

Evolution Involution Revolution

by Samael Aun Weor

GNOSTIC LIBRARY

First we must comprehend that the Law of Evolution is completely mechanical. The second thing we must observe is that, if the Law of Evolution exists, the Law of Involution also exists, since it is its twin sister by opposition. The mechanical hope of humanity in evolution is a failure. If we see all that we have "evolved" in the last years we shall realize this. When have we seen so much degeneration, perversity, wars, prostitution, homosexuality, lesbianism, cruelty, etc., etc.?

Evolution, Involution and Revolution

First we must comprehend that the Law of Evolution is completely mechanical. The second thing we must observe is that, if the Law of Evolution exists, the Law of Involution also exists, since it is its twin sister by opposition. The mechanical hope of humanity in evolution is a failure. If we see all that we have "evolved" in the last years we shall realize this. When have we seen so much degeneration, perversity, wars, prostitution, homosexuality, lesbianism, cruelty, etc., etc.?

We must cease to dream of a mechanical evolution and realize that only through Conscious Revolution is human regeneration possible. We must comprehend the error into which we fall when we lean upon concepts such as the theory of Darwin.

The objective of this conference is for us to clearly see what we come to the planet for and how we can attain the objective.

How do we evolve through the four kingdoms of nature?

All the sparks come forth from the Sacred Absolute Sun in search of their Mastery or Self-Realization, through one of the Seven Rays of Creation. And they descend to the Wheel of Samsara to make the course. A few succeed in self-realizing themselves; the majority fail. All have free will, and they are not pressured to attain the triumph.

As the time for the opportunity, 300,000 esoteric years are fixed, represented in the formation of three thousand (3,000) souls, 1 soul for each cycle; and one hundred and eight (108) human existences for each one of the souls — which is equivalent to three hundred twenty-four thousand (324,000) human physical bodies.

There are three alternatives on the wheel:

- 1. Triumph (to attain Self-Realization).
- 2. Failure (to exhaust the existences and return to the Absolute with the 3%).
- 3. To renounce the Wheel and return with the 3% of Consciousness.

The Wheel of Samsara

On the right ascends Evolution, directed by Anubis.

On the left descends Involution, directed by Typhon.

In Evolution we find the four kingdoms of nature, and in Involution the same four kingdoms in involutive state:

- Mineral Kingdom — Mineraloid Kingdom.
- Vegetable Kingdom — Vegetaloid Kingdom.
- Animal Kingdom — Animaloid Kingdom.
- Human Kingdom — Humanoid Kingdom.

Let us study Evolution

The Mineral Kingdom

In the Mineral Kingdom the spark is connected to a physical body of mineral (stone, metal, grain of sand, etc.).

Its soul is called Gnome or Pygmy and has the original spark with its 3% of Consciousness. It does not have psychological defects, but begins its creation. It is assigned the first brain, which is the emotional.

In these conditions it will endure thousands and even millions of years, forming its first defects. The first defects it forms are those of disobedience to the Guru Devas of nature. It continues with those of antipathy, etc., etc.

The only duty that the spark has in the Mineral kingdom is to attend the college where the different things of the kingdom are being taught to it.

When Anubis sees that the spark already has sufficient defects created, He transfers it to the Vegetable kingdom.

The Vegetable Kingdom

In the Vegetable Kingdom the spark is connected to a vegetable, in accordance with the original Ray to which it belongs. Its soul is called Elemental. And its Consciousness continues with the 3% just as it arrived, but it is transferred with the defects it created.

It is given the second brain, which is the Motor-Instinctive-Sexual. In spite of the fact that it is planted in one place, it begins the development of the instinctive brain. This brain permits it to feel pain, pleasure, and fear.

Thus it remains as a bi-cerebrated being: Emotional brain and Motor-Instinctive-Sexual brain. It has to begin to struggle for its food, for the light, and against parasitic plants, etc. In this struggle it creates new psychological defects, since it now feels pain and has to apprehend much from nature, in order to become strong.

When the Guru Deva sees that sufficient defects have been created, He disconnects it from the Vegetable kingdom and connects it to the Animal kingdom.

The Animal Kingdom

In the Animal Kingdom the spark maintains its 3% of Consciousness, maintains the two brains of the Vegetable kingdom — with the difference that it is not planted and can move, seek its own food, learn to defend itself from other animals, etc., etc.

Here it will develop all its animal instincts: fornication, violence, fear, agility; it learns to subsist in a rough environment — a fact that leads it to create new defects.

The soul in the Animal kingdom is called Ánima.

When the Guru Deva sees that it has sufficient defects, He shall transfer it to the Human Kingdom.

The Human Kingdom

In the Human Kingdom a new brain will be given to it — which is the Intellectual — and it will receive the name of Soul. It is assigned 108 existences with a human physical body. The silver cord will be connected to the first human physical body.

From this moment on it will descend nine steps, or rather, it will degenerate in cycles of twelve (12) existences until descending the nine (9) steps.

The first existences will take place in a tribe, in a place apart from civilization. Upon completing existence number 54, Evolution will have ended. And the human — by so much Ego that has been formed — will begin Involution, in spite of the fact that it still has the right to another 54 existences as a Humanoid. The instinct puts the intellect at its service, and the Soul or Psyche darkens in a much more accelerated form.

If we do not take advantage of the Soul, we lose it; for, the 108 existences being exhausted, we will enter into Involution, until nature disintegrates the last of the psychological aggregates and we attain the Second Death.

Let us study Involution

Once the 108 existences in the Human Kingdom have been exhausted, the spark is connected to an involutive animal, at the same time as its contaminated essence penetrates the Nine Dantesque Circles, from which it will not emerge until nature finishes disintegrating all the defects.

Here it will receive numerous bodies of animals, and later it will be connected to numerous bodies of involutive plants, and finally it will arrive at the Involutionary Mineral Kingdom (minerals in decomposition).

These steps must be taken, since the Sun cannot have idle sparks. All must serve the Law of the Trogo.

What is Revolution?

The Revolution of Consciousness is a work that each one of us must do in order to attain his own change.

This change is made through the Three Factors of the Revolution of Consciousness:

- 1. Psychological Death.
- 2. Spiritual Birth.
- 3. Sacrifice for Humanity.

Psychological Death

- To discover the psychological defects through Self-observation.
- To judge the defects until comprehending them.
- To supplicate the Divine Mother to eliminate the defects that have been comprehended.

With Psychological death, the Consciousness trapped in the defects is liberated.

Spiritual Birth

The wise use of Creative Sexual Energy to create the Existential Bodies of the Being. Sexual union of man and woman (phallus in the yoni) without spilling the Creative Sexual Energy.

With Spiritual Birth the liberated Consciousness is fixed to the spinal medulla.

Sacrifice for Humanity

To deliver knowledge to humanity, disinterestedly, so that each person who receives it may make his own Work.

With Sacrifice for Humanity, Love is awakened.

In this manner we liberate ourselves from the Wheel of Samsara, from the processes of Evolution and Involution to which we have been tied for a very long time. Thus we attain the Self-Realization of our Being.

Evolution, Involution and Revolution First we must comprehend that the Law of Evolution is completely mechanical.
