru said to him: "Arise! the way is long, the road evil, and already the sun nears the middle of the third hour."

The place where the Master and the disciple found themselves was not like the gallery of a palace, but like a cavern with rough floor; this can be verified for himself by every Gnostic who has completed the double work.

It is written that whoever abandons the atomic infernos of nature, enters at once the purgatorial region, to fry or scorch the seeds of the I, as the Hindu yogis say; in those evil germs lie the bad tendencies of Judas.

The complicated purgatorial work of incinerating satanic seeds is terribly difficult and more bitter than gall.

Judas in himself has three satanic aspects, because he betrays us in the world of desires, in the world of the mind, and in the realm of the will. This reminds us of the three traitors of Hiram Abiff; and there comes to my memory at this moment the three horrible mouths of Lucifer, with a traitor stuck within each.

Dante says that purgatory has seven regions; but if we multiply this number by itself, we have then the Kabbalistic number forty-nine; the forty-nine regions of the subconscious; the forty-nine stables of Augeas.

Bitter and difficult is the task of eliminating the Luciferic fire in each and every one of the forty-nine subconscious regions; whoever undertakes this work will have to weep tears of blood.

The esoteric tests in each and every one of the forty-nine sub-conscious regions are repeated incessantly, and the twice-born suffers intimately amid the frightful moral torments of the purgatorial state.

An in-depth analysis of the esoteric purgatorial work allows us to understand fully that without the aid of the Divine Mother, in whom are contained all the magical powers of the sacred Monad, failure would be inevitable.

The great Law excludes from the sphere of solar fire and from the path of John those souls who did not kill Judas within themselves and who did not purify themselves amid the flames of the inner purgatory.

Hasnamussen are never admitted within the eternal spheres of felicity.

Absolute entry into the solar heavens is only possible after having burned even the seeds of the pluralized I.

Let us remember, Gnostic brethren, that the sacred stone has nine faces and unites within itself the perfection of the cube and the balanced elevation of the pyramid of square base.

Chapter 37: THE PATH OF JOHN

The authentic and legitimate esoteric work, since ancient times, was always symbolized by the cart and the oxen drawing the holy ark, for which reason it is dangerous to forget this basic symbol and stray from the path.

The cart reminds us of man and his inner bodies. The oxen bring to imagination the sacred five-legged cow, the sacred symbol of the Divine Mother. The Holy Ark encloses the mysteries of sex; it is, in essence, sex itself.

In other times the humble Samist, dancing and leaping, always preceded the blessed vessel, the vessel of Hermes, and on that occasion was both more and less than king.

This reminds us of the dancing dervishes of Mohammedan esotericism; the aim of those sacred dances is to awaken consciousness.

In the ancient schools of mysteries, sexo-yoga, the Maithuna, was never taught to neophytes if they had not previously fulfilled the basic requirement of self-awakening consciousness.

Asleep, unconscious neophytes cannot be aware of the work they are performing and, sooner or later, abandon the great work.

In these times of worldwide crisis we must take that risk and teach sexo-yoga publicly, cost what it may, because at this point everything is already lost, and we are out to save from the drowning man at least his hat.

Human beings are simple worms of the mud, born to form within themselves the angelic butterfly that flies unimpeded toward the justice of God. Unfortunately, these defective insects, these miserable chrysalides, remain almost all without any development, and truly serve only as food for the bowels of the world in which we live.

It is urgent to walk the path of Peter and hang Judas on the bridge, in order to have the right to tread the celestial path, the path of the Word, the path of John.

If on the path of Peter the practice of sexual magic, the Maithuna, was obligatory, on the path of John sex is absolutely forbidden.

The eagle of the spirit, with its living feathers of pure gold, soaring loftily through the starry firmament, has the custom of hunting exclusively in the purgatorial regions. That mysterious eagle plunges down terrible as the lightning bolt to seize the soul into the spheres of universal fire. Ganymede, transformed into an eagle, was carried to Olympus to serve as cup-bearer to the gods.

It is impossible to enter the celestial path without prior preparation in the regions of the purgatorial state.

Whoever enters the inner purgatory is marked on the forehead with the letter P. The Guardian Angel of purgatory, with the sharp point of his flaming sword, writes that letter seven times on the sidereal forehead of the twice-born.

"See that you wash off these stains when you are within," says the Guardian Angel. The washing of the feet symbolizes the same thing; it is written that at the Last Supper, before going up to Golgotha, Jesus the Great Kabir washed the feet of his disciples. The seven P's engraved on the forehead are gradually erased as the Luciferic fire and all the seeds of Judas are eliminated.

The silver cart loaded with multiple stones of the same lunar metal must be delivered up by the divine pair Buddhi-Manas; it must be offered as a gift to the temple of the Divine Mother.

The sexual act is forbidden to the twice-born, not only in the physical world but also in each and every one of the forty-nine subconscious regions.

It is impossible to tread the path of John without having previously passed through purgatory. The path of John is the path of the Word. The army of the Voice unfolds and develops in nine circles that correspond to the nine spheres of the sensible world.

Beginning with the lower circle, the adept must become an Angel, later an Archangel, and finally enter the Realm of the Principalities.

Continuing with the second circle, the adept must transform himself first into a Power, then into a Domination, and later into a Virtue.

Concluding with the third circle, the adept must become first a Throne, then a Cherub, and finally a Seraph.

It is quite fitting to recall that the founding Master of the White Lodge on our planet Earth was precisely a Throne known by the name of Sanat Kumara. This man lives in an oasis of the Gobi desert; his age is undecipherable, and his name is mentioned in very ancient religious scriptures.

When a Bodhisattva renounces Nirvana out of love for humanity, he is considered thrice-honored; and after many eternities and Nirvanas won and lost for love of all creatures, at last he earns the right to enter a world of super-Nirvanic felicity.

When a Master wishes to reincarnate to help poor suffering humanity, he emanates, projects, his human soul (the Bodhisattva) with the order that it enter the antechamber of the world — that is, a womb.

Bodhisattvas possess solar bodies. When a Bodhisattva lets himself fall, he loses his solar bodies. We have been told that fallen Bodhisattvas must reincarnate under ever more and more difficult conditions, until at last, after much suffering, they rise again.

Definitively lost Bodhisattvas — those who, despite having been assigned a certain number of lives to rise again, did not do so, did not know how to take advantage of the opportunities — enter the submerged involution of the infernal worlds for three reasons: first, having murdered the Buddha; second, having dishonored the gods; third, sundry accounts.

In these times of the end, that great initiate of the past Mahamanvantara, called in cosmology the Mahamanvantara of Padma, or Golden Lotus, has sent his Bodhisattva to Earth.

The name of that great initiate is very well known in the Old Testament: it is the biblical Jehovah, the most exalted Being of the ancient Lunar Chain, the Governor of the ancient Earth-Moon.

We have been told that the Bodhisattva of the Lord Jehovah was born among a humble family of peasant workers in a certain country of South America.

The Bodhisattva of the Lord Jehovah had a happy childhood and adolescence, simple and unassuming, in the countryside; but now he is a young man, and this worries us because of the modern environment and the little companions of these times. This young man lives at present in a certain city, and it is clear that he is doing the foolish things proper to all young people of this age.

If the reincarnation of this Bodhisattva is a success, the Great Master Jehovah could incarnate in his Bodhisattva to carry out a great work.

When a Bodhisattva renounces all psychic powers, when in a radical manner he eliminates the false idea that he needs something external in order to be happy, there comes to him a particular knowledge, a marvelous splendor called in occultism Dharma Megha, the cloud of virtue. This class of Bodhisattvas can no longer fall; this special class of Bodhisattvas possesses within themselves all the foundations of knowledge, enjoys the most profound peace, and from their hearts springs forth the substance of love.

On the path of John one advances on the basis of renunciations that are ever more and more terrible.

Just as a tree has many branches, so too from the direct path many transverse paths are born. Some lead us to the elemental paradises where we become Genii or Devas of nature; others lead us to the bowels of the cosmos where we may transform ourselves into planetary gods; others submerge us in Nirvanic bliss; and so on.

Those who abandon the direct path, those who turn onto the transverse paths, sooner or later have to reincarnate in order to return to the path of John, to the celestial path, to the straight path.

Omniscience and omnipotence are very enviable qualities and confer terrible powers over all of nature; if we renounce these tremendous powers, there follows the destruction of certain seeds that, in one form or another, always bring us back to the successive Mahamanvantaras after each great Pralaya.

It is urgent to know, it is indispensable to understand, that the universe is of an illusory nature. We need to die, die, and die in ourselves, and renounce, renounce, and renounce, and cease to exist in all Seven Cosmos in order to have the right to BE in the Absolute.

This reminds us of the dancing dervishes of Mohammedan esotericism; the aim of those sacred dances is to awaken consciousness.

Chapter 38: THE HISTORY OF THE CHINESE MASTER KAO FENG

The Chinese Master Kao Feng entered the priesthood at fifteen years of age and was ordained at twenty in the Monastery of Chin Tzu.

Kao Feng understood that all human beings are miserable, sleeping automatons, and he resolved as soon as possible to "awaken consciousness" through the science of meditation.

Kao Feng carried out his first labors under the intelligent and wise direction of Master Tuan Chiao, who taught him to work with the Hua Tou (mysterious phrase): "Where was I before birth, and where shall I be after death?"

Kao Feng set himself to work with this Hua Tou but could not concentrate his mind because of the bifurcation of this phrase; his mind divided itself into many opposed opinions and concepts, and Kao Feng suffered untold pain, because he longed with all his heart and all his soul to free himself from mental dualism.

The experience of the Real is impossible while the essence, the Buddhata, the soul, is bottled up in intellectual dualism.

Opposed opinions, the struggling of opposed concepts, anti-thetical ideas — these correspond to the various illusory functionings of the mind.

Kao Feng wept tears of blood, longing to free himself from mental dualism, but he failed with Master Tuan Chiao's Hua Tou.

Tradition tells us that in a state of terrible anguish and desperation Kao Feng sought out Master Hsueh Yen, who, taking pity on his pain, taught him the powerful mantra Wu, requiring of him daily report on his work.

The mantra Wu is chanted like a double U... U..., imitating the howl of the hurricane amid the raging waves of the furious sea. During this practice the mind must be absolutely still and in profound and dreadful silence, both outwardly and inwardly; not the slightest desire, not the most insignificant thought, must stir the deep lake of the mind.

Master Hsueh Yen's explanations were so simple and clear that his disciple Kao Feng fell into negligence and laziness, since he frankly did not need to make any effort to understand them.

Master Hsueh Yen, in spite of his customary gentleness, also knew how to be very severe when necessary.

One day, as usual, Kao Feng entered his Master's room, but then the Master said to him in a very severe tone: "Who has carried this corpse here in your name?" No sooner had he finished saying this than he threw him out of his room.

Later Kao Feng followed the example of Chin Shan and took refuge in the Meditation Hall.

The practices of inner meditation gradually provoke the awakening of consciousness, the awakening of the Buddhata.

The neophyte begins to react to inner suprasensible representations in a way very different from the usual; he begins by saying, "I am dreaming, this is a dream"; later, full of joy, he exclaims, "I am outside the physical body; my physical body is asleep, but I am outside the body, fully conscious and awake!"

On a certain occasion, while Kao Feng was outside his sleeping body, which lay snoring in the bed, he recalled with utter, meridian clarity that koan which says: "All things are reduced to unity, but to what is unity reduced?"

The Chinese traditions tell that at that moment his mind filled with terrible confusion, to the point that he could no longer distinguish East from West, or North from South.

On the sixth day of being in that wretched mental state, it came to pass that while he was murmuring with infinite devotion the collective prayers in the meditation Lumisial, he raised his head and clairvoyantly saw those last two mysterious lines of the Oriental poem composed by the Fifth Patriarch, Fa Yan: "Oh, it is you, whom I have always known, and who come and go in the thirty thousand days of a century."

Kao Feng immediately set himself to work with the mysterious and enigmatic phrase: "Who has carried this corpse here in your name?" It had remained so engraved in his mind from that day when Master Hsueh Yen had spoken it, that it was impossible to forget.

He felt as if his mind and personality had perished and as if his divine Spirit had risen again after death. He felt happy, as if an enormous and heavy burden had been lifted from him. He was then twenty-four years old and had achieved the desire of attaining the "awakening of consciousness" in three years.

When Kao Feng was asked, "Can you master yourself in the full light of day?" he answered firmly, "Yes, I can." "Can you master yourself when you are dreaming?" His answer was again, "Yes, I can." "When you sleep without dreaming, where is the Master?" Kao Feng could find no answer for this last question, and new inner sufferings afflicted the depths of his soul.

The Master said to him: "From now on I do not want you to study Buddhism or the Dharma; I do not want you to study anything, old or new. I want you only to eat when you are hungry and to lie down when you are tired. As soon as you wake up, set your mind on alert and ask yourself: who is the Master of this awakening, and where does his body rest, and toward where does his life lead?"

Kao Feng was certainly a man of Thelema (Will), and he decided with complete firmness that he would understand this in some way, even if in the effort he gave the impression of being an idiot for the rest of his days.

Five years of intensive work passed. One day, when he was working at this point in the midst of sleep, a fellow monk who was sleeping beside him, in the common dormitory of the monastery, unconsciously pushed his pillow, and it fell noisily to the floor. At that moment his doubts vanished at once. He felt with immense joy that he had managed to leap out of a snare. All the mysterious phrases of the Masters and Buddhas, and all the multiple problems of the past, present, and future, became clear to him. From then on Kao Feng was illuminated.

There are two kinds of illumination: the first is usually called dead water, because it has fetters. The second is praised as the great life, because it is illumination without fetters, illuminating Void.

The first type of illumination is awakened self-consciousness. The second type of illumination, though it is called in the Fourth Way objective knowledge, objective consciousness, truly transcends what is called consciousness. The second type of illumination has nothing to do with consciousness; it is the BEING, and the reason for the BEING to be is the BEING himself.

Kao Feng in fact became a Turiya, because he managed to make himself absolutely independent of the mind through deep meditation.

The world is crystallized mind, and that is why it is Maya, illusion.

When the great Cosmic Day ends, this illusory form of the mind will be reduced to cosmic dust.

Truly, my person, all persons, your person, things, creatures of every kind, DO NOT EXIST; they are merely illusory mental forms that must be reduced to cosmic dust.

The only Real is Brahma, the Space-Spirit-Infinite, within which is contained the Eternal Feminine and the Sacred Monad; everything else is illusion.

We must lose ourselves in something... millions of human beings lose themselves in the infernal worlds; we Gnostics prefer to lose ourselves in Brahma.

It is urgent to prevent the mental content (Chitta) from acquiring diverse forms (Vrittis) during profound inner meditation. When the mental waves have ceased and the intellectual lake has calmed, the illusion produced in us by the swell of opposites ceases, and the experience of the Real comes.

When the Space-Spirit-Infinite called Brahma assumes some form to speak to his avatars, it is then Ishvara, the Master of all Masters, a very special Purusha, devoid of mind, exempt from sufferings, from actions, from results, and from desires.

The Luciferic intellect serves, unfortunately, for only one thing: to torment us with the incessant battle of the opposites. Kao Feng liberated himself from the mind and became a Turiya.

The practices of inner meditation gradually provoke the awakening of consciousness, the awakening of the Buddhata.

Chapter 39: THE PASSION OF AL HALLAJ

The Omnicosmic and Most Holy Al Hallaj was born in Iran in the year 857 and was the grandson of a devotee of the Great Master Zoroaster.

Al Hallaj was initiated into the great mysteries of Sufism. The Arabic traditions tell that when he reached forty years of age, he was in open disagreement with the orthodox jurists and traditionalists, and went out into the street to preach directly to the multitudes the sublime principles of the spiritual life.

It is written that Al Hallaj, the Great Sufi Master, taught with his word and with his example, traveling tirelessly through Iran, India, Turkestan, and so on, reaching the very borders of old China.

The Great Master Al Hallaj was, beyond all doubt, a tremendous revolutionary; jealous and envious politicians accused him of being a dangerous agitator; the doctors of the law, of confusing the human and the divine; even the Masters of Sufism did not hesitate to accuse him of breaking the discipline of the Arcanum by divulging the esoteric mysteries among the people; and as is only natural in all such cases, there was no lack of judges willing to condemn him for many alleged crimes, such as charlatan, impostor, black magician, sorcerer, witch, profaner of mysteries, agitator of the people, ignorant preacher, enemy of the government, and so on.

Al Hallaj, the Great Sufi Mystic, was shut in an infamous prison for nine years, and then vilely mutilated and executed on March 27, 922, in the year 309 of the Hegira.

The sacred traditions of Islam tell that when the terrible night came in which he was to be taken from his dungeon at dawn to be executed, he stood up and said the ritual prayer, prostrating himself twice.

Those who saw him say that, having finished his prayer, he repeated without ceasing: "Deceit, deceit..." until the end of the black night, and after a long and profound silence he exclaimed: "Truth, Truth!" and rose to his feet again. He girded the veil about his head, wrapped himself in his blessed mantle, extended his sacred Christified hands, turned his divine face toward the Kaaba, entered into ecstasy, and spoke with his inner God.

When he came out of the prison in daylight, the multitudes saw him in full ecstasy of jubilation, dancing happily under the weight of his chains.

The executioners led him without any mercy to the public square, where, after scourging him with five hundred lashes, they cut off his hands and feet.

The old traditions of the Arab world say that Al Hallaj was crucified after the flagellation and mutilation, and that many people heard him speak in ecstasy with the Father who is in secret, from his own Golgotha.

"O my God! I am about to enter the abode of my desires, and there I shall contemplate Thy marvels. O my God! If Thou manifest Thy love even to him who harms Thee, how then wouldst Thou not give it to him who is harmed in Thee?"

After this prayer issuing from the most holy heart of Al Hallaj, the people who witnessed the torture saw Abu Bakr al-Shibli, who advanced toward the scaffold and cried out loudly the verse: "Have we not forbidden you to receive any guest, be he man or angel?" Then he said to him: "What is Mysticism?" Al Hallaj answered him: "Its least degree, you see here." "And its highest degree?" "You cannot have access to it; and yet tomorrow you will see what shall come to pass. I testify of it in the Divine Mystery in which it exists and remains hidden from you."

In the evening hour, when the time of prayer came, the order arrived from the cruel and bloodthirsty Caliph authorizing the beheading of the holy victim, but the executioners said: "It is too late; let us leave it for tomorrow."

Very early in the morning the order of the Caliph was carried out, and Al Hallaj, still alive, was taken down from the cross and led off to have his throat cut. A certain witness heard him say in a very loud voice: "What the ecstatic seeks is the One alone, alone with Himself." Then, full of ecstasy, he recited the following sacred verse: "Those who do not believe in the last hour are dragged to it in haste; but those who believe await it with reverent fear, for they know that it is the Truth."

Thus, with these solemn words, ended the life of the Omnicosmic and Most Holy Al Hallaj. His venerable blessed head fell, bleeding, beneath the edge of the sword, like a bloody holocaust upon the altar of the supreme sacrifice for humanity.

The poisonous hatred of the executioners was so great that not even the wrapping of the corpse in a shroud or a Christian burial was permitted.

The old traditions of Islam tell that the sacred ashes of the old Sufi Al Hallaj were scattered by the wind from the heights of the Manarah.

The ancient Arab legends say that, instead of a white sheet, the corpse of this saint was wrapped in a filthy mat moistened with petroleum.

When the holy body burned, consumed by the fire of the holocaust, all of nature shuddered, full of infinite terror.

The Great Hierophant Sufi Al Hallaj, with chisel and hammer, transformed the rough stone, giving it a perfect cubic form.

The great immolated one, Al Hallaj, before dying had already died absolutely in himself and within himself.

The resplendent diamond soul of the Imam Al Hallaj, walking along the celestial path, is heading toward the Absolute.

The great Sufi initiate Al Hallaj was born, died, and sacrificed himself totally for humanity.

It is well worth concluding this last chapter with that ineffable prayer that, with infinite love, the Mohammedan Christ, Imam Al Hallaj, left us, and which is titled:

O Total of My Total...

"Here I am, here I am, O my secret, O my confidence!

Here I am, here I am, O my end, O my meaning!

I call upon Thee... no, it is Thou who callest me to Me!

How could I have spoken to Thee, if Thou hadst not spoken to me?

O essence of the essence of my existence, O term of my design, Thou who makest me speak — O Thou, my utterances! Thou, my flickerings!

O Total of my Total, O my hearing, O my sight!

O my totality, my composition, and my parts!

O Total of my Total, Total of every thing, equivocal enigma, I obscure the totality of Thy totality in wishing to express Thee!

O Thou, from whom my spirit was suspended, already dying of ecstasy!

Ah! May my misery still be Thy pledge!...

O supreme object that I seek and await, O my guest!

O nourishment of my spirit! O my life in this world and in the other!

May my heart be Thy ransom! O my hearing, O my sight!

Why so much delay, in my separation, so far away?

Ah, though to my eyes Thou hidest Thyself in the invisible, my heart already contemplates Thee, from my distance, yes! from my exile!"

AL HALLAJ.

He girded the veil about his head, wrapped himself in his blessed mantle, extended his sacred Christified hands, turned his divine face toward the Kaaba, entered into ecstasy, and spoke with his inner God.

Chapter 40: FINAL SALUTATIONS

MOST BELOVED Gnostic BRETHREN:

We have concluded this Christmas Message of 1967-1968. I beg you to study it thoroughly, to practice it, and to live it.

Do not be like those flitting butterflies who read everything and know nothing, who today are in one little school and tomorrow in another, and who in the end die after having miserably wasted their time.

Study in depth; do not be superficial. Remember that in wells of clear and deep water, there is life in abundance, thousands of fish multiply, and everything is joy. Look at the shallow puddles of the road, the vain and shallow pools: they soon dry up under the light of the sun and turn into mud and rotteness.

Be deep, my brethren; always attend the meditation halls (our beloved Gnostic Lumisials).

Love with all your heart and with all your soul your worst enemies; kiss the lash of the executioner; bless those who curse and persecute you; return good for evil.

Beloved ones: I have the high honor of inviting you to a constant exchange of letters, but please, I beg you, I entreat you, refrain from all forms of praise, flattery, and adulation.

It is urgent, it is indispensable, that you understand that my insignificant person is worth less than the ash of a cigarette; it is something that frankly does not have the slightest importance.

With complete sincerity I tell you that any letter bearing praise, flattery, or adulation will be rejected.

Treat me from heart to heart, from good to good, from love to love. Remember that hermetic maxim that says: "I give you love, in which is contained the entire sum of wisdom."

To my worst enemies, to those who so hate, curse, and persecute me, to those who so criticize my works, I send through this Christmas Message a fraternal embrace full of true love.

I adore my enemies, I adore my critics, and naturally I wish for them a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

MOST BELOVED, MAY THE CHRISTMAS STAR SHINE UPON YOUR PATH; I WISH YOU WITH ALL MY HEART AND ALL MY SOUL A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

INVERENCIAL PEACE

SAMAEL AUN WEOR.

MOST BELOVED, MAY THE CHRISTMAS STAR SHINE UPON YOUR PATH; I WISH YOU WITH ALL MY HEART AND ALL MY SOUL A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.
