

Intuition

by Samael Aun Weor

GNOSTIC LIBRARY

Intuition is the vehicle of expression of the Consciousness — that is, the divine part. It can be developed by vocalizing the "O" in prolonged form (OOOOOOO) and concentrating on the heart, that is, on the fourth chakra. The other senses can be used by the Ego. Intuition, by contrast, cannot be used by the Ego.

Intuition

Intuition is the vehicle of expression of the Consciousness — that is, the divine part. It can be developed by vocalizing the "O" in prolonged form (OOOOOOO) and concentrating on the heart, that is, on the fourth chakra. The other senses can be used by the Ego. Intuition, by contrast, cannot be used by the Ego.

With Intuition no crime can be committed and no evil done, because the Ego cannot utilize it. One must be careful not to confuse it with what people normally call "hunch," because that is only a primitive warning. Intuition is the certainty about something good or bad, or about anything that is being warned to us in anticipation. When one goes about asleep, one does not pay attention to the warnings of intuition, and for this reason failures come.

Women are more intuitive than men because they reason less.

Intuition is never wrong. It serves to free us from many dangers, and many times to free many persons. Intuition cannot have anything negative — all in it is positive, because it is the manifestation of the Essence itself.

When mantralizing the "O," one must imagine the heart chakra turning in the direction of the hands of the clock. This chakra is a flower of 12 petals that is turning with various colors.

Although the vocalization of the "O" helps to awaken Intuition, what truly attains its manifestation is the practice of the Three Factors. Whoever mantralizes the "O" and works with the Three Factors develops Intuition more rapidly.

Through Intuition the masters warn us; and if we attend to that warning, each one can do what he must. When one receives a warning from Intuition, one must not reason or doubt; one must proceed to act without thinking — because if not, the Ego enters and ruins everything.

The ego cannot utilize Intuition; therefore, when the mind is discarded, Intuition enters into function. The mind is discarded when one does not think; then one perceives the heart center — that is, Intuition. What is born from there must be done.

Intuition helps both in the physical world and in the internal worlds, where they do not speak by means of symbols and numbers. With Intuition, one can interpret any image that is presented to us. It serves us to know here and everywhere. It helps to comprehend the egos more profoundly, and to be able to investigate things more easily, by pure intuitive stroke.

To develop it daily, one must vocalize the "O"; and although mentally also serves, it gives better results to do it aloud, for 20 minutes in continuous form, daily.

Practice strengthens the will and the concentration. Gnosis in theory serves for nothing. What is valid is the practice.
